DID YOU KNOW?

Practice empathy at home to prevent bullying

No parent sets out to raise a bully, but children grow and develop into their own people as they go out into the world — and it starts at home. One way to help your child foster healthy, kind relationships is to work on building good habits at home. Reward kindness and empathy when you see it. Comment on instances of sharing, of kindness, of pride. Help your child understand what it means to empathize with someone else, or to be kind in different situations. For more information, request a copy of the VIRTUS® article “Parents: how not to raise a bully, the ten things you must know. Part Two,” at <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>.

STATEMENT ON RELIGIOUS EXEMPTION FOR VACCINATION AGAINST COVID-19

The Archdiocese of Los Angeles, in accordance with the Vatican and the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB), recommends that all members of the Catholic community, who are able to receive a COVID-19 vaccine, should do so.

“Receiving one of the COVID-19 vaccines ought to be understood as an act of charity toward the other members of our community. In this way, being vaccinated safely against COVID-19 should be considered an act of love of our neighbor and part of our moral responsibility for the common good.” -USCCB, Moral Considerations Regarding the New COVID-19 Vaccines

Since the vaccinations for COVID-19 have been found morally acceptable to protect the lives and ensure the health of all in our communities, the Archdiocese will not provide religious exemptions to receiving a vaccine against COVID-19. Parishes are not to provide religious exemption letters regarding the COVID-19 vaccination.

The following links might be helpful in understanding the morality of receiving the vaccine:

Let us continue to pray for all who have died from this terrible illness, for their loved ones who are experiencing the pain of loss, and for all who continue to work diligently to care for the sick and serve all in need during these challenging times.

OUTREACH PRIEST

Rev. James V. Quinlan

Father Quinlan was ordained May 12, 1976 in the Archdiocese of Chicago. He was associate pastor at various Illinois parishes until he became pastor of a multi-cultural parish in Maywood, Illinois for twenty-one years. In addition, he designed the layout, organization and procedures for Special Pre-Canva Programs for the Archdiocese.

Since moving to Florida, Fr. Quinlan has continued his vocational service by teaching religion to recovery classes at Broward Outreach Center, a homeless shelter, as well as serving as associate pastor at a parish in Lauderdale-by-the-Sea.

Fr. Quinlan brings his excellent teaching and auditory skills to Cross Catholic Outreach where he continues God's work on behalf of the poorest of the poor.

Cross Catholic Outreach was founded to create a meaningful link between parishes in America and the priests and nuns working in the Church overseas in the Caribbean, Africa, Asia, Central and South America. More than ever, poor families in developing countries are relying on Catholic missions for assistance with food, water, shelter, medical care and spiritual nourishment. That's why the work of Cross Catholic Outreach is so important. It supplies those urgent needs.

From Cross Catholic Outreach, Father James will be visiting our parish next weekend to speak at all the Masses on behalf of the poor in developing countries.

Fr. James will share stories about the amazing work Catholic missions are accomplishing around the world. It's an inspiring message every Catholic should hear.

Right now, our world desperately needs the radical compassion Christ lived out. When we help poor families, we show the watching world that our Lord's love remains as powerful and transformative as ever before.
