DID YOU KNOW?

What is a trial balloon?

One of the best ways safe adults can help children who are suffering from abuse is to recognize and listen to their disclosures — even if they are done in stages or in subtle ways. A child may float a “trial balloon” disclosure, meaning he may use a single sentence or phrase to see if a safe adult will respond appropriately. Be on the lookout for sudden disclosures like, “I don’t want to go to So-and-so’s house anymore,” and try responding in a way designed to let the child continue to open up: “Do you want to tell me why?” or “Let’s talk about that,” for example. For more information, read the VIRTUS® article “Test Balloons or Trial Balloons” at lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.

Nativity of the Lord (Christmas)
December 25

Saint Joseph and Blessed Mother Mary were given what seemed to be an impossible task. They were to bring forth into this world, in the form of an infant, the Eternal God, the Second Person of the Most Holy Trinity. God, Who is infinitely transcendent and beyond this world, intimately entered time and space, becoming a humble, weak and dependent infant. God, in the Person of this infant, was nurtured by His earthly parents, caressed, fed, protected, cared for, taught, played with, adored and loved with beautiful human hearts. <https://mycatholic.life/>

Reflection

Take time to use your imagination to be present to this glorious scene. Imagine the thoughts of Saint Joseph when he first realized he had to travel to Bethlehem with Mary, his betrothed. God had spoken to him in a dream about this child. This child was miraculously conceived. There was confusion surrounding her pregnancy. And now they were traveling by donkey as she was about to give birth.
