“El Señor reina, vestido de majestad”.
Salmo 92

Today’s Gospel John 18:33b-37 Pilate said to Jesus, "Are you the King of the Jews?" Jesus answered, "Do you say this on your own or have others told you about me?" Pilate answered, "I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests handed you over to me. What have you done?" Jesus answered, "My kingdom does not belong to this world. If my kingdom did belong to this world, my attendants would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Jews. But as it is, my kingdom is not here." So Pilate said to him, "Then you are a king?" Jesus answered, "You say I am a king. For this I was born and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice."

Did you know? Honoring children’s boundaries teaches important lessons about consent As we enter into the holiday season, where many of us will spend time with extended family and friends, parents should remember to pay attention to their children’s comfort levels, especially when it comes to physical affection. We want our children to be kind and considerate, so it is tempting to ask them to give hugs and kisses to family members and friends. But when children are nervous or shy, or just do not want to, it is important to honor their personal boundaries — and it teaches them a great lesson about consent over who interacts with them and their bodies. You can suggest alternatives, like high-fives or fist bumps. For more information, read “Why you shouldn’t force your kids to hug relatives.”
¿Sabía usted? Honrar los límites de los niños enseña lecciones importantes sobre el consentimiento A medida que entramos en la temporada navideña, durante la cual muchos de nosotros pasaremos tiempo con familiares y amistades, los padres de familia deben recordar prestar atención a los niveles de comodidad de sus hijos, especialmente cuando se trata de afecto físico. Queremos que nuestros hijos sean amables y considerados, por eso es tentador pedirles que den abrazos y besos a familiares y amigos. Pero cuando los niños están nerviosos o son tímidos, o simplemente no quieren, es importante respetar sus límites personales y les enseña una gran lección sobre el consentimiento de quién interactúa con ellos y con sus cuerpos. Los padres de familia pueden sugerir alternativas, como el “high-five” o chocar mano con mano, o chocar los con los puños.
