The church will be closed until further notice because of the Aransas Pass stay-at-home order. We will inform you when the church will be opened again after the stay-at-home order is rescinded.

Mass Book

The Mass book will open on Monday, April 20, for the months of May, June, July, August, and September. Please contact church office on this day or mail in your requests with your contact information. Each person is allowed only 6 Days/Masses. This will allow those with recent deaths to offer a Mass. Once everyone who is interested in having a Mass has done so, anyone wishing to request additional masses may contact the parish to fill in the dates not taken.

For mass schedule and all the latest updated information from our parish, go to our parish website; www.stmaryss.org, or follow us on Facebook

If you would like our parish bulletin delivered to your email address by Saturday afternoon, you may go to the back of our bulletin and follow the instructions listed there.

Easter Sunday

CHRIST IS RISEN! HE IS RISEN, INDEED! This Paschal greeting is customary in Eastern Catholic and Orthodox churches on Easter Sunday. Then there is Saint Augustine's acclamation of joy: We are an Easter people and Alleluia is our song! However you express it, Easter is the time for rejoicing because Jesus Christ, our friend and brother, is risen from the dead. And yet today's scriptures are less joyful than one would expect for the most important feast in the Christian calendar. Perhaps we are being asked to look deeper into the mystery of the Resurrection, just as Peter went into the tomb to look deeper into the mystery of its emptiness.

Mary Magdalene, who loved the Lord the Lord so much that she risked everything, possibly even her life, to go to the tomb before daybreak, finds the stone rolled away and assumes that someone has taken Jesus' body. Frightened and sad, she runs to tell Peter and John. They all run back to the tomb, but what do they expect to see? Peter enters the tomb and sees. John enters, sees, and believes. But what does he believe? Scripture states, "For they did not yet understand the scripture that he had to rise from the dead" (John 20:9). They went home, not really knowing what had happened. But John "believed" something.

SOMETHING HAPPENED

What do we believe? Somewhere between that Easter morning and Peter's confident teaching about Jesus in the reading from the Acts of the Apostles, something (the Risen Christ) happened. Peter has evolved from his bewilderment into a witness to the Resurrection.

What are we to find in the empty tomb? Maybe the Colossians reading has an answer. By entering the empty tomb of our lives to seek the Lord, we see, we believe, we die, to be raised with Christ. "For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God" (Colossians 3:3). And we will rise in glory with him.

Domingo de Pascua

¡CRISTO RESUCITO! ¡EN VERDAD RESUCITO! Este saludo pascual es tradicional en la Iglesia católica oriental y ortodoxa y el domingo de Pascua. Luego está la aclamación jubilosa de san Agustín: ¡Somos personas pascuales y el aleluya es nuestro canto! De la manera que lo exprese, la pascua es un tiempo para alegrarse porque Jesucristo, nuestro amigo y hermano, resucito de la muerte. Y aun así las Escrituras de hoy son menos jubilosas de lo que uno esperaría para la celebración mas importante en el calendario cristiano. Quizás se no pide mirar más profundamente el misterio de la Resurrección, así como Pedro fue al sepulcro a ver más profundamente el misterio del sepulcro vacío.

María Magdalena, quien amaba mucho al Señor hasta arriesgar todo posiblemente su propia vida, para ir al sepulcro antes del amanecer, encontrando la piedra removida y asumir que alguien había robado el cuerpo de Jesús. Temerosa y triste, ella corre a decirle a Pedro y a Juan. Luego ellos corren hacia el sepulcro, pero, ¿qué era lo que ellos esperaban ver? Pedro entra a la tumba y ve. Juan entra, ve y cree, Pero, ¿qué es lo que él cree? Las Escrituras lo dicen: Y el que, hasta entonces, los discípulos no habían entendido la Escritura, según la cual Jesús tenía que resucitar de entre los muertos". Fueron a casa, sin realmente saber lo que había pasado. Pero Juan "creyó" algo.
