July 21–22 – 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The second reading for the Liturgy this weekend speaks of Christ who is our peace. The peace to which Paul refers is that peace we now have with God through Christ since our separation from God has been healed by Christ's death and resurrection.

Rooted as we now are in God's love and peace, we can be peace for others by our lives and actions. This peace is manifested most fully when we show respect to others, even our enemies. With God's grace and love, we can, through our thoughts, words and actions show only good will and respect to all thus spreading peace to our broken world. How can you be a peacemaker this week?

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Julio 21-22, Décimo Sexto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

La segunda lectura de la Liturgia esta semana nos habla de que Cristo es nuestra paz. La paz a la cual Pablo se refiere es la paz que sabemos que tenemos con Dios a través de Cristo ya que nuestra separación de Dios ha sido sanada por la muerte y resurrección de Cristo. Enraizados, como ahora estamos, en el amor de Dios y en su paz, podemos ser paz para otros a través de nuestras vidas y acciones. Esta paz se manifiesta más completamente cuando mostramos respeto por otros, incluso por nuestros enemigos. Con la gracia y el amor de Dios, podemos, a través de nuestros pensamientos, palabras y acciones, mostrar sólo buena voluntad y respeto hacia todos, divulgando así la paz para nuestro mundo roto ¿Cómo puede usted crear paz esta semana?

LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR/CARTA DE NUESTRO PARROCO

Dear Parishioners,

The visual centerpiece of our parish church is the Altar. During the liturgy of the Mass we look upon the Altar. It is the axis around which all of the sacred actions of our prayer revolve.

We have recently placed a cross on the Altar. "On the Altar or close to it, there is to be a cross adorned with a figure of Christ crucified." This quotation is taken from the General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM, 117). The Altar Cross is unique in that the figure of Christ is placed on both sides for the benefit of the priest and the congregation.

Just as the human eye has many parts that work together to provide sight, so the Altar area is arranged to provide a lens through which we see and experience God.

Six candles are placed around the Altar. In the ancient Temple in Jerusalem, a seven-branched candlestick was placed near the altar. This arrangement was transferred to the earliest churches. The six candles and the cross represent the seven-branched candlestick of the ancient Temple. The cross counts as the seventh candle, as Christ proclaimed in the Gospel of John 12:46 "I came into the world as light, so that everyone who believes in me might not remain in darkness."

On Good Friday, the opening prayer expresses the meaning of the cross:

Remember your mercies, O Lord, and with your eternal protection sanctify your servants, for whom Christ your Son, by the shedding of his Blood, established the Paschal Mystery. Amen.

Your Pastor,
Father David.

Queridos Feligreses,

La pieza central y visual de nuestra iglesia parroquial es el Altar. Nos precisamos en el Altar durante la liturgia de la Misa. Es el eje alrededor del cual giran todas las acciones sagradas de nuestra oración.

Recientemente hemos colocado una cruz en el Altar. "En el altar o cerca de él, deberá haber una cruz adornada con una figura de Cristo crucificado." Esta exhortación se toma de la Instrucción General del Misal Romano (GIRM, 117). La Cruz del Altar es única en que la figura de Cristo se coloca en ambos lados para el beneficio del sacerdote y de la congregación.

Al igual que el ojo humano con muchas partes que se mueven en unión para proporcionar la vista, el área del Altar está ordenada para proporcionar un lente a través del cual vemos y experimentamos a Dios.

Se colocan seis velas alrededor del Altar. En el antiguo Templo de Jerusalén, un candelabro de siete ramas se colocaba cerca del Altar. Este arreglo fue transferido a las iglesias más tempranas. Las seis velas y la Cruz representan el candelabro de siete ramas del antiguo templo. La Cruz cuenta como la séptima vela, tal como Cristo proclamó en el Evangelio de Juan 12:46 "Yo he venido al mundo como luz, para que todo el que crea en mí no permanezca en tinieblas."

La oración colecta del Viernes Santo, expresa el significado de la Cruz:

Oh Señor, acuérdate de tus misericordias, y con tu eterna protección santifica a tus siervos, para quienes Cristo tu Hijo, por el derramamiento de Su sangre, estableció el Misterio Pascual. Amén.

Su párroco,
Padre David.

The diocesan coat of arms was designed by Bishop Louis J. Reicher at the time the diocese was established in 1948.

The custom of having a coat of arms goes back to medieval times when rulers, officials, large land owners, etc., would have the shields of their soldiers emblazoned with a design symbolizing the family. Since the diocese and its see city takes the name of Stephen F. Austin, Bishop Reicher chose to utilize part of the Austin family coat of arms. This consisted of a horizontal bar charged with three crosses between one chevronel line above and another at the base.

The star above has a double significance. It symbolizes both the Lone Star of Texas and our Blessed Lady under the title Stella Maris, "Star of the Sea."

The rose on the lower chevronel reminds us of the shield of the Galveston Diocese, from which most of the Austin Diocese was taken in 1947. This rose symbolizes the Blessed Virgin Mary under the title of Rosa Mystica, "Mystical Rose" and is again a symbol of new birth as it was in the beginning of the church nearly two thousand years ago.

The wavy lines symbolize the Colorado River, which passes through the center of the diocese, and the golden heart symbolizes St. Augustine (Austin) of Hippo. The transfixing arrows, one descending and one ascending, represent St. Austin's love for God and God's love for St. Austin as a great doctor of the church.
