TAKE REFUGE IN GOD: In our daily Holy Mass, we have at least two readings and a Responsorial Psalm read that day. The Responsorial Psalm is for us to respond to the word of God that we heard in the 1st reading. The Responsorial Psalm for Thursday, May 28, 2020, was taken from Psalm 16 which says: "Keep me, O God, for in you I take refuge"

That connects well to the 1st reading of the same day, acts 22:30,23:6-11. As we hear how St. Paul was put on trial before the chief priests and the Sanhedrin, but somehow his accusers ended up disagreeing and quarreling among themselves.

Indeed, St. Paul took refuge in the Lord and the Lord 'stood by him' and gave him the courage to go forth and bear witness. The Responsorial Psalm can also be our prayer as we implore our Lord to 'stand by us' as we take refuge in Him.

Brother Knights, may the Lord give us that same courage that He gave to St. Paul to bear witness to Him in this times of corona virus pandemic. Let us take refuge in him and we will find safety. Let us continue to pray to the Holy Spirit that He will be our armor against evil and that He will protect us.
Amen.

DISTRICT DEPUTY REPORT

S/K JEFF JONES

Brothers:

It's the last month of the Columbian year and some of you still need New members. Please make a last ditch effort to bring in a new member. It's possible if you put your mind to it. There are online combined degrees a few times a month.

Combined degree schedule for the month of June for English and Spanish.

English: June 2ed at 4pm and 7pm.

4th at 4pm, 7pm then again on the 9th, 11th, 14, 23ed, and the 25th, at 4pm and 7pm each day.

Spanish: online combined Degrees.

June 3rd at 6pm. 7th at 7pm. 10th 6pm. 14th, 7 pm. 17th 6pm. 21st 7pm. 24th 6pm. and 28th at 7pm.

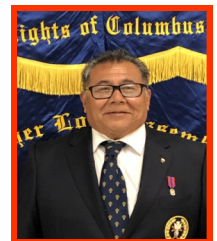

This is how we change lives and make a difference. And we owe it to all the Brother that came before us and put their faith in us to do the job. The last report due is the sp7 service report. If you have not yet completed it please do.

This will be my last month of severing as District Deputy of district #5. It has been a pleasure working with all of the councils, and getting to know you all. By far this position has been the most rewarding assignment yet. I would recommend that all continue to move up in the order. The more you get involved the more you get out of the Knights.

Past GK, FN, Pete Lopez will be your new DD. Please give him all the support and prayers you can. I will be continuing to serve you as chapter Warden. Please pray for me.

God bless you all and God bless the Knights of Columbus.

Jeff Jones DD#5

Editor's Note. Thank You SK Jeff Jones in performing your District Deputy duties in a superlative & dedicated manner. Thank You for your guidance, direction and encouragement. And..

FOR THE RIDE.

Dear Prayer Partners: I want to thank everyone who walked and sponsored walkers who participated in A Woman's Friend Walk for Life last Saturday. Father Eric and Father Julius as always received many sponsorships. This year, because everyone had to walk "on their own," walkers were asked to send in pictures of themselves where ever they were walking. Father Eric sent great pictures before and upon completion of his two mile walk around the parish grounds. Father Julius walked and ran, probably for miles. His pictures are posted on his Facebook page <https://www.facebook.com/julius.kiogora.9>. In spite of not being about to ask for sponsors after Mass, St. Joseph Parish was able to raise just over $4000 for the Walk for Life, which was an overall amazing success, far beyond what was expected because of the coronavirus restrictions. This fundraiser is our main source of funding for our year's operating expenses. We hoped for $75,000, but expected only about $60,000. As of today, God has blest us with sponsorships of $82,000!

Also, in case you haven't received word, here is the link to the letter on the parish website from Father Eric about the resumption of Masses at St. Joseph Lincoln. <https://www.stjosephlincoln.com/documents/2020/5/Resuming%20of%20Mass%20English-4.pdf>

Pro-Life Prayer

Pro-Life Prayer

Heavenly Father, origin and source of life, we have turned our backs on You and the life-giving principles in Your Word. We have allowed mankind to usurp your role as God over life and death. We cry out for your mercy, and ask you to remove the scourge of abortion, artificial contraception, and euthanasia from our land.

Use us as your instruments, Lord, to bring the light of Your Truth to the whole world. Inspire our political leaders to take seriously the call to defend all human life, from conception to natural death. We beg that they never compromise the lives of the unborn, the handicapped, the sick, the elderly, or the sanctity of marriage, for the sake of political gain.

Make us firm believers and courageous witnesses of the Gospel of Life. We ask this through Christ, our Lord, Amen.

ULTRASOUND REPORT, JUNE 10, 2020

As many of you know, our St Joseph's Council 9202 has been working to provide a new state of the art ultrasound unit to A Woman's Friend Pregnancy Center. During our Needs Assessment Program, in October of 2019, Woman's Friend identified a new ultrasound unit as a critical need for their mission in providing faith based care, counseling, and assistance to new mothers. It is a statistical fact that when an ultrasound is conducted, 90% of will make the life-saving decision to bring their child into our world.

We are pleased to report that all paperwork has been completed to utilize the Supreme Council's Ultrasound Program and we have been given the green light to fund raise. The new ultrasound total cost to the pregnancy center is $33,000. Our Council's portion will be $6,248. Supreme will cover one half of the total cost and a grant from 4US will cover the balance. Our goal is to be fully funded by July 1,2020, and have the ultrasound shipped no later than Sept. 1, 2020.

Our Council's financial commitment is a small price to pay for saving human life. We will be asking for your generous support over the next several weeks and expect that donations from our parish (ref. to Parish Bulletin) and council members will easily achieve this commitment. These donations will be tax deductible.

To donate, please write your check payable to:

Knights of Columbus #9202
P.O. Box 842
Lincoln, CA 95648

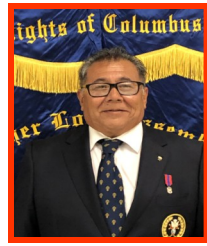

On the memo line of your check write "A Woman's Friend—Ultrasound"

Thank you and may God Bless,

A Short Discussion on the Four Tempters of Thomas Becket in “Murder in the Cathedral”
(A future Something Catholic Topic - As applied to Us)

The play is divided into two parts. Part one takes place in the Archbishop Thomas Becket's hall on 2 December 1170. The play begins with a Chorus singing, foreshadowing the coming violence. The Chorus is a key part of the drama, with its voice changing and developing during the play, offering comments about the action and providing a link between the audience and the characters and action, as in Greek drama. Three priests are present, and they reflect on the absence of Becket and the rise of temporal power. A herald announces Becket's arrival. Becket is immediately reflective about his coming martyrdom, which he embraces, and which is understood to be a sign of his own selfishness—his fatal weakness. The tempters arrive, three of whom parallel the Temptations of Christ.

The first tempter offers the prospect of physical safety.

Take a friend's advice. Leave well alone,
Or your goose may be cooked and eaten to the bone.

The second offers power, riches, and fame in serving the King.

To set down the great, protect the poor,
Beneath the throne of God can man do more?

The third tempter suggests a coalition with the barons and a chance to resist the King.

For us, Church favour would be an advantage,
Blessing of Pope powerful protection
In the fight for liberty. You, my Lord,

In being with us, would fight a good stroke

Finally, a fourth tempter urges him to seek the glory of martyrdom.

You hold the keys of heaven and hell.
Power to bind and loose: bind, Thomas, bind,
King and bishop under your heel.
King, emperor, bishop, baron, king:

Becket responds to all of the tempters and specifically addresses the immoral suggestions of the fourth tempter at the end of the first act:

Now is my way clear, now is the meaning plain:
Temptation shall not come in this kind again.
The last temptation is the greatest treason:
To do the right deed for the wrong reason.

After a short passage in which the three Priests and Chorus express their paranoia, fear of “a new terror” and the thought of being abandoned by God, Thomas announces his decision to remain in Canterbury. “Now is my way clear, now is the meaning plain,” he begins, explaining that “The last temptation is the greatest treason: / To do the right thing for the wrong reason.” In other words, allowing himself to be martyred is the “right thing” to do—as long as he does not do so for “the wrong reason”—a desire for fame and retribution.
