The Saint of the week:

St. Anthony of Padua was a gifted preacher and teacher known for his deep knowledge of Scripture and his tender love for the poor. A devoted follower of Christ, he used his wisdom to bring others to the truth with humility and compassion. Often called upon to help find lost things, St. Anthony's true mission was helping souls find their way back to God. He reminds us to seek truth, live with mercy, and trust God in all things.
