The Saint of the week:

St. Peter was a fisherman called by Jesus to become a “fisher of men” and the rock upon which the Church was built. Though he stumbled—denying Christ during His Passion—Peter’s deep repentance and renewed faith made him a bold leader of the early Church. As the first Pope and a martyr for the faith, St. Peter reminds us that God can use imperfect people for great purposes when they trust in His mercy and follow Him wholeheartedly.
