MISSION STATEMENT/NUESTRA MISIÓN

The mission of the faith family of St. Anthony's Catholic Church is to live the Gospel of Jesus Christ. By the power of the Holy Spirit, we reach out with open arms to the needs of all God's people. Together we will grow as a Christ-centered community through education, service, and worship.

La misión de la familia de fe de la Iglesia Católica de St. Anthony, es vivir el Evangelio de Jesucristo. Con el poder del Espiritu Santo, nosotros abrimos nuestros brazos a las necesidades de todo el Pueblo de Dios. Unidos creceremos como comunidad centrada en Cristo mediante la educación, el servicio y el culto.

EXPERIENCING GOD'S MERCY
That all may experience the mercy of God, who never tires of forgiving.

FAMILIES
That families, especially those who suffer, may find in the birth of Jesus a sign of certain hope.

POPE'S MESSAGE

The Works of Mercy

God's mercy transforms human hearts; it enables us, through the experience of a faithful love, to become merciful in turn. In an ever new miracle, divine mercy shines forth in our lives, inspiring each of us to love our neighbor and to devote ourselves to what the Church's tradition calls the spiritual and corporal works of mercy. These works remind us that faith finds expression in concrete everyday actions meant to help our neighbors in body and spirit: by feeding, visiting, comforting and instructing them. On such things will we be judged. For this reason, I expressed my hope that "the Christian people may reflect on the corporal and spiritual works of mercy; this will be a way to reawaken our conscience, too often grown dull in the face of poverty, and to enter more deeply into the heart of the Gospel where the poor have a special experience of God's mercy" (ibid., 15). For in the poor, the flesh of Christ "becomes visible in the flesh of the tortured, the crushed, the scourged, the malnourished, and the exiled… to be acknowledged, touched, and cared for by us" (ibid.)

Please pray for ALL in our Parish Family that are ill, ESPECIALLY:

Thomas A. Davila, John J. Davila, Thomas A. Davila Jr., Salina Guerrero, Frankie Swan, Ana Maria Guerra, Johnny Longoria, Ambrosio Garcia, The Harris Family, Gilbert Perez, Emma Byand, Tim Stranton, Adam Cabello, Don Reeve, Jim Reynolds, Cary Leonard, Tim Stanley, Javier & Mary Vigel, Ethan Isaac Alimbuyao, Alex Castillo, Israel Olvera and Amy Nappa.

PRAYER: Dear Jesus, Divine Physician and Healer of the sick, O dearest comforter of the troubled, alleviate us with your gentle love. Dear God, we place our worries in your hands. We place our sick under your care and humbly ask that you restore your servant to health again. Above all, grant us the grace to acknowledge your will and know that whatever you do, you do for the love of us. Amen.

NOTE: To add or remove a name to the prayer list (names are removed weekly) or to offer a Mass intention please call the office at 512-268-5311.

Para agregar un nombre a la lista de oración o para poner una intención en la Misa por favor llame a la Oficina.

KNOW MERCY SHOW MERCY

Pastor's Message

Prayer, Fasting and Mercy

Saint Peter Chrysologus (5th century of the church) says: There are three things by which faith stands firm, devotion remains constant, and virtue endures: they are prayer, fasting and mercy. Prayer knocks at the door, fasting obtains, mercy receives. Prayer, mercy and fasting: these three are one, and they give life to each other.

Fasting is the soul of prayer, mercy is the lifeblood of fasting. They cannot be separated. So if you pray, fast; if you fast, show mercy; if you want your petition to be heard, hear the petition of others. If you do not close your ear to others, you open God's ear to yourself. If you want God to know that you are hungry, know that another is hungry. If you hope for mercy, show mercy. If you look for kindness, show kindness. If you want to receive, give. If you ask for yourself what you deny to others, your asking is a mockery.

Let this be the pattern for all men when they practice mercy: show mercy to others in the same way, with the same generosity, with the same promptness, as you want others to show mercy to you. Therefore, let prayer, mercy and fasting be one single plea to God on our behalf, one speech in our defense, a threefold united prayer in our favor.

There is nothing more pleasing that we can offer to God, as the psalmist said in prophecy: A sacrifice to God is a broken spirit; God does not despise a bruised and humbled heart. To make these acceptable, mercy must be added. Fasting bears no fruit unless it is watered by mercy. Fasting dries up when mercy dries up. Mercy is to fasting as rain is to earth. Even more, you may cultivate your heart, clear the soil of your nature, root out vices, sow virtues, if you do not release the springs of mercy, your fasting will bear no fruit.

When you fast, if your mercy is thin your harvest will be thin; when you fast, what you pour out in mercy overflows into your barn. Therefore, do not lose by saving, but gather in by scattering. Give to the poor, and you give to yourself. You will not be allowed to keep what you have refused to give to others.

Oración, Ayuno y Misericordia

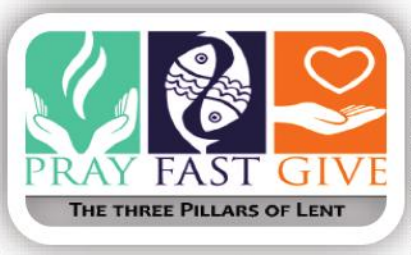
San Pedro Crisologpo dice: hay tres cosas por las cuales la Fe se mantiene firme, la Devoción permanece constante y la Virtud perdura: la oración, el ayuno y la misericordia. La oración golpea a la puerta, el ayuno obtiene y la misericordia recibe. Oración, misericordia y ayuno: son uno, y se dan vida mutuamente.

El ayuno es el alma de la oración, la misericordia es el alma del ayuno. No se pueden separar. Así que, si tu oras, ayuna; si ayunas, muestra misericordia; si quieres que tu petición sea escuchada, oye la petición de los demás. Si no cierras tu oído a otros, tu abres el oído de Dios para ti.

Si deseas que Dios sepa que tienes hambre, entérate que el otro tiene hambre. Si esperas misericordia, muestra misericordia. Si buscas amabilidad, muestra bondad. Si quieres recibir, da. Si pides para ti lo que niegas a los demás, tu petición es una burla.



Que este modelo sea para todos cuando se practique la misericordia: "mostrar misericordia a otros de la misma manera, con la misma generosidad y con la misma rapidez, como se desea que otros nos muestren misericordia a nosotros. Por lo tanto, que la oración, el ayuno y la misericordia sean un solo ruego a Dios por nosotros, una conversación en nuestra defensa, una triple oración unida a nuestro favor.

No hay nada más agradable que podemos ofrecer a Dios, como dice el salmista, que "un espíritu quebrantado; Dios no desprecia un corazón quebrantado y humillado". Pero debe agregarse la misericordia. El ayuno no fructifica si no es regado por la misericordia. El ayuno es seco cuando la misericordia es seca. La misericordia es al ayuno como lluvia es a la tierra. Más aún, tu puedes cultivar el corazón, preparar la tierra, erradicar vicios, sembrar virtudes, pero si no tienes misericordia, el ayuno no dará ningún fruto.

Cuando ayunas, si tu misericordia es poca tu cosecha será poca; cuando ayunas, lo que agregas de misericordia abundará en tu granero. Por lo tanto, no ahorres, siembra, riega. Da a los pobres, y te darás a ti mismo. No podrás mantener lo que se le has negado a los demás.

Year of Mercy
Description of the logo

The scene is captured within the so called mandorla (the shape of an almond), a figure quite important in early and medieval iconography, for it calls to mind the two natures of Christ, divine and human. The three concentric ovals, with colors progressively lighter as we move outward, suggest the movement of Christ who carries humanity out of the night of sin and death. Conversely, the depth of the darker color suggests the impenetrability of the love of the Father who forgives all.

Moments of Mercy for February 2016

As Catholics we take up the Lenten practices of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving every year. These practices help us to remember the merciful love and compassion that God shows all people. Participating in these practices, we journey toward repentance with our community and God and toward the celebration of the Paschal Mystery of our Lord. We do not make this journey alone. The whole Church prepares for the celebration and together, along with those who are preparing to enter the Church at the Easter Vigil, we try to live more faithfully to God's call to be merciful, loving, and compassionate to those around us. Our acts of love through sacrifice and prayer are a tangible witness of God's love to those around us.

1. Spend some time in reflection about why you choose to participate in the prayer, fasting, and almsgiving of the Church during this Lenten season. Next time someone asks you why you aren't eating the chicken on Friday in the lunchroom, you'll be better prepared to share your belief in God who is merciful and compassionate.
2. Share with someone what your Lenten practices will be this year. This is not to brag about how good you are at following Christ, rather, it allows us to each have something of an "accountability partner" so that we can strive to be a more credible witness to our faith.

Generous Hearts at St. Anthony Marie de Claret

The building of God's kingdom is the vocation of all baptized Christians. And "there is more happiness in giving than in receiving" (Acts 20:35). We believe that giving brings joy, a deepened faith, and an abundance of God's love.

We give thanks to God for those who are coming to help as volunteers to keep our campus beautiful and those who started de project of our parking and garden back in the office. May God bless you always !

Dios las bendiga y bendiga a nuestra comunidad parroquial y a quienes participaron en este encuentro de preparación para vivir la cuaresma y tener una Pascua de resurrección plena de esperanza y misericordia.

How Can We Grow in Our Love of God?

Jesus' human form on the cross is a powerful image, and it's a perfect point of focus for the Lenten season. As we prepare to witness and appreciate Jesus' sacrifice for us, we can visualize the beams that comprise the cross. The vertical beam of the cross reminds us of our relationship with God. This beam is necessary to uphold the cross. It is embedded in the earth while reaching for heaven. God supports us throughout our time on the earth and gives us the grace to reach heaven.

Our relationship with God affects every other relationship in our lives. How we treat others can demonstrate our level of focus on and love for God. "Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me" (Matthew 25:40). The horizontal beam of the cross reminds us of our relationships with others. This beam stabilizes the cross and reaches out into the world, just as our human relationships can stabilize us on earth and encourage us to spread God's love throughout the world. Our relationships with others can give us an understanding of God that we might not experience otherwise. Relationships present Christ to our world in a special way that allows us to see Christ in others and have others see Christ in us.

Vocation Chalice

Thank you to Yolanda Salomon for praying for vocations on behalf of our parish this week. Next week the Vocations Chalice will be presented to John & Eva Ortuno at the 8am mass. If you would like to host the Vocations Chalice in your home, please e-mail Mary Barrios at mbarrios@austin.rr.com or call at (512) 558-1974 to sign up to pray for vocations from our parish or for additional information about this ministry. Thank you for supporting this ministry.

Gracias a Yolanda Salomon por orar por las vocaciones esta semana. La próxima semana el Cáliz lo llevara John y Eva Ortuno en la Misa de 8am. Si desean tener el Cáliz y orar por las Vocaciones o necesita mas información, llame a Mary Barrios (512) 558-1974 - email: mbarrios@austin.rr.com.
