Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

All powerful and ever-living God, you raised the sinless Virgin Mary, mother of your Son, body and soul to the glory of heaven. May we see heaven as our final goal and come to share her glory. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen

KNOW MERCY SHOW MERCY

MERCIFUL LIKE THE FATHER

Moments of Mercy for August 2016

Mercy is more than just forgiving people; it is about considering the needs of others and responding to them in a loving and compassionate manner. It is a call to look beyond ourselves to the way in which we interact with the world as Christians. Pope Francis encourages us to "return to the basics and to bear the weaknesses and struggles of our brothers and sisters. Mercy is the force that reawakens us to new life and instills in us the courage to look to the future with hope" (MV, no. 10). We have hope in our salvation by our faith in Christ. However, not everyone shares in this hope, so we need to spread this hope by becoming "merciful like the Father" (MV, no. 13). Sometimes, having hope can be challenging when we are faced with difficulties in life. This month, pray for someone who is going through a difficult time, that they might find hope and peace in God.

Momentos de Misericordia Agosto 2016

La misericordia es más que sólo perdonar a la gente; es considerar las necesidades de los demás y responder a ellas de una manera amorosa y compasiva. Es un llamado a mirar más allá de nosotros mismos, a la forma en que interactuamos con el mundo como cristianos. El papa Francisco nos anima a "retornar a lo esencial para hacernos cargo de las debilidades y dificultades de nuestros hermanos. El perdón es una fuerza que resucita a una vida nueva e infunde el valor para mirar el futuro con esperanza" (MV, no. 10). Tenemos esperanza en nuestra salvación por nuestra fe en Cristo. Sin embargo, no todo el mundo comparte esta esperanza, por lo que debemos difundir esta esperanza haciéndonos "misericordiosos como el Padre" (MV, no. 13).

POPE'S MESSAGE

"Mass for World Youth Day "

Jesus wants to draw near to us personally, to accompany our journey to its end, so that his life and our life can truly meet. An amazing encounter then takes place, with Zacchaeus, the chief tax collector. Zacchaeus was thus a wealthy collaborator of the Roman, because of his ill repute, he could not even approach the Master. His encounter with Jesus changed his life, just as it has changed, and can daily still change, each of our lives.

But Zacchaeus had to face a number of obstacles in order to meet Jesus. One of the obstacles was the paralysis of shame. We can imagine what was going on in his heart before he climbed that sycamore. It must have been quite a struggle on one hand, a healthy curiosity and desire to know Jesus; on the other, the risk of appearing completely ridiculous. Yet he mastered his shame, because the attraction of Jesus was more powerful. You know what happens when someone is so attractive that we fall in love with them: we end up ready to do things we would never have even thought of doing. Something similar took place in the heart of Zacchaeus, when he realized that Jesus was so important that he would do anything for him. The Gospel tells us that Zacchaeus "ran ahead", "climbed" the tree, and then, when Jesus called him, he "hurried down." He took a risk, he put his life on the line. This is the secret of joy: not to stifle a healthy curiosity, but to take a risk.

Dear young friends, don't be ashamed to bring everything to the Lord in confession. He will surprise you with his forgiveness and his peace. Don't be afraid to say "yes" to him with all your heart.

Pastor's Message

God's Call

Pope Francis in his Encyclical Letter Lumen Fidei (The light of faith) says: Faith opens the way before us and accompanies our steps through time. Last Sunday's second reading gave us the key to understand better what faith is. God speaks to Abraham; He reveals himself as a God who speaks and calls by name. This means that faith is linked to hearing. Abraham does not see God, but he hears his voice.

The word spoken to Abraham contains both a call and a promise. First, it is a call to leave his own land, to begin a new life and to go toward an unforeseen future. Second, this word also contains a promise: Your descendants will be great in number, you will be the father of a great nation (Gen 13:16). Abraham is asked to entrust himself to this word. He believed and realized that his new life is the fruit of a personal call and a personal love.

And in the Gospel (last Sunday), Jesus called us to "be like servants who await their master's return from a wedding, ready to open immediately when he comes and knocks". The Lord Jesus wants us to be prepared for his coming. He knocks on the door of our heart each and every day. The Lord calls to each of us and he says, "Listen! I am standing and knocking at your door. If you hear my voice and open the door, I will come in and we will eat together" (Revelations 3:20).

To be prepared for Jesus's coming is not something for the future. No, we need to be prepare now. How? Being a good person, living well, being kind, helpful, caring, understanding, patient and loving. We need to pray and to celebrate the sacraments. One usually knows a person is good by what they do, such as performing kind deeds. The Sacred Scriptures instruct us to do what is right. The letter to the Hebrews says: "Don't forget to do good and to share what you have with those in need, for such sacrifices are very pleasing to God".

La Llamada de Dios

El Santo Padre Francisco en su encíclica Lumen Fidei (La luz de la Fe), dice: la fe abre el camino delante nosotros y acompaña nuestros pasos a través del tiempo. La segunda lectura del domingo pasado nos dio la clave para entender mejor lo que es la fe. Dios le habla a Abraham; Él se revela como un Dios que habla y llama con nombre propio. Esto significa que la fe está ligada con la escucha. Abraham no ve a Dios, pero él oye su voz.

La palabra dirigida a Abraham contiene una llamada y una promesa. Primero, es una llamada a dejar su tierra para comenzar una nueva vida, para seguir un futuro incierto. Segundo, esta palabra contiene también una promesa: tu descendencia será muy grande, tu serás el padre de una gran nación (Gen 13,16). Dios le pide a Abraham que crea en esa palabra. Y él creyó, y se dio cuenta que su nueva vida sería el fruto de una llamada personal y de un amor personal.

Y en el Evangelio (domingo pasado), Jesús nos llaman a "ser como siervos que esperan el regreso de su señor de su boda, listos para abrir inmediatamente cuando él regrese". Sí, el Señor quiere que estemos preparados para su venida. Él llama a la puerta de nuestro corazón cada día. El Señor nos llama y nos dice: "escucha, estoy golpeando a tu puerta. Si oyes mi voz y abres, entraré y comeremos juntos" (Apocalipsis 3,20).

Estar preparado para la venida de Jesús no es algo del futuro. No, necesitamos estar preparados ahora. ¿Pero cómo? Siendo buenas personas, viviendo bien, siendo útiles, comprensivos, pacientes y cariñosos. También necesitamos orar y celebrar los sacramentos. Generalmente se sabe que una persona es buena por lo que hace y cómo vive. Las Sagradas Escrituras nos enseñan cómo hacer lo correcto. La carta a los Hebreos dice: "No olvides hacer el bien y compartir lo que tienes con los necesitados, pues esos sacrificios son muy agradables a Dios".

The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

The Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary commemorates the death of Mary and her bodily assumption into Heaven. The Assumption of the Blessed Mother is celebrated every year on August 15. On November 1, 1950, Pius XII defined the Assumption of Mary to be a dogma of faith: "The ever Virgin Mary, having completed the course of her earthly life, was assumed body and soul to heavenly glory." Because it signifies the Blessed Virgin's passing into eternal life, it is one of the most important Marian feasts and a Holy Day of Obligation.

La fiesta de la Asunción de la Santísima Virgen María, conmemora la muerte y la asunción de su cuerpo al cielo. Cada año el 15 de Agosto se celebra la asunción de la Santísima Virgen, recordando la partida de la Santísima Virgen a la vida eterna. El 1 de noviembre de 1950, Pío XII definió la Asunción de María a ser un dogma de fe: "La Siempre Virgen María, habiendo completado el curso de su vida terrenal, fue elevada en cuerpo y alma a la gloria celestial". Esta celebración es una de las más importantes fiestas marianas y un Día Santo de obligación.

With the changes and arrangements of lights we have already started to notice the difference in energy efficiency. We will continue to improve our Parish facilities and prepare ourselves for our annual Fiesta in September 16th and 17th.

Con los cambios y arreglos de luces ya comenzamos a notar cuanto se esta ahorrando. Y seguimos mejorando nuestras instalaciones y preparándonos para la Fiesta de la Parroquia en Septiembre 16 y 17.
