From the Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

We are still in the Easter Season. This past Sunday we celebrated Divine Mercy Sunday with a Holy Hour in the afternoon. We also had our first-class relic of Saint Sister Faustina - an apostle of Divine Mercy, for private veneration. I was very happy to see the many people who attended our Service and also made Confession on that day.

John Paul II instituted Divine Mercy Sunday in April 2000 for the universal Church. Divine Mercy Sunday reminds us of the absolute and unconditional love and mercy that God has for all of us. Let us respond to this great love by loving Him with all of our being and loving our neighbor as He loves us.

This coming Saturday, April 29, we will celebrate First Holy Communion for our parish children. Please keep them and their families in your prayers. Ask Almighty God to keep these children close to Him through their participation at Holy Mass. Also, pray for their parents that they continue to be good examples of the practice of the faith in order to instill in their children the love of God and His Eucharist.

May Blessed Carlo Acutis, who loved Eucharistic Jesus, be a great inspiration for all of us, and especially for the first communicants.

Blessed Carlo - pray for us!

May God bless you always!

Rev. Tadeusz Gorka

This coming Sunday, 4/30, we will celebrate the 59th Annual World Day of Prayer for Vocations.

Everyone Has a Divine Vocation

"Jesus has a specific task in life for each and every one of us. Each one of us is hand-picked, called by name by Jesus! There is no one among us who does not have a divine vocation! Some are called audibly by God, but the usual kind of call is internal, through the inner working of the Spirit."

~Homily by Pope Saint John Paul II

Deacon Thoughts with Dave

Last Sunday we concluded the first major half of the Mass, the celebration of the Liturgy of the Word. Today we begin the second major half of the Mass, the celebration of the Eucharist.

The second half of the Mass focuses on offering: The collection offering, the offering of the bread and wine to be consecrated, the sacrifice itself, the Consecration by the priest, and the Holy Communion of the faithful.

As the Liturgy of the Eucharist begins, everyone sits down for the collection of offerings. In our Parish, ushers extend a collection basket with a very long handle in front of each person. In some churches you may visit, a basket is passed from one end of the pew to the next; person to person. Either way is acceptable.

If there is an Offertory Procession while the collection is being taken, a few parishioners often go back to the church where a cruet of grape wine and a ciborium (sacred Vessel) of unconsecrated hosts (unleavened bread made from wheat flour and water) have been placed. Usually, two people bring this bread and wine (called gifts), along with collection, in an offertory procession, up to the altar and present them to the priest and deacon. The gifts of bread and wine may be also be presented by the altar servers, from the credence table, located in the sanctuary. This is our current practice during Sunday and weekday Masses at Sacred Heart Parish.

Sincerely, Deacon Dave

Please pray for the sick of our parish and those that care for them.

Saint Devotions

April 24 - St. Fidelis of Sigmaringen

O God, Who didst vouchsafe to inflame the heart of blessed Fidelis with seraphic ardor and to adorn him with the palm of martyrdom and with glorious miracles in spreading the true Faith: we beseech Thee, by his merits and intercession, so to strengthen us by the might of Thy grace in faith and in charity, that we may deserve to be found faithful in Thy service even unto death. Through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

April 25 - St. Mark

O Glorious St. Mark through the grace of God, our Father, you became a great Evangelist, preaching the Good News of Christ. May you help us to know Him well so that we may faithfully live our lives as followers of Christ. Amen.

April 29 - St. Catherine of Siena

Eternal God, eternal Trinity, You have made the Blood of Christ so precious through His sharing in Your Divine nature. You are a mystery as deep as the sea; the more I search, the more I find, and the more I find the more I search for You. But I can never be satisfied; what I receive will ever leave me desiring more. When You fill my soul I have an ever-greater hunger, and I grow more famished for Your light. I desire above all to see You, the true light, as you really are. Amen.

TRAVELING DIVINE MERCY PICTURE

More than ninety years ago, Jesus appeared to St. Faustina in her convent cell in Plock, Poland and directed her to "paint an image according to the pattern you see", with the signature 'Jesus, I trust in you'. He attached many promises to those who venerate this image: "I promise that the soul that will venerate this image will not perish. I also promise victory over enemies already here on earth, especially at the hour of death. I myself will defend it as my own glory."

(Diary of St. Faustina, 47-48).

This rendition of our perfect and radiant savior will be available to travel to / visit a parishioner's home for private veneration for a week.

Please call Louise Gregor to schedule a week to host the Traveling Divine Mercy Picture. 610-948-0398 or lgreger7@gmail.com. Information, including prayer and journal books, and the picture with stand, will be available in the Little Flower Adoration Chapel. Pickup will be Sunday at any time. Please return it to the Chapel on Saturday by 4:00 PM.

Holy Saturday morning, Father Gorka blessed the food that parishioners brought in their baskets. Blessing of the Easter Food Baskets is an old Polish tradition that Father Gorka happily carries on here at Sacred Heart. Father was pleased to see so many children and families bring their food baskets to church! Beautiful blessings were bestowed upon all the food and then the food baskets were sprinkled with holy water.

We Celebrate God's Creation on Earth Day

Friday, April 21st Holy Cross celebrated Earth Day. Here are some pictures of our Holy Cross Garden Club planting flowers around our campus and in our garden. The weather has been beautiful and it's wonderful to see our older students working with the younger students to make our school campus beautiful. Celebrating God's creation and beauty is one way that we can celebrate Earth Day. Let's work together to keep God's creation beautiful.
