From the Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

Today on the Fourth Sunday of Easter we celebrate Good Shepherd Sunday. The name derives from the gospel readings on this day, which are taken from the 10th Chapter of John. In this reading Christ is described as the Good Shepherd who, by dying on the Cross, lays down his life for his sheep.

In recent times the feast day has also become known as Vocations Sunday, a day on which prayers should be said for vocations to the priesthood and religious life.

I invite you to pray for our seminarians Greg Miller and Jack Brosius and also for holy priests and new vocations to the priesthood and consecrated life.

Yesterday, Saturday, April 29, we celebrated First Holy Communion for our parish children. Please keep them and their families in your prayers. Ask Almighty God to keep these children close to Him through their participation at Holy Mass, and may the Eucharist be for them,

"Food From Heaven."

Also, pray for their parents that they continue to be good examples of the practice of the faith in order to instill in their children the love of God and His Eucharist.

May God bless you always!

Rev. Tadeusz Gorka

GOOD SHEPHERD PRAYER FOR PRIESTS

Lord Jesus Christ, eternal High Priest,
You offered yourself to the Father on the altar of the Cross and through the outpouring of the Holy Spirit gave Your priestly people a share in Your redeeming sacrifice.
Hear our prayer for the sanctification of our priests.
Grant that all who are ordained to the ministerial priesthood may be ever more conformed to You, the Divine Master.
May they preach the Gospel with pure heart and clear conscience.
Let them be shepherds according to Your own Heart, single-minded in service to You and to the Church and shining examples of a holy, simple and joyful life.
Through the prayers of the Blessed Virgin Mary,
Your Mother and ours, draw all priests and the flocks entrusted to their care to the fullness of eternal life where you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Saint Devotions

May 1 - St. Joseph the Worker

God our Father, Creator and Ruler of the universe, in every age you call us to use and develop our gifts for the good of others. With St. Joseph as our guide, help us to do the work you have asked and come to the rewards you have promised. Please grant this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

May 2 - St. Athanasius

Almighty ever-living God, who raised up the Bishop Saint Athanasius as an outstanding champion of your Son's divinity, mercifully grant, that, rejoicing in his teaching and his protection, we may never cease to grow in knowledge and love of you. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen

May 3 - Sts. Philip and James

Almighty God, whom truly to know is everlasting life: Grant us perfectly to know thy Son Jesus Christ to be the way, the truth, and the life; that, following the steps of thy holy Apostles, Saint Philip and Saint James, we may steadfastly walk in the way that leadeth to eternal life; through the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

TRAVELING DIVINE MERCY PICTURE

"I promise that the soul that will venerate this image will not perish. I also promise victory over enemies already here on earth, especially at the hour of death. I myself will defend it as my own glory."

(Diary of St. Faustina, 47-48).

This rendition of our perfect and radiant savior will be available to travel to / visit a parishioner's home for private veneration for a week.

Please contact Louise Gregor to schedule a week to host the Traveling Divine Mercy Picture.

484-744-9026 or lgreger7@gmail.com.

Information, including prayer and journal books, and the picture with stand, will be available in the Little Flower Adoration Chapel. Pickup will be Sunday at any time. Please return it to the Chapel on Saturday by 4:00 PM.

Please pray for the sick of our parish and those that care for them.

Deacon Dave Kubczak

Deacon Thoughts with Dave

Before the gifts of bread and wine are prepared on the altar, the altar servers place the Roman Missal on its stand, angled in the correct position, on the altar, for the priest. The Roman Missal is a large, red, hard bound book, which contains all the prayers, liturgical actions, and order of the Mass. The priest's chalice, often draped with a veil, is set on the altar by the altar server. A large white, square cloth called a corporal is placed on the larger white altar cloth, directly centered in front of the priest. It is on this corporal the elements of bread and wine will be placed for consecration.

The deacon (or, if none present, the priest) prepares the gifts on the altar in an action called, suitably enough, "the preparation of the gifts." The deacon or priest pours wine into the chalice (the gold or silver cup that holds the wine that will become Christ's body and blood) and adds a few drops of water to symbolize the union of the divinity and humanity of Christ while silently praying, "by the mystery of this water and wine, may we come to share in the divinity of Christ who humbled himself to join in our humanity." The deacon then gives the large host, on a gold or silver flat dish, called a paten, to the priest who lifts the host of bread above the altar and prays silently or audibly, "Blessed are you, Lord, God of all creation. Through your goodness we have this bread to offer, which earth has given and human hands have made. It will become for us the Bread of Life." The people respond, "Blessed be God forever."

Then the priest lifts the wine filled chalice above the altar and says, "Blessed are you, Lord God of all creation. Through your goodness we have this wine to offer, fruit of the vine and work of human hands. It will become our spiritual drink."

The people again respond, "Blessed be God forever."

Sincerely, Deacon Dave
