From the Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

July is designated especially as the Month of the Precious Blood of Jesus, a special time to honor the Blood of Jesus. Devotion to the Precious Blood is connected to devotion to the Passion and death of Our Lord, since through the shedding of His Blood, mankind was redeemed.

Consequently, one can say the Church has always honored the Blood of Jesus Christ. Noted on the Traditional Catholic Calendars of 1962 and previous, is the Feast of the Most Precious Blood of Our Lord Jesus Christ. This Feast, like so many others, has fallen victim to the post-Vatican II Church's novelties.

After Vatican II, this Feast was combined with Corpus Christi. The official name of the Feast in Latin remains Corpus Christi, and not "Corpus et Sanguis Christi." Traditional Catholics of course still celebrate this Feast.

Today we remember His blood spilt not only on the Cross but also in the Circumcision, Agony in the Garden of Gethsemane, Scourging at the Pillar of Flagellation, and the Crowning with Thorns. We are reminded of the scene of Calvary and of the blow from the lance which pierced our Savior's side.

The liturgy today is at pains to emphasize the meaning and tremendous significance of this fact in relation with our salvation. The Gospel and the Epistle are concerned with our Redemption, effected by the Blood and the love of our Savior. He comes to us the living Christ (Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity). He comes to us in a manner that will not frighten or shock us, hidden under the appearance of bread and wine. This is the most precious time - the time of Communion. The all-powerful and all merciful God becomes the guest of our very bodies and souls. Here is the point where Heaven and earth meet, and all that is in disorder is easily righted.

Christ is truly our guest, but we are the beneficiaries of His benevolence. He wishes for us to receive Him so that He may give to us.

The words of St. Francis ring most truly in Holy Communion:

"It is in giving that we receive."

Have a blessed Sunday and a wonderful week

Rev. Tadeusz Gorka

Blood of Christ, most worthy of all glory and honor...Save Us!

Saint Devotions

July 3 - St. Thomas

Lord Jesus, St. Thomas doubted Your resurrection until he touched Your wounds. After Pentecost, You called him to become a missionary in India, but he doubted again and said no. He changed his mind only after being taken into slavery by a merchant who happened to be going to India. Once he was cured of his doubt, You freed him and he began the work You had called him to do. As the patron saint against doubt, I ask him to pray for me when I question the direction in which You are leading me. Forgive me for mistrusting You, Lord, and help me to grow from the experience. Saint Thomas, pray for me. Amen.

July 5 - St. Anthony Zaccaria

Saint Anthony Zaccaria, helper of the poor and the sick, you who devoted your life to our spiritual welfare, listen to my humble and hopeful prayer. Continue your work as doctor and priest by obtaining from God healing from my physical and moral sickness, so that free from all evil and sin, I may love the Lord with joy, fulfill with fidelity my duties, work generously for the good of my brothers and sisters, and for my sanctification.

July 5 - St. Elizabeth of Portugal

O God, author of peace and lover of charity, who adorned Saint Elizabeth of Portugal with a marvelous grace for reconciling those in conflict, grant, through her intercession, that we may become peacemakers, and so be called children of God. Through our Lord Jesus Christ.

July 6 - St. Maria Goretti

O Saint Maria Goretti who, strengthened by God's grace, did not hesitate even at the age of eleven to shed your blood and sacrifice life itself to defend your virginal purity. Look graciously on the unhappy human race which has strayed far from the path of eternal salvation. Teach us all, especially the youth, to flee from anything that could offend Jesus and stain our souls with sin. Obtain for us from our Lord, victory in temptation, comfort in the sorrows of life, and the grace which we now earnestly beg of thee, (Share your request)... St. Maria, pray that we may one day enjoy with you, the eternal glory of Heaven. Amen.

God Bless America!

Father of all nations and ages, we recall the day when our country claimed its place among the family of nations; for what has been achieved we give you thanks, for the work that still remains we ask your help, and as you have called us from many peoples to be one nation, grant that, under your providence, our country may share your blessings with all the peoples of the earth. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Deacon Thoughts with Dave

At the conclusion of the reception of Holy Communion, the priest, deacon, and extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion place their ciborium (the sacred vessel holding the Holy Eucharist) on the altar. The priest or deacon will then repose the remaining Holy Eucharist in the tabernacle.

All empty sacred vessels, including the priest chalice, will be purified (cleaned) by either the priest or deacon with water, from the cruet, brought over from the credence table by the altar server. The water is poured into any empty ciborium and into the priest's chalice. It is then consumed by the priest or deacon. All the sacred vessels are then wiped and dried with a small white cloth called a purificator.

At the conclusion of the reposition of the Holy Eucharist and the purification of the sacred vessels, the priest or deacon returns and sits in his chair, and the assembly also are seated at this time.

The altar servers reverently approach the altar and take the Roman Missal (large red book containing all the prayers and order of the Mass) and it's gold stand, along with the priest's chalice, paten, pall, corporal and chalice veil and then, making a reverent head bow they return them to the credence table and side table.

A brief moment of silent prayer is observed.

Following the brief moment of silent prayer, the priest says, "Let us pray." The congregation stands and listens to the prayer after Communion. The congregation concludes the prayer by saying "Amen." The prayer after Communion concludes the Communion Rite.

Next week we will conclude our reflection on the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, with the final part called the Concluding Rite.

Have a wonderful weekend and a joyful 4th of July holiday.
Sincerely, Deacon Dave

For those who asked for our parishioner to carry your intentions to Lourdes in France, they have arrived safely and have been graciously delivered.
