A photograph of the interior of St. Peter's Basilica, showing the grand nave with its massive columns and the ornate altar. The text "You are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church." is overlaid in a white, serif font with a drop shadow. You are Peter,

I will build my church.

From the Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

The parish priest's first duty is to take care of the spiritual life of parishioners and other groups inside and outside the parish. Ministering Sacraments, especially Holy Eucharist, Sacrament of Reconciliation, and Baptism, and visiting homebound parishioners, should be a priority in every priest's ministry.

Besides these duties, every pastor, in many different ways, is also in charge of a parish office.

At this moment, I would like to extend my deep gratitude to our parish staff - all who work in our parish office in many different positions. Thank you for all you do for our parish, our parishioners, and guests who come to the parish office.

I can see in many different areas that you, our parish staff, not only do your duties, but you evangelize people either on the phone, or in the office.

From the bottom of my heart, Thank You.

One of the offices here at Sacred Heart, is running our PREP program. I would like to inform you that Nick and Jen Scoville have decided to discontinue their involvement with this ministry in our parish. I am grateful for their time, talents and new ideas to make the program successful.

I would like to welcome, in the position of Director of Religious Education (DRE), Ann Marie Campbell. May the Holy Spirit guide her and lead her that she will fulfill this new position for the good of our students and parents in our parish.

I invite you to join us for First Friday Mass and Devotion to Sacred Heart on Friday Sept 1 at 8:00 am.

May God Bless You

Rev. Tadeusz Gorka

The First Fridays Devotion, also called the Act of Reparation to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, is a Catholic devotion to offer reparations for sins and which had its origin in the apparitions of Christ at Paray-le-Monial, France, reported by Saint Margaret Mary Alacoque in the 17th century.

St. Margaret Mary reported visions of Jesus Christ directing her to promote devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus on nine consecutive First Fridays in reparation for sins and in order to show love to Jesus. In return for this act of devotion our blessed Savior reputedly promised St. Margaret Mary the following blessings:

"In the excess of the mercy of my Heart, I promise you that my all powerful love will grant to all those who will receive Communion on the First Fridays, for nine consecutive months, the grace of final repentance: they will not die in my displeasure, nor without receiving the sacraments; and my Heart will be their secure refuge in that last hour."

Saint Devotions

Aug 28 - St. Augustine

We humbly supplicate and beseech thee, O thrice-blessed Augustine, that thou wouldst be mindful of us poor sinners this day, daily, and at the hour of our death, that by thy merits and prayers we may be delivered from all evils, of soul as well as body, and daily increase in virtue and good works; obtain for us that we may know our God and know ourselves, that in His mercy He may cause us to love Him above all things in life and death; impart to us, we beseech thee, some share of that love with which thou so ardently glow, that our hearts being all inflamed with this divine love, happily departing out of this mortal pilgrimage, we may deserve to praise with thee the loving heart of Jesus for a never-ending eternity.

Aug 29 - Passion of St. John the Baptist

O God, who willed that Saint John the Baptist should go ahead of your Son both in his birth and in his death, grant that, as he died a Martyr for truth and justice, we, too, may fight hard for the confession of what you teach. Amen.

Please pray for the sick of our parish and those that care for them.

What is Pro Populo? You may see that every so often, a Mass Intention is given for "Pro Populo." This refers to the requirement of all ordained pastors to say Mass for the people entrusted to them on each Sunday and each Holy Day of Obligation. The priest is able to fulfil this obligation by shifting the celebration of this Mass intention to another day. So when you see, Pro Populo, know that Father is saying this Mass for all of us!

Do I Have to Go?
101 Questions About the Mass, the Eucharist, and Your Spiritual Life.
by Matthew Pinto and Chris Stefanick
(Ascension Press, 2008)

This one's for the teenager in your family who might prefer sleeping in or playing video games, rather than attending Mass on Sunday morning. Pinto and Stefanick confess that they once had the "Do I have to go?" attitude, but they've grown up and grown into the "I really want to go" conviction. The authors want your teens to make the same leap, and they begin with the basics in "Worship 101" – explaining why we need to worship God, and why the holy Mass is the best way to do that. From there they offer a clear yet witty Q & A, going from the redemptive work of Christ, to the Mass, the Real Presence, and topical issues like prayers and gestures, terminology, ministers of the Mass, and the liturgical seasons.
