Many who heard Jesus
were astonished. They said,
“Where did this man get all this?
Is he not the carpenter,
the son of Mary?”

MARK 6:2,3

Fourteenth Sunday
in Ordinary Time

JULY 4, 2021

Fr. Jorge and Fr. Joseph, St. Peter Prince of the Apostles would like to welcome you to our parish.

God, source of all freedom, this day is bright with the memory of those that declared that life and liberty are your gift to every human being. Help us to continue a good work begun long ago. Make our vision clear and our will strong; that only in human solidarity will we find liberty, and justice only in the honor that belongs to every life on earth. Turn our hearts towards the family of nations: to understand the ways of others, to offer friendship, and to find safety in the common good for all.

We ask this through Christ our Lord,
Amen.

The office will be closed on Monday, July 5th.
We will reopen
Tuesday, July 6th at 9:00 am .

NO BAD NEWS

There are many times when we say, “Tell me what I want to hear, and don’t confuse me with facts.” And we don’t take kindly to someone who might be bold enough to snuff out our expectations.

The biggest problem with such an attitude is not that we miss out on the truth or the facts, but that we miss out on the new and surprising gifts others can give us. Like the townspeople in today’s Gospel story, we too often refuse to allow others to display the talents that can be good news for us.

Today’s readings call for hospitality and faith and discernment. Hospitality opens the doors of our hearts and minds to the “stranger” among us, no matter how familiar he or she may seem to be. Faith enables us to accept the gifts of others, no matter how alarming or “strange” they may seem to be. Discernment helps us discover the prophets in our midst, no matter how amazing they may seem to be. Hospitality, faith, and discernment—cultivate these. Then, nobody can bring bad news.

TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — They shall know that a prophet has been among them (Ezekiel 2:2-5).

Psalms — Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for his mercy (Psalm 123).

Second Reading — I am content with weaknesses and hardships for the sake of Christ (2 Corinthians 12:7-10).

Gospel — “Where did this man get all this? Is he not the carpenter, the son of Mary?” (Mark 6:1-6a).

Men of the Parish

"Faith is to believe what you do not see; the reward of this faith is to see what you believe." - St. Augustine.

Are you seeing what you believe? Are you asking questions to better discern the reward of faith. To help the men of our parish explore their faith The St. Peter Men's Ministry will be hosting in-person meetings with a meal for the next two months. The dates are: July 24, and August 21. We will be meeting in the morning at 8:00 a.m. in the Mark and Luke Room and after the meal we will have a brief program designed to enhance our spiritual growth. Join us to start to see your "reward of this faith"

All families are welcome to our St. Peter Summer Friday Night Movie Marathon beginning on June 11th. Please mark your calendars
