JUNE 3, 2018

Most Holy Body and Blood Of Christ

Dear Padre

June 3, 2018

What is the Catholic belief in the Real Presence of the Eucharist?

Our belief in the Real Presence goes back to Jesus himself. Saint Paul describes the Last Supper: Jesus took bread and said, "This is my body." He took wine and said, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood." The Catholic Church has always believed that Jesus meant exactly what he said.

When confronted, Jesus did not water down his statements, although they were difficult to accept and beyond human understanding. Even Peter did not claim to understand. He simply accepted them on the authority of Jesus, who had "the words of eternal life."

Catholics have always believed in the Real Presence of Jesus, known traditionally as transubstantiation. This means that the "substance" of the bread and wine becomes the "substance" of Christ's Body and Blood, while the appearances of bread and wine remain. When we receive Communion, we truly receive the Body and Blood, soul and divinity, of Christ, under the appearance of bread and wine (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1373–1381).

Not all Christians believe in the Eucharist as Catholics do. Some deny that Christ is present at all, contending that the bread and wine only symbolize the spirit and teachings of Jesus. There are many variations, and Catholics should carefully distinguish our Church's teaching from other opinions.

Bread and wine are changed by Christ into himself in a miracle of love we Catholics call, with awe and affection, the Blessed Sacrament.

“Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them and they all drank from it.” – MARK 14:23

Jesus, the perfect steward, gave thanks, just before He gave Himself to us completely for our salvation. He offers us the chance to drink from His cup. In the Eucharist, we meet Christ personally and, if we listen to Him, we know what drinking from His cup means our own sacrifice – giving up some of our time, talent and treasure to do His work on earth.

Dynamic Catholic, Alive!
Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi)- Transformed by the Real Presence of Christ
The readings today discuss the covenants that God makes with His people, the most important of which is that of the Holy Eucharist given to us by Jesus Christ. At the Last Supper, Jesus gave the apostles His very body, blood, soul, and divinity. He continues to offer the Eucharist to us so that we might be filled with His Real Presence. We have the blessing as Catholics to approach the throne of grace and to receive Jesus Christ Himself every day at Holy Mass. What a gift! As we journey through this summer, let us be transformed and become whom we receive in this great sacrament. As we celebrate this great solemnity today, let us be grateful for Christ’s perfect sacrifice offered for us and remember to share the truth of this great mystery with those we encounter. We must receive Communion frequently in order to be effective in our efforts of evangelization, spreading the truth, beauty, and goodness of our Catholic faith. Archstl.org/dynamic

Word of Life, June 3^d

“In 1943, when France was occupied by German Nazis, the search for Jews began. In the face of grave peril, Sister Agnes convinced her mother superior to open their convent and offer refuge to a Jewish family. ...Let us devote ourselves anew to following wherever the Lord leads. Let us take courage from their example of faith.”

THIS WEEKS READINGS

“This is my body,” we hear in today’s Gospel. “This is my blood.” When we gather to celebrate the Eucharist, the sacrifice Jesus made of his own body and blood, the sacrifice we are all invited to share, we receive the Body and Blood that are truly Christ’s own. Then, nourished by his Body and Blood, we are called to go forth as the body of Christ, carrying forward his mission in the world today.

QUESTION OF THE DAY

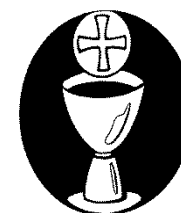

Do I feel different after receiving the Body and Blood of Christ in the Eucharist? How can I take the Body and Blood of Christ that I receive in the Eucharist and make a difference in what I say and do? How can I help build up the kingdom of God in the world?

Congratulation Jim & Carol Johnston!

Come, and Celebrate!

On Sunday, June 10th James and Carol Johnston will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary at the 10:00 a.m. Mass. All are invited to the celebration and a light reception in the school auditorium after Mass. If you have any pictures and/or favorite memories you would like to share, please feel free to do so at the reception, but we do ask that no gifts be presented. Donations to support the ministry of St. Joachim Catholic School may be made, if you feel called, in their name. This donation honors their commitment to Catholic education as well as their parents’ commitment to the school and community (Bernard and Leah; Robert and Ava).

Second Collection this weekend, June 2nd & 3rd for SSM Health Cardinal Glennon Children’s Hospital. Please be generous!

The body and blood of Christ

The Eucharist, in which the community relives the passion, death and resurrection of the Lord, is the heart of the Kingdom. The Kingdom is realized in the Eucharist. Jesus, present in His passion, death and resurrection, is God's activity among us, perfectly and completely. The Eucharist is the now of the Kingdom. Yet, the presence of sin apparently keeps the presence of God's activity from being fully realized. In so far as we die to sin, we will rise in the realization of the Kingdom. Yet, while there is growth, there is already a harvest. The Eucharist is our daily bread and the fullness of growth.
