JANUARY 27, 2019
THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Dear Padre

January 27, 2019

What is the symbolic relationship between the altar and the Eucharist?

The altar, also called the table of the Lord, is not just a piece of furniture. Many generations ago, our earliest Christian ancestors gathered at dining-room tables for the Eucharist, and through the centuries that simple piece of furniture came alive with deep meanings.

It is from the altar that we share in the Eucharist, and the altar resonates with the presence of Christ. The altar is consecrated by a bishop and anointed with chrism, just as Christ was anointed priest, prophet, and king.

The gestures and rituals of the Catholic Church shape the expression of our faith and our hearts. We bow and genuflect to express reverence, honor, and devotion. These gestures are used not only by Roman Catholics and other Christians, but by people of other faiths, including Jews, Muslims, and Buddhists.

After the priest raises and shows the consecrated host and chalice to the assembly, he genuflects, and any concelebrants bow to the host and chalice. Norms exist for bowing to the altar and, at some points of the eucharistic celebration, kissing the altar. The kiss is an intimate act of showing reverence and honor.

The altar is a tangible sign of Christ and his sacrifice. We bow to the altar during the eucharistic liturgy and outside of the Mass as well, because for Catholics it's the central place of our encounter with Christ and with the great communion of saints.

“Go, eat rich foods and drink sweet drinks, and allot portions to those who had nothing prepared...” (Nehemiah 8:10)

Ezra’s instructions to the people show us that God does not forbid us from enjoying the good things in life. He wants us to be happy! However, God expects us to be grateful for all that He has given us and to generously share our blessings with those who are in need without expecting anything in return.

January 27: Ordinary Time – Dynamic Catholic, Alive! – Study

In today’s Gospel we hear from St. Luke who explains to Theophilus that he is writing about Jesus and His teachings so that he can get to know Jesus better and help to share His message. We can’t give what we don’t have, and we can’t grow closer in our relationship with Jesus unless we communicate with Him and study His teachings and His life. We can do this through Scripture, through the saints, and through each other. Please, Holy Spirit, inspire all of us to hunger for increased knowledge of Christ. Amen

Abortion and Putting Our Faith into Action
In a culture and world that is hungry for the Truth, we are often challenged to put our faith into action. For example, many of our politicians profess their Catholic faith, but try to divorce the faith which they proclaim from their policies, particularly as this relates to LIFE issues. However, as Christ's followers and as Catholics, we are called to integrate our faith into all aspects of our lives. In fact, we are called to make our faith evident in all our actions and decisions. In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus tells us not to hide our light under a bushel basket but let our light shine before others (Mt 5:15-16). Defense of the unborn---the most vulnerable and defenseless human beings in our society, is undoubtedly the most important aspect of integrating our faith and actions. After all, LIFE is the most important gift that God gives us!

THIS WEEKS READINGS

Last week Jesus began his ministry in John’s Gospel by changing water into wine at a wedding in Cana. Today he begins his ministry in Luke’s Gospel by preaching at his synagogue in Nazareth. Ironically, the passage he was to read summed up his mission. “Today,” Jesus said, “this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing.” Today, as members of the Body of Christ, we are called to continue to fulfill Christ’s mission. Let us discover what we are called to do.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Am I conscious of Jesus’ presence in our midst? How do I show others that I am part of the Body of Christ?
