26th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME SEPTEMBER 27, 2020

Dear Padre

October 4, 2020

Aren't we discriminating against other Christians when we don't celebrate the Eucharist with them?

You have to keep the Church's intentions in mind: Are we excluding to make people feel left out, or are we excluding to uphold the dignity and sanctity of the Eucharist?

Everyone is welcome to celebrate the Eucharist—there's only one part they can't participate in. That might sound like a cop-out, but Catholics believe that the Eucharist is the actual Body and Blood of Christ. For it to be true Communion, everyone who receives it must believe the same thing about it.

In its Guidelines for the Reception of Communion, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops says, "Because Catholics believe that the celebration of the Eucharist is a sign of the reality of the oneness of faith, life, and worship, members of those churches with whom we are not yet fully united are ordinarily not admitted to Holy Communion. Eucharistic sharing in exceptional circumstances by other Christians requires permission" as outlined in canon law. "All who are not receiving Holy Communion are encouraged to express in their hearts a prayerful desire for unity with the Lord Jesus and with one another" (GRC).

MISSION STATEMENT: We, the Parish Family of St. Joachim & St. Joseph, of the Archdiocese of St. Louis, are a people with a heritage of faith. Encouraged by the Tradition of Christian hospitality, caring, and love towards neighbor, we are committed to continue to support each other on our pilgrim journey to the Father. In response to God's Word, we strive through a sacramental life to bring all to a fuller understanding of God's love by praying, teaching, and by witnessing to Christ, in the service of one another.

“Suicidal individuals—with or without a terminal illness—typically do not want to die... The patient requesting assisted suicide is often asking, ‘Does anyone want me to be alive, or care enough to talk me out of this request and support me through this difficult time?’” USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities “Every Suicide is Tragic”

September 27–Humility Dynamic Catholic, Alive!

Humility A wise man once told me that humility is simply living in the truth, not being too prideful in our gifts but also not hiding them. In the Gospel today, Jesus shows us the importance of accepting our mistakes and choosing the right path, not remaining obstinate in our error. The Pharisees rejected John the Baptist even after they saw that people were following him because he was a righteous man. How often today do people engage in arguments just so that they can feel the “glory” of being “right?” People quibble today so often about trivial matters. Let’s reject this mentality and acknowledge our faults and mistakes and be humble in the sight of the Lord. He will lift us up and renew us (James 4:10).

Bulletin Notes for the Week of September 28, 2020
As many of you know my family is getting ready to welcome our newest addition to our family and by the time you read this Lincoln Elliott Farr will have made his arrival. I’ve been so busy preparing home, school, and St. James PSR that there always seems to be something to be worried or stressed about, jumping from thing to thing, not taking a breath. I’ve been a mess! Why do we this to ourselves? We start doing things like wearing two mismatched shoes or forgetting a prescription at the store and just making silly mistakes. In these moments of chaos, it’s so important to embrace God’s promise of grace, to pray for clarity, and to just breathe. Please continue to pray for St. Joachim School as we continue to pray for you.

Health and Safety
At this time St. Joachim School is only welcoming essential visitors into our building. All visitors must wait in the foyer, have their temperature checked, and answer some short screening questions about their health.

Show Me Dough Fundraiser
The Show Me Dough Fundraiser started Monday, September 21st and ends October 5th! Delivery will be Thursday, October 15th.

Our Annual St. Joachim School Horseshoe Tournament will be Saturday, October 17th. Sign up starts at 12 pm and the tournament begins at 1pm. Draw your partner, $10 per person. We are currently looking for items for the Silent Auction for the Horseshoe Tournament!

Ezekiel exhorts his audience to turn back to God, that in so doing they will save their lives. Jesus tells the chief priests and the elders that those who obey God will enter the kingdom of God. When was the last time you prayed to your guardian angel? Prayer in its simplest form is communication. Talk to your guardian angel. Don't take your guardian angel for granted. Your personal angel has one primary focus which is to help you have a deeper relationship with God. They are always there by your side with watchful care and intercessions, ready to be your advocate, and carry your soul to heaven.

"Angel of God, my guardian dear, to whom God's love commits me here,
Ever this day be at my side, to light, to guard, to rule, and to guide.
From sinful stain keep me free, that God's temple I may be.
Thank you, dear guardian angels, for what you have done for us.
Please continue to guard and to guide us every day of our lives. Amen."

While many of us have learned to maintain our composure, we know that deep within, there flows a river of molten negativity that monastic spirituality calls grumbling.

THY WILL BE DONE !
