MISSION STATEMENT: We, the Parish Family of St. Joachim & St. Joseph, of the Archdiocese of St. Louis, are a people with a heritage of faith. Encouraged by the Tradition of Christian hospitality, caring, and love towards neighbor, we are committed to continue to support each other on our pilgrim journey to the Father. In response to God's Word, we strive through a sacramental life to bring all to a fuller understanding of God's love by praying, teaching, and by witnessing to Christ, in the service of one another.

Dear Padre

November 21, 2021

Why does the Church continue to use the image of a king to describe Jesus? He didn't act like a king or expect his followers to treat him like one.

Hereditary kings ruled most nations in the ancient Near East. In Egypt, the king was actually recognized as a god. In Israel, God was considered the one true king, and God's covenant was the treaty that united God and the people.

But the time came when the Israelites thought they needed to strengthen themselves militarily and politically. Then the elders came to Samuel and asked him to appoint a king to govern them like other nations (1 Samuel 8:5). The three great kings of Israel (Saul, David, and Solomon) were considered instruments of God but were also subject to existing legal codes.

Throughout the New Testament runs the theme that Jesus, a descendant of the royal Davidic line, is a ruler or king. The Magi first proclaimed Jesus king, saying they were looking for the "newborn king of the Jews" (Matthew 2:2).

At the heart of Jesus' message was the good news that all people could enter the kingdom of God if they rejected sin. Jesus used the parable of the mustard seed (Mark 4:30-32) to show that his kingdom will grow until everyone can be embraced within its branches. This kingdom, first manifested in simplicity and love in the Galilean countryside, is to reach its fulfillment in a great love among all people. Jesus as king is an image that should lead us to recognize our commitment to love and service to others in his kingdom.

Feast of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

“Jesus answered, ‘My kingdom does not belong to this world.’ (John 18:36)

Life is short. How much time, energy and money do you put into building “your” kingdom here on earth? We all know we can’t take it with us. The real kingdom is in the next life. Yet, how much time, energy and money do you invest in working for that eternal kingdom? Ask God for His guidance. Detach from earthly possessions. Generously share your material goods with others for the greater glory of God.

Jokes

*Why aren’t chickens allowed in church? Because they use fowl language.

*I was sitting in traffic the other day. Probably why I got run over.

*There are three types of people in the world. Those of us who are good at math, and those of us who aren’t.

*Why was the snowman looking through a bag of carrots? He was picking his nose.

THIS WEEKS READING- Throughout history Jesus Christ has been acknowledged as King. Even before he was born to Mary, Daniel prophesied that one like a Son of man would come from heaven to earth and be regarded as King and Lord. The author of Revelation calls him the faithful witness of the kingdom. In the Gospel we hear him witness to the kingdom in front of Pilate. That scene gives us an insight into his kingship, which is anchored in the truth, and to which he testified during his entire time on earth. Let us open our hearts to the truth, which continues to be revealed by Christ the King. QUESTION OF THE DAY-Can I live according to the truth, the truth to which Jesus has testified?

November 21: Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe– Imitating Christ Dynamic Catholic, Alive! –

It is not optional to serve our neighbor. It is not optional to perform corporal works of mercy and spiritual works of mercy. It is by these that we will be saved or condemned. Heaven and hell are at stake here.

While we are on earth, let us put our faith into practice by being active in charity. Let us love one another as if each person we encounter is Jesus Christ Himself. There are many people in the world today suffering from hunger, thirst, poverty, nakedness, imprisonment, estrangement, and sickness. What are we doing to bring Christ’s healing and love? Let us serve the Lord and our neighbor in holiness. “In the presence of Christ, who is Truth itself, the truth of each man's relationship with God will be laid bare. The Last Judgment will reveal even to its furthest consequences the good each person has done or failed to do during his earthly life” (CCC 1039). archstl.org/dynamic

PRAYER

A Prayer of Praise in Honor of Christ the King

It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation, always and everywhere to give you thanks, Lord, holy Father, almighty and eternal God. For you anointed your Only Begotten Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, with the oil of gladness as eternal Priest and King of all creation, so that, by offering himself on the altar of the Cross as a spotless sacrifice to bring us peace, he might accomplish the mysteries of human redemption and, making all created things subject to his rule, he might present to the immensity of your majesty an eternal and universal kingdom a kingdom of truth and life, a kingdom of holiness and grace, a kingdom of justice, love and peace. And so, with Angels and Archangels, with Thrones and Dominions, and with all the hosts and Powers of heaven, we sing the hymn of your glory. Amen.

(taken from the Preface for the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe in The Roman Missal)

Mission Statement

The mission of St. Joachim Catholic School is to assist the parents and parish community in the shared responsibility of providing an excellent religious and academic education that is alive in Christ for the children of Washington County.

FROM THE DESK OF MRS. LITTON

Greetings and Happy November. What a great month to be thankful for all our blessings. Our staff continues to teach about praying and saying thanks to God for all the good things in our lives. We also encourage prayer when our life may not be exactly what we want it to be and to know that no matter what, God loves us and is here for us.

November is full of holiday activities, greeting friends and our neighbors coming together. This month our students are doing a food drive to benefit the food pantries. We invite all parishioners to bring in food products such as can goods or nonperishable items. These will be given to the Rural Parish Worker's Food Pantry and Keith King's Food Pantry in Potosi. Both of these organizations are consistently helping the needy. Please support our project by leaving items at school or at church.

Thanksgiving Holidays, Nov 25-26, and a 12:00 dismissal Wed, the 24th.

Advent begins Sunday, Nov 28th.

God Bless our parish and school and the many good people that serve the Lord.

Symptoms of Inner Peace

The following "Symptoms of Inner Peace" is by Fr. Rickey Valleroy, former pastor of St. Joseph parish in Farmington, MO.

- A tendency to think and act spontaneously rather than on fears based on past experiences.
- An unmistakable ability to enjoy each moment.
- A loss of interest in judging other people and interpreting their actions.
- A loss of interest in conflict.
- A loss of the ability to worry.
- Frequent, overwhelming episodes of appreciation.
- Feelings of connectedness with others and nature.
- Frequent attacks of smiling.
- An increasing tendency to let things happen, rather than trying to make them happen.
- An increased susceptibility to the love extended by others, and the uncontrollable urge to extend it.

We tend to view Jesus' kingship with human eyes instead of through the lens of faith. We prefer to see kings in splendid majesty, and here is Jesus bloodied and bruised. And so, when we join our question to Pilate's, "then you are a king?" we betray our own blindness to Jesus' kingship.
