Bread of Life Feeding the Hungry

Please consider supporting our Bread of Life Ministry by providing personal care items, infant items, cleaning products, and non-perishable food items for Denton County's Friends of the Family. ADDITIONALLY, our friends at The Shepherd's Hand Pantry, an important distribution point for Bread of Life, providing approximately 1300 meals monthly, are in need of sealable food baggies, primarily quart and gallon size. Please consider picking up an extra box or two the next time you go shopping. Place your donations in the Bread of Life drop box in the Narthex. Thank you for your help and continued support of our friends in need. Together we can help "Feed the Hungry"!

The Marianists

Come join with our Marianist family for our monthly meeting on Thursday, August 1, in RE building room 107. Meeting will start at 1:00 pm and conclude around 3:00 pm. The Marianist Affiliates' mission is to recognize that Mary serves as an example on how to live. Through her faith, Mary conceived and brought Jesus to everyone who would believe. By living out our faith, we also bring Christ to the world anew. For more information, please contact Andy Gilliard at 940-323-8693.

Saint Mark Apple Tree.

If you took an apple, please place the card and the apple in an envelope and return them to St. Mark by July 28. For more information, contact Mia Price 940-566-6756 or miaprice@verizon.net. You can also check www.ifmdenton.org for info.

BUY A BRICK FOR OUR COURTYARD

You are welcome to buy a brick for yourself or for someone else, to commemorate special occasions (such as the birth of a child, baptism, first communion, confirmation, weddings, graduations, etc.), to write a Scripture passage or to honor or remember a loved one. This is a great way to be remembered and to commemorate special occasions! We would like to fill our courtyard with the names of our parishioners and loved ones. An engraved brick costs $100. Please visit St. Mark's webpage www.stmarkdenton.org for a Brick Paver Order Form or stop by the parish office.

BECOMING LIKE WHO WE WORSHIP
by Fr. Billy Swan July 8, 2019

From the earliest days of Christianity, it was believed that we become like who we worship. So for example, if we worship an authoritarian god, then we ourselves became authoritarian; if we worship a controlling god, then we became controlling ourselves; and so on. All the more reason then why the Bible places great importance on right worship and praise. The more we worship the true and living God, the more we become conformed to his image and likeness in which we were made. Here I briefly develop four aspects of the divine nature as revealed in Scripture and explore how worship of the God who is family, who is love, who is beauty and truth, leads us to become people of family, people of love, people of beauty, and people of truth.

First, the God who is family. God is not solitude. He is a communion of persons of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, whose life is an eternal exchange of love between them. It is into this circle of divinity that we have been absorbed and embraced by the Spirit through faith and baptism. And it is within this life of the Trinity that we exist and live—not on our own but with other believers with whom we share the same divine life. So we become members of God's family of the Church who are gathered into the unity of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Second, the God who is love. Since "God is love" (1 John 4:8), there is within his life a lover, a beloved, and the love between them. God is a great lover who never stops seeking us out and uniting us to himself. This was the saving work of Jesus and the God he revealed to us. Everything he said and did was motivated by love. From the Gospels, we see that Jesus knew he was loved by his Father and he loved the Father in return. This was the love they shared before the world was made. This love between them is the Holy Spirit that is poured out on to us and the world. For St. John, love was the interpretative key to why God sent his Son into the World: "For God so loved the world that he sent his only Son" (John 3:16).

LIFE TEEN
Leading Teens Closer to Christ

Brad Horn 940-222-6703
bhorn@stmarkdenton.org

Registration is now open!

Please pick up your registration packet in the narthex. As part of the Life Teen program we provide a meal for the teens. St. Mark is blessed to cover a wide geographical region of parishioners. Our youth come from as many as five separate school districts. For many of our teens, Sunday night is the only time they are able to see their friends. This meal time allows them a brief 30-40 minutes to socialize and hear about each other's week. It is a time of reprieve from their busy schedules where they can relax and enjoy the company of their peers. By providing for their physical needs we are able to provide for their spiritual needs.

We ask that parents who sign their teen up for Life Teen, join a meal team to help us provide this service to our youth. The commitment is once a month to either help prepare and/or serve food for our teens. If you have any questions contact Brad Horn: bhorn@stmakrdenton.org

One Minute Meditations

St. Camillus de Lellis

Born in sixteenth-century Italy, St. Camillus aimed for holiness despite serious setbacks. He had a gambling addiction and became known for being argumentative and contentious. After losing his possessions and even his own shirt through gambling, he was hired by some compassionate Franciscans, but later transferred to a Capuchin order. After being ordained a priest, he and some companions founded the order of the Camellians, who cared for the grievously sick, prisoners, and the plague victims.

Keep the parish lights on

No matter where you go this summer, don't forget your parish back home. Your parish depends upon your help to pay the bills even when you're not home.

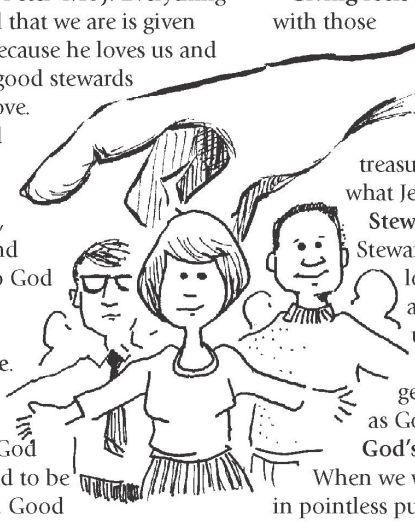
"See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God. Yet so we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him" (1 John 3:1).

What are the secrets of stewardship?

"As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God's varied grace" (1 Peter 4:10). Everything we have and all that we are is given to us by God because he loves us and trusts us to be good stewards of his gifts of love. A good steward receives God's gifts gratefully, cherishes them, shares them, and returns them to God with interest.

Stewardship flows from love. The key is to be continually aware of what God has given us and to be deeply grateful. Good stewards know that they didn't earn their talents or resources and understand that they come from a Father who asks only for true love in return.

Giving feels good. Sharing God's gifts with those in need, whether it is our time, talents, or treasure, feels great. And, it's what Jesus asked us to do.



Stewards are instruments. Stewardship is actually God's love flowing through us and pouring out through us. The good steward joins in God's own generous nature by acting as God's hands on Earth.

God's purpose is the point. When we waste our talents, dawdle in pointless pursuits, or squander our resources, we put our own desires first ahead of God's will. Good stewards are God-centered rather than self-centered.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics call Rome "home?"

In Matthew 16, Jesus named Peter "the Rock" upon which Jesus would build his Church (Matthew 16:17-18). After the Ascension, St. Peter traveled to Rome for the Gospel, and became the bishop of the Christian community there. He was martyred and buried in Rome, and his successors became the next popes. Historically, the church in Rome proved to be a source of unity, strength, and faithfulness in adversity. Today, Catholics everywhere call Rome, the resting place of St. Peter, "home."

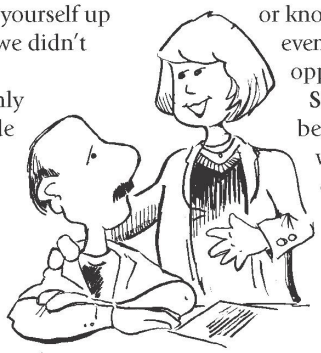
Celebrate your mistakes

Do you dread making mistakes and beat yourself up when you do? Yet, mistakes are outcomes we didn't expect and can lead to growth.

Step 1 – admit your mistake. You can only learn from a mistake if you admit you made one. As soon as we start blaming others, we miss out on any possible lessons.

Step 2 - enlist help. Talking to someone else about what happened gives you the benefit of your friend's experience. He or she may have made a similar mistake or know of a way to deal with it. Plus, describing the event helps you to think it through and perhaps see opportunities you didn't know were there.

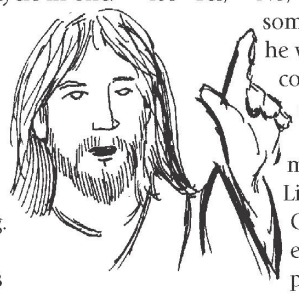


Step 3 – decide for change. Ask, "What will I do better next time?" Real growth and change happen when you see room for improvement. Then commit to making the necessary changes to avoid the mistake in the future.

Making mistakes doesn't make you a mistake. Remember, God is the only one you know who doesn't make them.

from Scripture — Luke 11:1-13, the perfect prayer

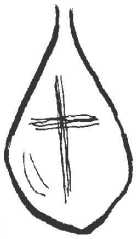
This passage is for anyone who wants to deepen prayer. Here, Jesus teaches his disciples to pray the Our Father. It's actually four prayers in one. First, it's a prayer of praise and thanksgiving to God. Second, it is a prayer of petition in which we ask God to provide what we need. Third, it is a prayer asking for forgiveness and the strength to be forgiving.



Lastly, it is a prayer of acknowledgement of God's providence. It makes us admit that God knows and wants what is best for us. In choosing to follow God's will, even when it conflicts with our own, we place our trust in him.

God always answers prayers - usually it's "Yes," "No," or "Wait...I have something better." Also, he wants to know we're committed to what we are requesting. Is it a real need or just a momentary thought? Like the neighbor in this Gospel reading, Jesus encourages us to be persistent and continue to ask for God's help, seek his will, and be open to his grace in our lives.

Q & A — Who can baptize people into the Catholic Church?



A member of the clergy is the ordinary minister of Baptism – a bishop, priest, or deacon. In emergencies, if there isn't a priest present, anyone can baptize, even someone who isn't baptized. In the case of an adult, the person to be baptized must have expressed at some point the desire to become a Catholic. The person baptizing must intend to baptize the person Catholic, and must use water and the words, "I baptize you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit."

"The Church finds the reason for this possibility in the universal saving will of God" (Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC), #1256). The fact that anyone can baptize anyone desiring to become part of the Church is a sign of God's love for us. It speaks of God's infinitely great desire to welcome everyone and anyone into his family. Note: Baptism is received only once. If someone is already a baptized Christian but not Catholic, no second Baptism needed.

Feasts & Celebrations

July 5 - St. Elizabeth of Portugal (1336). The daughter of King Peter III of Aragon, she married King Denis of Portugal, whose infidelity caused her much suffering. He later repented and died a holy death. She became known as "the Peacemaker" for resolving political conflicts. After her husband's death, she became a Franciscan tertiary and lived with the Poor Clares.

July 26 – Saints Joachim and Anne (1st century). Little is known about Jesus' grandparents, but we know Mary was raised in a devout home. Her unshakeable faith, her devotion to the laws of her religion, and her steadiness in crises indicate the values with which she was raised.

July 29 – St. Martha (1st century). In Luke's Gospel, St. Martha served Jesus dinner, while her sister Mary sat at his feet and listened. At Lazarus's death, she told Jesus, "I have come to believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God" (John 11:27). Because of her faith, Lazarus was brought back to life.

HAVE YOU THOUGHT ABOUT JOINING THE STAFF AT OUR LADY'S SCHOOL?

Part-Time Preschool Teacher, Aides, and Substitute Teachers

Immaculate Conception Catholic School is seeking faith-filled part-time aides and substitute teachers for the 2019-2020 school year. The aide will assist with duties that would include providing assistance to teachers, monitoring students, helping with arrivals/dismissals, lunch duty, and duties as assigned. Bi-lingual skills would be helpful.

Immaculate Conception Catholic School also is accepting applications for preschool teacher and substitute positions. If you are passionate about your Catholic faith and wish to pass that along to the next generation as part of your teaching vocation, this might be the place for you!

All interested applicants should submit their application to Principal Elaine Schad at eschad@runbox.com or call the school office at 940-381-1155. Qualified candidates will be contacted for an interview. ICCS also accepts year-round applications.

The vision of Immaculate Conception Catholic School is to teach as Jesus taught. ICCS strives for the development of the whole child through participation in the sacramental life of the Catholic Church.
