I AM A RETURNING CATHOLIC

Welcome home!

Becoming active in the practice of your faith may be quite simple: it may only involve making a good confession. Regardless of where you are, please let us know and we can help.

I AM NOT CATHOLIC

Wherever you are on your journey and whatever your comfort level is with the Catholic Church, you can inquire at any time. Our door here at St. Mark is always open and we want to embrace you in Christ's love. When you are ready, we'd like to meet with you personally and hear your story.

Contact Deacon Joe Standridge at 940-220-7160 or istandridge@stmarkdenton.org to take first step.

From CATECHISM of the CATHOLIC CHURCH pg. 352 - 353
THE EUCHARIST

1395 By the same charity that it enkindles in us, the Eucharist preserves us from future mortal sins. The more we share the life of Christ and progress in his friendship, the more difficult it is to break away from him by mortal sin. The Eucharist is not ordered to the forgiveness of mortal sins—that is proper to the sacrament of Reconciliation. The Eucharist is properly the sacrament of those who are in full communion with the Church.

1396 The unity of the Mystical Body: the Eucharist makes the Church. Those who receive the Eucharist are united more closely to Christ. Through it Christ unites them to all the faithful in one body—the Church. Communion renews, strengthens, and deepens this incorporation into the Church, already achieved by Baptism. In Baptism we have been called to form but one body.²³³ The Eucharist fulfills this call: “The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ? Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread.”²³⁴

If you are the body and members of Christ, then it is your sacrament that is placed on the table of the Lord; it is your sacrament that you receive. To that which you are you respond “Amen” (“yes, it is true!”) and by responding to it you assent to it. For you hear the words, “the Body of Christ” and respond “Amen.” Be then a member of the Body of Christ that your Amen may be true.²³⁵

1397 The Eucharist commits us to the poor. To receive in truth the Body and Blood of Christ given up for us, we must recognize Christ in the poorest, his brethren:

You have tasted the Blood of the Lord, yet you do not recognize your brother, . . . You dishonor this table when you do not judge worthy of sharing your food someone judged worthy to take part in this meal. . . . God freed you from all your sins and invited you here, but you have not become more merciful.²³⁶

1398 The Eucharist and the unity of Christians. Before the greatness of this mystery St. Augustine exclaims, “O sacrament of devotion! O sign of unity! O bond of charity!”²³⁷ The more painful the experience of the divisions in the Church which break the common participation in the table of the Lord, the more urgent are our prayers to the Lord that the time of complete unity among all who believe in him may return.

1399 The Eastern churches that are not in full communion with the Catholic Church celebrate the Eucharist with great love. “These Churches, although separated from us, yet possess true sacraments, above all—by apostolic succession—the priesthood and the Eucharist, whereby they are still joined to us in closest intimacy.” A certain communion in sacris, and so in the Eucharist, “given suitable circumstances and the approval of Church authority, is not merely possible but is encouraged.”²³⁸

THE Eucharist Makes Us THE Church

Feeding the Body of Christ

Jesus teaches us another way: Go out. Go out and share your testimony, go out and interact with your brothers, go out and share, go out and ask. Become the Word in body as well as spirit!

For more than two generations, the Annual Diocesan Appeal has supported the ministries, programs, parishes and schools that sustain the healing, teaching and redemptive presence of Jesus Christ to our brothers and sisters in faith who reside throughout the twenty-eight counties of the Diocese of Fort Worth.

When you make a commitment to the 2020 Annual Diocesan Appeal, you:

- Sustain those men considering a life of ordained service to our Church and provide for those who have given their lives in ministry
- Assure that those who are in poverty will be uplifted and those who are incarcerated may continue to journey with Christ
- Build the infrastructure and capacity of rural and needy parishes to enhance ministry and mission
- Enrich Catholic marriages, support a Catholic presence on college campuses and improve access for children to attend Catholic school, regardless of the financial circumstance

This is the work of the Annual Diocesan Appeal. Feeding the Body of Christ, ensuring that our brothers and sisters may continue to encounter Christ in all that they do and at all stages of life.

Look into your heart, consider someone you know who is in need of the services supported by the appeal, and consider your generous commitment to the 2020 Annual Diocesan Appeal.
