The Trinity

By: Rev. William G. Most

Perhaps the deepest, the most profound of all mysteries is the mystery of the Trinity. The Church teaches us that although there is only one God, yet, somehow, there are three Persons in God. The Father is God, the Son is God, the Holy Spirit is God, yet we do not speak of three Gods, but only one God. They have the same nature, substance, and being.

We came to know this immense mystery because Christ revealed it to us. Just before ascending He told them: “Go teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit” (Matthew 28:19). We know that these Three are not just different ways of looking at one person. For at the Last Supper, Jesus told us: “I came forth from the Father.” So He is different from the Father. But He also promised: “If I go, I will send Him [the Paraclete] to you. . . . He will guide you to all truth” (John 16:28, 7, 13). So the Holy Spirit is also different.

Even though the Three Persons are One God, yet they are distinct: for the Father has no origin, He came from no one. But the Son is begotten, He comes from the Father alone. The Holy Spirit comes or proceeds from both the Father and the Son. These different relations of origin tell us there are three distinct Persons, who have one and the same divine nature.

Even though everything the Three Persons do outside the Divine nature is done by all Three, yet it is suitable that we attribute some works specially to one or the other Person. So we speak of the Father especially as the power of creation, of the Son as the wisdom of the Father, of the Holy Spirit as goodness and sanctification.

The two doctrines of the Trinity and the Incarnation are the foundation of Christian life and worship. By becoming man, God the Son offered us a share in the inner life of the Trinity. By grace, we are brought into the perfect communion of life and love which is God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. This sharing in the life of the Trinity is meant to culminate in heaven, where we will see the three Persons face to face, united to them in unspeakable love.

PART TWO: The Apostle’s Creed

The great sacraments of the Church—Baptism, Confirmation, the Eucharist, Reconciliation, the Anointing of the Sick, Matrimony, and Holy Orders—have endured for thousands of years and structured countless lives. Everything in the Church’s life comes from and returns to them.

But there is far more to these ancient rites than meets the eye.

In this follow-up to The Mass, Bishop Barron looks at the great sacraments of the Church in all their theological depth, spiritual effects, and pastoral promise. The Sacraments will help you understand these signs and channels of grace and discover the secret behind their persistence down the ages: the presence and power of the Savior himself.

Join Deacon Vic as he host an online of the Sacraments Thursday evenings beginning October 22 at 7 pm. Visit stmarkdenton.org to register. Contact Deacon Vic at vnorton@stmarkdenton.org, if you have any questions.

RCIA meetings have begun. The Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults is for those adults who have never been baptized, or who have been baptized in another faith or baptized as Catholic but never received the sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation. Please contact Deacon Joe Standridge with any questions or to join in the meetings. Deacon Joe's number is 940-220-7160 and his email is jstandridge@stmarkdenton.org.

Sanation / Con-Validation: If you were married outside the Catholic Church then it is necessary for you to have your marriage recognized by the Catholic Church before receiving Holy Communion. Contact Deacon Joe Standridge at 940-220-7160 or at jsatandridge@stmarkdenton.org with questions.

GATHERING HYMN: ALL WHO HUNGER

1. All who hunger, gather gladly;
Holy manna is our bread.
Come from wilderness and wand'ring.
Here, in truth, we will be fed.
You that yearn for days of fullness,
All around us is our food.

Taste and see the grace eternal.

Taste and see that God is good.

Taste and see the grace eternal.

Taste and see that God is good.

PSALM:

TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME / A

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 23:1-3a, 3b-4, 5, 6

The LORD is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.
Fresh and green are the pastures
where he gives me repose.
Near restful waters he leads me;
he revives my soul. R.

Your crook and your staff will give me comfort. R.

You have prepared a table before me
in the sight of my foes.
My head you have anointed with oil;
my cup is overflowing. R.

He guides me along the right path,
for the sake of his name.
Though I should walk in the valley of the shadow of death,
no evil would I fear, for you are
with me.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life.
In the LORD's own house shall I dwell
for length of days unending. R.

OFFERTORY: THE KING OF LOVE MY SHEPHERD IS

1. The King of love my shepherd is,
Whose goodness fails me never;
I nothing lack if I am his,
And he is mine for ever.
2. Where streams of living water flow
My ransomed soul he's leading,
And, where the verdant pastures grow,
With food celestial feeding.
3. Confused and foolish oft I strayed,
But yet in love he sought me,
And on his shoulder gently laid,
And home, rejoicing, brought me.
4. In death's dark vale I fear no ill
With you, dear Lord, beside me,
Your rod and staff my comfort still,
Your cross before to guide me.
5. You spread a table in my sight,
Your saving grace bestowing;

And, oh, what transport of delight
From your pure chalice flowing!

6. And so, through all the length of days
Your goodness fails me never;
Good Shepherd, may I sing your praise
Within your house for ever.

Text: Psalm 23; Henry W. Baker, 1821-1877, alt.

COMMUNION: COME TO THE FEAST (please see other page)

COMMUNION: YOU SATISFY THE HUNGRY HEART

You satisfy the hungry heart

With gift of finest wheat;

Come give to us, O saving Lord,

The bread of life to eat.

1. As when the shepherd calls his sheep,
They know and heed his voice;
So when you call your fam'ly, Lord,
We follow and rejoice.
2. With joyful lips we sing to you
Our praise and gratitude,
That you should count us worthy, Lord,
To share this heav'nly food.
3. Is not the cup we bless and share
The blood of Christ outpoured?
Do not one cup, one loaf, declare
Our oneness in the Lord?
4. The myst'ry of your presence, Lord,
No mortal tongue can tell:
Whom all the world cannot contain
Comes in our hearts to dwell.

Praise to you, O Christ, our Savior,

Word of the Father, calling us to life;

Son of God who leads us to freedom:

You are the Word who leads us into light;
You are the Word who brings us through the desert:
Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ!
4. You are the Word who binds us and unites us;
You are the Word who calls us to be one;

Closing: Love Comes Down

I'm searching for a king and kingdom
Here among the beggars and the weak
The broken and redeemed

I'm finding grace beyond all measure
In flesh and blood He hides His majesty
Inside of You and me Why would a king do such a thing

Isn't it beautiful Isn't it marvelous

The God of the universe He became one of us

We cry out and then Love comes down again

Faith is (Hope is) (Glory's) found in Him hallelujah

Oh glorious beyond all measure
Bending low to wash His traitor's feet People just like me
Why would a king do such a thing

ICC School News

Immaculate Conception Catholic School Meet our Staff!

We welcome Susan and Anna Raabe!! Yes, this is a mom-daughter combo that serving Our Lady's School this year! And they are certainly bundles of energy! Susan actually created our first ICCS WEBSITE more than 20 years ago! In addition to being part of a great family, Susan has been a servant leader her entire life. And ICCS fits right into that vision! "It is such a blessing to work with a group of people in our community that are dedicated to Christ and to the development of the whole child," Susan shares. With a B. A. in Geography, Environment Planning and Design, Susan's journey has been multi-faceted and endless. You'll see her doing everything from teaching the students how to plant cabbage, to administrative work, 4-H, speech, and so much more!

Anna has some great gifts in her own right! Her experience entails library management at Christendom College in Virginia to working in many faith-based capacities such as Vacation Bible School, to also being a servant leader as the right-hand helper to her mom in so many areas over the years. "I really love being able to teach children through the light of faith," she says about her vision here at ICCS. She hopes that vision will continue as her ultimate goal is to be a catechist and spread the faith to as many people as she can. We are so glad you are here!
