3RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He walked along a little farther and saw James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They too were in a boat mending their nets. Then he called them. So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him. - Mk 1:19-20

PARISH NEWS

Bread of Life Please consider supporting our Bread of Life Ministry by providing personal care items, infant items, cleaning products, and non-perishable food items for Denton County's Friends of the Family. ADDITIONALLY, our friends at The Freedom Pantry, an important distribution point for Bread of Life, providing approximately 1300 meals monthly, are in need of resealable food baggies, primarily quart and gallon size. Please consider picking up an extra box or two the next time you go shopping. Place your donations in the Bread of Life drop box in the Narthex. Thank you for your help and continued support of our friends in need. Together we can help "Feed the Hungry"!

Please continue to check our website www.stmarkdenton.org for the latest information on RE classes, ministries and last minute changes to Mass schedules. We will post/share information as soon as we receive it.

Please contact the Ministry leader to find out if they are meeting online, and for new on campus meeting guidelines.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

The Grief Share Ministry begins April 24, here at St. Mark, and it is for those who would like or need help in adjusting to the loss of a loved one. Grief Share participants will meet every Thursday evening 7:00 - 9:00 pm for 13 weeks. This ministry includes video presentations, a workbook and Group discussions with others who are mourning a loss. For more information, contact Terry Hitch at 817-296-6283 or confidence47orion@gmail.com.

Adult The Knowledge of Jesus

Authored By: Fr. William G. Most

Was Jesus confused? Did He know He was Messiah? or divine? Did He know much about the afterlife? Did He have at least one superstition? Did He have only the mentality of a Jew of the first third of the first century?--Wild as it may seem, some prominent scholars charge Him on all the above counts, and more too.

It is obvious, of course, that since Jesus was God, we must say that, simply speaking, from the very beginning of His life He knew all things and all possible things. The question that these scholars are asking is, how much did He know insofar as He was truly man--that is, how much did He know in His human intellect.

So we ask: What does the Church teach on these things? Pope Pius XII, in his great Encyclical on the "Mystical Body," on June 29, 1943, rejected all such charges. He taught: "By that blessed vision which He enjoyed when just received in the womb of the Mother of God, He has all the members of the Mystical Body continuously and perpetually present to Himself." In other words: His human soul saw the vision of God at once, and in it all knowledge is at hand. In another Encyclical, "Sempiternus Rex," in 1951, the same Pope complained many were not accepting his teaching. Then in still another Encyclical, "Haurietis aquas," in 1956, he clearly repeated his earlier teaching. Further, on July 24, 1966, the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith under Pope Paul VI, complained that many were still not accepting. Clearly, the repeated teaching shows the Church means to make this definite and definitive, namely, that the human soul of Jesus, from the first instant, saw the vision of God, in which all knowledge is accessible.

The stubbornness of those who reject is remarkable. For on two counts this teaching rates as infallible: 1) The repetition, as we said, shows the intention to make a thing definitive. So it is infallible. 2) Pius XII, in his "Humani generis" of 1950 told us that if the Popes in their official journal deliberately take a position on something then being debated in theology, it is removed from debate, and comes under the promise of Christ (Lk. 10:16): "He who hears you, hears me." Of course, a promise of Christ cannot fail. The modern trouble on Christ's human knowledge was sparked by a book, by P. Galtier, "L'unité du Christ," which appeared in 1939 - followed soon, in 1943, by the Encyclical of Pius XII, and then by still more texts, as we said. So this teaching is infallible, on two counts.

Really, even without the help of the official texts, we should be able to see for ourselves that the human mind of Jesus not only happened to have that vision, but could not lack it. We see it in the following way. For any soul to reach that vision (which happens to others in heaven), two things are needed: 1) the power of the soul to see needs to be elevated by grace. Of course that was true in Jesus; 2) The divinity should join itself directly to the human mind, without even an image in between, so that the mind may see God. Now in an ordinary case, if we put together human body and human soul, that is automatically a human person. That did not happen in the case of Jesus - His human mind, and whole humanity, was assumed, taken over, by the Second Person of the Holy Trinity. Therefore His human mind was joined to the divinity, even more closely than happens in the case of an ordinary soul - for when an ordinary soul receives that vision, it remains a separate person. But in Jesus, there was only one Person, the Divine Person. So His human soul could not possibly have lacked this vision.

Capital Campaign Corner

Building a Community to Worship as ONE

We are excited to announce the theme for our capital campaign: Building a Community to Worship as ONE.

Our parish is well known as a warm community of faith where visitors and long-time parishioners feel welcome and at home. For 2,000 years, the Catholic Church has called this community of Christian believers the Church. "Church" refers firstly to the people of God and, secondarily, to the building in which the people gather to worship God and receive Christ as one community, one family.

Our campaign theme represents who we are as a parish and what we endeavor to achieve. Building a Community to Worship as ONE campaign will accomplish more than building a church. We are embarking on a campaign to build up and strengthen our growing parish community so that future generations will have a spiritual home to encounter Christ and one another as one Body, the Church.

GOD OUR FATHER,

You established our parish family 25 years ago as a humble dwelling place for your Son and a spiritual home for our families. Thank you for your countless blessings and for those, past and present, who have labored in love to make St. Mark a community of faith, love, and service. Please bless our campaign as we respond to your blessings by building a church, a community to worship as ONE. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME / B

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 25:4-5ab, 6-7bc, 8-9

Teach me your ways, O Lord, teach me your ways.

O LORD, make me know your ways.

Teach me your paths.

Guide me in your truth, and teach me;
for you are the God of my salvation. R.

In your merciful love remember me,
because of your goodness, O
LORD. R.

Remember your compassion, O LORD,
and your merciful love,
for they are from of old.

Good and upright is the LORD;
he shows the way to sinners.
He guides the humble in right judgment;
to the humble he teaches his way. R.

OFFERTORY: LORD, WHEN YOU CAME

- Lord, when you came to the seashore
You weren't seeking the wise or the wealthy,
But only asking that I might follow.

O Lord, in my eyes you were gazing,
Kindly smiling, my name you were saying;
All I treasured, I have left on the sand there;
Close to you, I will find other seas.

- Lord, you knew what my boat carried:
Neither money nor weapons for fighting,
But nets for fishing, my daily labor.
- Lord, have you need of my labor,
Hands for service, a heart made for loving,
My arms for lifting the poor and broken?
- Lord, send me where you would have me,
To a village, or heart of the city;
I will remember that you are with me.

COMMUNION HYMN: OUR GOD IS HERE

(please see other page)

COMMUNION HYMN: THIS IS JESUS

This is Jesus, Emmanuel.

God is with us, in this sacrament.

Come, receive Him. Adore Him.

This is Jesus, our Lord.

1. Bright Star of David,
Radiance of God;
now become the Living Bread,
the body of the Lord.
Come in adoration,
receive with trembling hands;
the sacrament most holy,
the banquet of the Lamb.

2. Drink of living waters, flowing from the Lord.
Taste the cup of blessing,
partake of precious blood.
River of Salvation,
holy cleansing tide;
Fountain of Redemption, flowing from the Savior's side.

CLOSING HYMN: YOU ARE STRONG, YOU ARE HOLY

- Lord, you lead through sea and desert,
You lead to promised lands.
We are your own holy people,
In your covenant we stand!

You are strong, you are holy,
you are mercy and peace.
You are love, you are justice.
Your grace and favor never cease!

- So we follow where you lead us,
Where you walk along the shore,
Where you suffer in the garden,
When you rise to die no more!

ST. MARK LIFE TEEN

THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

JANUARY 24, 2021

Gathering: Love Is Here

Come to the water you who thirst
And you'll thirst no more
Come to the Father you who work
And you'll work no more
And all you who labor in vain
And to the broken and shamed

Love is here love is now

Love is pouring from His hands from His brow
Love is near it satisfies
Streams of mercy flowing from His side

Come to the Treasure you who search
And you'll search no more
Come to the Lover you who want
And you'll want no more
And all you who labor in vain
And to the broken and shamed

Reading 1: Jonah 3:1-5, 10

Psalm: Teach me your ways, O Lord.

R. Teach me your ways, O Lord.
Your ways, O LORD, make known to me;
teach me your paths,
Guide me in your truth and teach me,
for you are God my savior.

R. Teach me your ways, O Lord.
Remember that your compassion, O LORD,

Good and upright is the LORD;
thus he shows sinners the way.
He guides the humble to justice and teaches the humble his way.

R. Teach me your ways, O Lord.

Reading 2: 1 Corinthians 7:29-31

Gospel Acclamation:

The kingdom of God is at hand.
Repent and believe in the Gospel.

Gospel: Mark 1:14-20

Offertory: Bones

You can take my dry bones Breathe life into this skin
You called me by name Raised me to life again

You can calm the oceans Speak peace into my soul
Take me as I am Awaken my heart to beat again

Oh Jesus Oh Jesus Oh Jesus Alive in me

You move in the unseen You set the captives free
As I stand and sing You're breaking the chains off me

*Breathe in me Your life I can feel You are close now
I can never hide You are here and You know me
All I need is You And I love You
I love You I love You I love You*

*Breathe in me Your life 'Til Your love overtakes me
Open up my eyes Let me see You more clearly*

*Falling on my knees 'Til I love like You love
Like You love me I love You*

Communion: O, Come To The Altar

Are you hurting and broken within
Overwhelmed by the weight of your sin
Jesus is calling
Have you come to the end of yourself
Do you thirst for a drink from the well
Jesus is calling

O come to the altar

The Father's arms are open wide
Forgiveness was bought with
The precious blood of Jesus Christ

Leave behind your regrets and mistakes
Come today there's no reason to wait
Jesus is calling
Bring your sorrows and trade them for joy
From the ashes a new life is born
Jesus is calling

*Oh what a Savior
Isn't he wonderful
Sing alleluia Christ is risen
Bow down before him
For he is Lord of all
Sing alleluia Christ is risen*

Bear your cross as you wait for the crown
Tell the world of the treasure you've found

Meditation: Set A Fire

No place I would rather be
No place I would rather be
No place I would rather be
Than here in Your love
Here in Your love

So set a fire down in my soul
That I can't contain and I can't control
I want more of You God
I want more of You God

Closing: I Am

There's no space that His love can't reach
There's no place where we can't find peace
There's no end to amazing grace

Take me in with Your arms spread wide
Take me in like an orphan child
Never let go never leave my side

I am holding onto You
I am holding onto You
In the middle of the storm
I am holding on (I am)

Love like this O my God to find
I am overwhelmed with a joy divine
Love like this sets our hearts on fire
