Regarding statements of the Holy Father in a recently released documentary, official Church teaching is not changed by a recorded conversation with the Holy Father.

The teachings of the Catholic Church regarding traditional marriage continue because it reflects the reality about the unique character of the union of a man and a woman.

The Catholic Church’s teaching regarding the respect and care for those with same sex attractions also continues because in God’s eyes we are all His children. We must continue to live the truth in love (Eph. 4.15).

Quoting from Pope Francis’s Apostolic Exhortation, Amoris Laetitia, 2016: “We need to acknowledge the great variety of family situations that can offer a certain stability, but de facto or same-sex unions, for example, may not simply be equated with marriage.” (AL, 52)

Later the Holy Father continued on this theme: “In discussing the dignity and mission of the family, the Synod Fathers observed that, “as for proposals to place unions between homosexual persons on the same level as marriage, there are absolutely no grounds for considering homosexual unions to be in any way similar or even remotely analogous to God’s plan for marriage and family”. (AL, 251)

“During the Synod, we discussed the situation of families whose members include persons who experience same-sex attraction, a situation not easy either for parents or for children. We would like before all else to reaffirm that every person, regardless of sexual orientation, ought to be respected in his or her dignity and treated with consideration, while ‘every sign of unjust discrimination’ is to be carefully avoided, particularly any form of aggression and violence.” (AL, n. 250)

Angel Tree Project : Make a Child Smile

Christmas in the Philippines is always early, it starts on September 1st and ends on the 1st Sunday of January_ on the Feast Day of 3 Kings, in my home town it’s on the Feast Day of the presentation of the child Jesus in the temple on February 2nd .

This Christmas in cooperation with our Pastoral Council we are asking/ knocking your kind hearts to please share your kids old toys or give new toys to the children of the Philippines who experience recently three strong typhoons.

These toys will be sent before 1st week of December and should arrive before end of Christmas season in the Philippines.

Every Angel hanging in our Christmas tree has a recent picture of a child at the back. All child pictures was sent to Father Arbel by the parents last week hoping they will selected to receive a gift this Christmas. All pictures are numbered and Father has the name and age if you would like to know.

Suggested items: Puzzles, dolls, pencils, markers, socks, combs, brushes, stuffed toys, books, crayons, stickers, toy animals. Board games, side walk chalk, pens, Frisbees, matchbox cars, craft supplies. Thank you for your generosity
Father Arbel
