THE WIND AND THE SEA

Living along the shores of Lake Superior—the “big lake,” as the locals call it—you can often hear the advice, “Respect the lake; don’t take it for granted.” People who know Lake Superior respect its power and watch out for its many moods. Sunken ships and boats crushed into kindling are testimonies to what the lake can do.

The readings of this Sunday evoke our memories of the lake, of the mighty Mississippi River, or of the ocean itself. Who but God can control these mighty waters and set limits to their advance? The lake described in today’s Gospel was a body of water subject to sudden storms and churned into dangerous waves by terrible winds.

But these mighty agents are subject to God. The sailor and the fisher all respect the water. Even more, they respect the awesome power of the Maker of wind and sea.

FEAST OF FAITH

The Collection: A Privilege

As the altar is prepared for the celebration of the Eucharist, the collection is taken up. In the early church, this part of the Mass must have been something to behold, as the people suddenly began to move, bringing forward to the deacons and priests freshly-baked bread and fine wine. Then, after the Eucharistic Prayer, that same community came forward again in the Communion procession, and they received back the very gifts they had given, now transformed into something infinitely more precious than bread and wine: the very Body and Blood of Christ.

Beginning around the eleventh century, it became the custom for people to present money instead of bread and wine, and the procession of the faithful gradually disappeared (it survives in the liturgy of Holy Thursday). But the meaning is the same. We continue to bring the fruit of our labors and to offer them freely to God. And God continues to transform them into Christ. It is through our generous sharing of time, talent, and treasure that our parishes can preach the gospel, reach out to the sick and the imprisoned, and celebrate the sacraments.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Though we re-enter Ordinary Time already knowing that Jesus is the Son of God (see the centurion's words at the end of the Palm Sunday Passion reading from Mark's Gospel), the long succession of Sundays confronts us again with the question that each Christian community, each individual Christian faces continually throughout life: "Who is this?" (Mark 4:41), and prompts an "examination of conscience" regarding the practical consequences of our response. This year's Gospel readings from Mark suggest that we find our answer in the cross and in the Eucharist. Today's stark challenge of Jesus' call to discipleship is, thankfully, balanced by the comfort we can take in relating—perhaps only too well—to the disciples' fears. Though we welcome Jesus in Word and Eucharist Sunday after Sunday, don't we all, from time to time during our lives' "ordinary time," experience Jesus' "real absence"?

SEA AND WIND

As always in Ordinary Time, today's Old Testament sets the stage for the Gospel. God, who in Jesus will "rebuken the wind" and "command the sea to be still" (Mark 4:39), "addresses Job out of the storm" (Job 38:1), speaking to the turmoil in Job's heart, calling to mind the primal chaos of creation's untamed sea, reminding Job that God's mighty word then was enough to command order and bring forth life. In today's Gospel, the disciples' fear, even near despair, takes center stage. Are any of us strangers to such emotions? Squall-force winds buffet their boat, waves break over it, and Jesus might as well not be there. Mark's account is especially grim. Alone among the evangelists, he tells us that Jesus is in the stern, the very back of the boat, not just asleep—sound asleep! Only Mark adds the detail, "on a cushion" (4:38).

AWAKEN CHRIST

Though we welcome Jesus in Word and Eucharist Sunday after Sunday, haven't we all, from time to time, experienced Jesus' "real absence"? This personal application should comfort us, as it has generations of disciples before us. Though the "boat" is, primarily, a symbol of the Church, never forsaken by Christ, carried safely across time's stormy waters, Saint Augustine preaching on this very Gospel sixteen hundred years ago noted that, since each of us is a temple of God, each one's heart is a sailing boat. Consider any temptation, says Augustine, as "the wind, the surging of the sea," and do what the disciples did: wake up Christ, "the sleeper in your heart," by recalling his words and commands. Then be like the wind and the sea: "The sea obeys him, the wind is still." Whenever emotions make our hearts turbulent, whenever Christ seems absent or at least asleep, "let us not despair but awaken Christ, so that we may sail in quiet waters, and reach at last our heavenly homeland."

DIOCESAN ANNOUNCEMENTS & NEWS

JOB OPENING

Assistant Director of Finance (Full-Time, Exempt)

The Diocese of Sacramento has an opening for an Assistant Director of Finance.

For the Central Administrative Offices of the Diocese of Sacramento, several pension trusts, and those supporting corporations for which financial services are provided pursuant to formal agreements, the Assistant Director of Finance will supervise the Controller and all accounting functions; ensure that an effective internal control system is maintained; prepare detailed annual budgets and monitor versus actual results throughout the year; perform the day-to-day treasury functions; prepare all detailed schedules and draft the GAAP financial statements for an annual audit; prepare special financial reports and analysis needed; and perform other duties as assigned.

The successful applicant will be a highly motivated practicing Catholic; will have a Bachelor's Degree in Accounting or related area; be a CPA with a minimum two years public accounting experience and/or minimum five years as administrator responsible for accounting, finance, and investment functions; will possess excellent written, verbal, and interpersonal communication skills; will have a high proficiency in Excel and computerized financial/accounting software; and will be able to accomplish complex accounting matters in a fast paced multi-entity environment.

To apply, please email cover letter and resume, complete and signed Employment Application to personnel@scd.org. Position is open until filled.

JOURNEY WITH ST. JOSEPH PILGRIMAGE: June 19 – December 7, 2021

Pope Francis has declared this year as the Year of St. Joseph for the Universal Church. The faithful of the Diocese of Sacramento are encouraged and invited to "Journey with St. Joseph" on a pilgrimage through our eleven parishes named for St. Joseph. Visit www.scd.org/journey-st-joseph to learn more and download a Pilgrim's Prayer Booklet.

SPECIAL COLLECTION:

Next week, June 27, we will take up the Peter's Pence Collection, which unites us and Catholics around the world more closely with the Holy Father in two ways: it supports the structures of the Holy See through which the Pope governs the Church as well as his charitable efforts to assist victims of war, oppression, natural disasters, and others most in need. Please be generous.

Youth on a Mission - Teen discipleship training

High School aged teens are invited to join us for YOUTH ON A MISSION, a 4-day discipleship training camp on June 22 – 25, 2021 at Trinity Pines Catholic Center. Youth on a Mission is for Catholic teens who are ready for the next step in their development as disciples and leaders in the church. During YOUTH on a MISSION, youth will encounter Christ, learn practical skills for servant leadership, discover God's call to evangelize, be encouraged to serve in leadership in parish life and be challenged to take the next step in their discipleship. Get more information at www.yoamnorcal.weebly.com For more information contact Jennifer Campbell at jcampbell@scd.org or 916-733-0135

PARENT SUPPORT: SUPPORTING YOUR CHILD THROUGH LIFE TRANSITIONS

Join us on Monday, June 21st at 8pm for our monthly Parent Support session. This month we will be discussing supporting our young people in their life as they transition into and out of high school and into and out of college. We will be joined by Vince Nims the Director of the UC Davis Catholic Newman Center and Lizzy Fahey the Campus Minister for Retreat at St. Francis High School. www.scd.org/parentsupport For more Information contact Jennifer Campbell at jcampbell@scd.org or 916-733-0135

CAMP PENDOLA DAY CAMPS

Decimosegundo Domingo
del Tiempo Ordinario
20 de junio de 2021

El que vive según Cristo es una creatura nueva.
— 2 Corintios 5:17

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

DUODÉCIMO DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Aunque volvemos a reempezar el Tiempo Ordinario sabiendo que Jesús es el Hijo de Dios (léase atentamente las palabras del centurión en la lectura de la Pasión del Domingo de Ramos del Evangelio de Marcos), la extensa serie de domingos nos enfrentan con la pregunta que cada comunidad cristiana, cada uno de los cristianos afronta continuamente a lo largo de la vida: "¿quién es este?" (Marcos 4:41), y nos impulsa a hacer "un examen de conciencia" sobre las consecuencias prácticas de nuestra respuesta. Las lecturas para este año del Evangelio de Marcos sugieren que encontremos nuestra respuesta en la cruz y en la Eucaristía. El reto claro de hoy de la llamada de Jesús al discipulado está, afortunadamente, balanceado con el consuelo que tenemos al relacionarse, quizá demasiado bien, con los temores de los discípulos. Aunque demos la bienvenida a Jesús en la Palabra y la Eucaristía domingo tras domingo, ¿no hemos experimentado todos, de vez en cuando, durante "el tiempo ordinario" de nuestras vidas, la "ausencia real" de Jesús?

EL MAR Y EL VIENTO

Como siempre en el Tiempo Ordinario, las lecturas de hoy del Antiguo Testamento preparan el escenario para el Evangelio. Dios que, en Jesús, "reprenderá el viento" y "mandará calmar el mar" (Marcos 4:39), "se dirige a Job desde la tormenta" (Job 38:1), hablando desde la confusión de su corazón, recordando a Job que entonces la Palabra poderosa de Dios bastaba para con una orden devolver la vida. En el Evangelio de hoy, el miedo de los discípulos, incluso su desesperación, es el protagonista. ¿Acaso alguno de nosotros es ajeno a esas emociones? Los vientos de la borrasca golpean la barca, las olas rompen sobre ella y Jesús podría no estar ahí. El relato de Marcos es particularmente triste. Solo entre los evangelistas, él nos cuenta que Jesús está en la popa, en la parte trasera de la barca, y no solo dormido, sino que está profundamente dormido. Únicamente Marcos añade el detalle "sobre un cojín" (4:38).

DESPERTAR A CRISTO

Aunque acojamos a Jesús en la Palabra y la Eucaristía domingo tras domingo, ¿acaso no nos ha pasado a todos que experimentamos, de vez en cuando, la "ausencia real" de Jesús? Esta experiencia personal debería reconfortarnos, como así ha sucedido con generaciones de discípulos antes que nosotros. Aunque ante todo la barca es un símbolo de la Iglesia, nunca abandonada por Cristo, llevada con seguridad a través de las aguas tormentosas del tiempo, san Agustín al predicar sobre este mismo Evangelio hace mil seiscientos años, señaló que, puesto que cada uno de nosotros es un templo de Dios, el corazón de cada uno es una barca de vela. San Agustín dice: considera cualquier tentación como "el viento, el oleaje del mar", y haz lo que hicieron los discípulos, despierta a Cristo, "el durmiente en tu corazón", recordando sus palabras y mandamientos. Luego sé como el viento y el mar: "El mar lo obedece, el viento está tranquilo". Siempre que las emociones hagan turbulento nuestro corazón, siempre que Cristo parezca ausente o al menos dormido, "no nos desesperemos, sino despertemos a Cristo, para que podamos navegar en aguas tranquilas, y llegar por fin a nuestra patria celestial".

EL VIENTO Y EL MAR

Los que conocen bien el Lago Superior le tienen un saludable respeto, y siempre están alerta sobre sus caprichosos cambios de ánimo. Muchos barcos hundidos y muchos botes hechos astillas son testigos de lo que el lago puede hacer cuando está de mal humor.

Las lecturas de este domingo nos evocan memorias de ese lago, del poderoso río Mississippi o del océano mismo. ¿Quién, fuera de Dios, podrá controlar esas aguas poderosas, o imponerles límites, diciendo "Hasta aquí llegarás"? El lago que describe el Evangelio de hoy era un lago en el que se levantaban súbitas tormentas, en las que los vientos huracanados agitaban olas enormes.

Pero estas fuerzas tan poderosas se someten a la voluntad de Dios. Los marineros y los pescadores le tienen un saludable respeto al poder de las aguas. Pero más todavía respetan el poder del Creador del viento y del mar.

FIESTA DE LA FE

Pan y vino

Presentamos pan y vino como ofrenda porque son elementos que encierran la vida en sí mismos. No son un producto único, sino el resultado de un proceso. En sí mismos, son simbólicos del misterio pascual que celebra la Eucaristía; hay un proceso de muerte y vida. El grano de trigo ha muerto, ha dado fruto, se ha triturado y ahora es pan para que todos coman. El vino ha salido de las parras generosas, trae en sí la espera del tiempo, la madurez de la uva, la extracción del jugo, la fermentación... hay un proceso de vida para llegar no sólo al vino, sino a un buen vino; a un vino que es la sangre misma de la vida, que dentro de sí lleva ya el aspecto festivo de algo que se celebra y se comparte. Es más que una bebida relajante o sabrosa, es la bebida sagrada porque en ella se acompaña una promesa, se marca un momento, se vive un juramento. Comer y beber siempre han sido un gesto de solidaridad entre hombres y mujeres; se come y bebe con quien se tiene confianza, con quien se es familia, con quien se espera re-crear la propia vida a partir de algo que va más allá de nosotros mismos.
