Annual Catholic Appeal Mid Year Update

Thank you to everyone, who has generously supported the 2025 Annual Catholic Appeal. Because of your kindness, the Corpus Christi Parish has raised $15,916.00 of the $22,511.00 pledged toward our $35,000.00 goal.

We're almost there and with just a few more families participating, we'll qualify for a special participation grant of $1,000 from the Archdiocese.

If you haven't yet made a gift, please prayerfully consider joining this effort. Every gift, no matter the size, makes a meaningful impact. Your generosity supports critical ministries such as vocations and seminarian education, youth and campus ministry, multicultural outreach, retired priests, marriage and family life.

Make your gift today at archokc.org/acagift.

Together, let's put our faith in action!

Pastor's Word

Summer has arrived. It can be a time to enrich our physical, psychological, and spiritual life. And accordingly, the Readings offer us peace. In Isaiah, peace flows like a river through the ideal future landscape that he predicts. Then St Paul prays for peace for all who follow Christ ("peace be upon them, and mercy"). And when sending out his disciples, Jesus says their first message must be: Peace to this house."

But while most people agree that peace must be sought, many seem to want peace only on their own rigid terms. The splendor of this joyful hymn in Isaiah comes from Suffering Servant. It is the joy of one who has suffered from hatred and rejection, and yet acts as a reconciler.

Christian peacemakers and servants of the Gospel must be prepared for their share of the cross. In an often-cruel world, we can do our part only by remembering Jesus, staying close to him..

When Jesus sent out his volunteers to continue his work, he gave them definite directions. Afterwards they returned in a spirit of celebration, to report their missionary success.

Our discipleship can be summed up as: "Come and see" and Go and tell." If we have personally felt the value of having Jesus in our lives, we will want to tell others about him.

We are all called to witness, but not all are called to preach. Many good Christians would melt rather than preach in public. But we can all bear witness to Christ, through the quality of our living.

Parish Council Elections

We would like to thank all of our candidates and parish members who took the time to vote. The winners are Reginald Booker and Garry Bostick.

Donut Committee Update: The Donut Committee serves coffee and donuts each Sunday after 11:00 am Mass. The first Sunday celebrates birthdays for the month for all parishioners. Individual parish ministries support and contribute to these gatherings and parishioners and visitors are welcomed to attend. If you or your family would like to take a week to contribute to this ministry, assist in the set up or clean up afterwards, please let Kathy Tomlinson know. You will find a schedule of assignments for the month in our weekly bulletin.

How to Get Better Sleep

The Mayo Clinic suggests the following ways to achieve better sleep:

1. Stick to a sleep schedule. Go to bed and get up at the same time every day.
2. Pay attention to what you eat and drink. Don't go to bed either hungry or stuffed.
3. Create a bedtime ritual. Do the same things each night to tell your body it's time to wind down.
4. Get comfortable. Create a room that's ideal for sleeping.
5. Limit daytime naps.
6. Manage stress.

"Nearly everyone has an occasional sleepless night—but if you often have trouble sleeping, contact your doctor. Identifying and treating any underlying causes can help you get the better sleep you deserve."

We also take the time to visit with the parishioners and share news about the parish. If you or someone you know needs our service, please contact any member of our team or the church office. We want to serve you. You may contact Kathy Tomlinson, Jo Graham, Jocelyn Gaines, Zitha Isingizwe or Cynthia Hollier 405 229-7801.

The Funeral Mass Planning Ministry assists families with the order and rites of a Catholic funeral service. Families are provided resources to assist in their decision making for biblical and gospel readings, music, and special requests, (i.e. streaming services, solos, and/or preferred lectors when possible). This ministry also recruits Eucharist ministers, ushers, servers, and lectors for the service. The services are always scheduled and coordinated with Fr. Titus and Deacon Cumby. Katherine Miller is the contact person for this ministry.

The CCCC funeral meal team comes together to provide service to the family and friends of our deceased parishioners with food and drink. We work in conjunction with the Funeral Mass Planning Ministry which Katherine Miller assists families with.
