Notice on Security Changes During Mass

With the ever increasing assaults on our public, religious and governmental gathering places, we are taking steps to secure our worship environment during all Sunday Masses and any Masses celebrated throughout the liturgical year.

Effective immediately, the main doors facing the Kelly Street side will be locked after 11:05AM and 1:05PM.

We also ask that you remain vigilant, not put yourself or family in harms way and report any suspicious activity to the security that we will have in place.

Let us live and worship in Peace

Pastor's Word

As the Liturgical Year comes to an end, the Sunday readings reflect on the final days of the world, our own death and the Final Judgment. We reflect on the “Second Coming” of Jesus in glory as Judge at the end of the world.

The Prophet Malachi, in the 1st reading, foretells this Day, giving the warning that the future, known to God alone, will bring healing and reward for the just who forearm themselves with words and works (peace, justice, mercy and truth), and retribution for the “proud and all evildoers.”

Jesus warns us that the date of the end of the world is uncertain. Signs and portents will precede the end , and we will be called upon to testify before kings and governors. The Good News is that those who persevere in faithfulness to the Lord will save their souls and enter God’s eternal kingdom.

Christ’s Second Coming is something to celebrate, because then Jesus is going to present all creation to his Heavenly Father. That is why, ‘We proclaim Your death, O Lord, and profess Your Resurrection, until You come again.’ at Mass.

Being “handed over by parents, brothers, relations and friends”, are something that Christians always face. As Jesus’ original disciples, Jesus’ promise of the protective power of a providing God through all of this would serve as a real encouragement to persevere in Faith and in practice: ‘By your perseverance you will secure your lives.’

The prophecy of the destruction of Jerusalem and the end of the world prepared his disciples and us for this more immediate coming disaster and to remind us to rely upon God for Salvation, not our own power. The persecution would become a massive evangelization campaign. Faith would serve as a witness on the Day of Judgment. Not only would the individual martyrs see the Lord in Heaven, but the Church would flourish in persecution [21:18-19].

Current Parish Council Members:

Nurse's CornerBackpain

If you have short-term back pain, you may recover without ever finding out exactly what was wrong. If the pain lingers, discovering the underlying source of the pain can help guide treatment. Understanding what causes you back to hurt is important to preventing recurrence.

Prediabetes

If you have been told you have prediabetes, your chance of developing full-blown diabetes can be as high as 20% per year. You can reduce that risk by focusing on a healthy, calorie-controlled diet and daily exercise.
