Let us live and worship in Peace

Pastor's Word

We are preparing for Christmas to experience joy at the rebirth of Jesus in our lives. We are invited; “Gaudete in Domino semper—Rejoice in the Lord always.” To express our joy in the coming of Jesus, we light the rose candle in the Advent wreath.

The prophet Isiah encouraged the exiled Jews in Babylon to rejoice because God was going to liberate them from slavery and lead them safely to their homeland. James the Apostle encourages the early Christians and us to rejoice and wait with patience for the imminent second coming of Jesus.

Jesus convinces John the Baptist in prison to rejoice by casting away his wrong expectations about the Messiah and simply accepting Jesus' healing and preaching ministry as the fulfillment of the Messianic prophecy of Isaiah.

Jesus pays the highest compliments to John the Baptist as his herald and the last of the prophets, gives special credit to the courage of John's prophetic convictions and asks his listeners to rejoice in the greatness of his herald.

As even after having had direct encounter with Jesus, John still had his doubts about Jesus and his teachings, we, too, can have our cries of Faith. On such occasions, let us remember the truth that all our Christian dogmas are based on our trusting Faith in the Divinity of Jesus who taught them, and on his Divine authority which he gave to his Church to teach what he taught.

We rejoice as Jesus is going to be reborn in our lives, deepening in us his gifts of love, mercy, forgiveness and the spirit of humble and sacrificial service during this Christmas season. Let us joyfully share God's graces with others. Jesus said: “Go and tell others what you hear and see.”

The message of Advent is that God is present among us, in our everyday lives. We must prepare our hearts to recognize and welcome him by allowing a change of thinking about God, ourselves and the world.

Weekly Prayer/Reflection

As we continue to observe the 3rd week of Advent, we pray that our merciful God will shine a light of peace, safety and security for all who live in these uncertain times. We pray for our children and young adults who face such an uncertain future. Keep them safe, dear God, allow them to dream, and see their dreams fulfilled. Let them live as children should, feeling safe, secure and supported during their formative years. And let them always believe that we, as adults, value them and are here to support and protect them. Heal our community, land and world dear God. Make each of us an instrument of your Peace.
