Notice on Security Changes During Mass

With the ever increasing assaults on our public, religious and governmental gathering places, we are taking steps to secure our worship environment during all Sunday Masses and any Masses celebrated throughout the liturgical year.

Effective immediately, the main doors facing the Kelly Street side will be locked after 11:05AM and 1:05PM.

We also ask that you remain vigilant, not put yourself or family in harms way and report any suspicious activity to the security that we will have in place.

Let us live and worship in Peace

Weekly Reflection from Fr. Pau

Happiness matters. Our Christian goal is eternal happiness. We need the attitudes and actions necessary to reach it.

The Beatitudes both fulfill and complete the Ten Commandments which stress the “*Thou shalt not*s.” in a positive sense, as the virtues in life which will ultimately lead to the rewards of salvation- not in this world, but in the next.

In today’s Gospel, Jesus instructs his disciples in the paradoxical blessedness of poverty, hunger, sorrow and persecution. In poverty, we recognize God’s reign; in hunger, His providence; in sorrow, true happiness; and in persecution, true joy. The blessed in Jesus’ list are the poor in spirit, compassionate, meek, merciful, clean of heart, peace-makers and those who are willing even to be insulted and persecuted for their lived Faith in him.

We need to respond to the challenge of the Beatitudes in daily life. The Beatitudes propose to us a way of life inviting us to identify with the poor, those who mourn, the meek, and those who hunger and thirst after justice. They challenge us to be compassionate, to be men and women who are pure in heart, and to become the peacemakers in our dealings with one another, in our families, and in the society at large, even when this approach to things exposes us to ridicule and persecution. Let us remember that each time we reach out to help the needy, the sick, and the oppressed, we share with them a foretaste of the promises of the Beatitudes here and now.

The Didache says, There are two Ways, one of Life and one of Death, and there is a great difference between the two Ways.” The Way of life is the WAY Jesus IS. And JESUS IS the only WAY that leads to eternal life. The Beatitudes challenge us, “Are you going to be happy in the worlds’ way or in Christ’s way?”

Lent is just around the corner and we will prepare for it with a Penance Service on Wednesday, March 11th. Mark your calendars and we hope you will plan to participate in the sacrament of reconciliation.
