OF LENT

Then Peter said to Jesus in reply, "Lord, it is good that we are here. If you wish, I will make three tents here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud cast a shadow over them, then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him." - Mt 17:4-5

Notice on Security Changes During Mass

With the ever increasing assaults on our public, religious and governmental gathering places, we are taking steps to secure our worship environment during all Sunday Masses and any Masses celebrated throughout the liturgical year.

Effective immediately, the main doors facing the Kelly Street side will be locked after 11:05AM and 1:05PM.

We also ask that you remain vigilant, not put yourself or family in harms way and report any suspicious activity to the security that we will have in place.

Weekly Reflection from Fr. Pau

In his Transfiguration, Jesus consults his Heavenly Father to ascertain His plan for His suffering, death and Resurrection. It makes Jesus' chosen disciples aware of His Divine glory, so that they might discard their worldly ambitions about a conquering political Messiah. It aimed also to strengthen their Faith and Hope and to encourage them to persevere through the future ordeal.

The disciples received a preview of the glorious Jesus would become at Easter and beyond. While praying, Jesus was transfigured into a shining figure, full of Heavenly glory.

God the Father, Moses, and Elijah approved the plan for Jesus' suffering, death and Resurrection. God's words from the Cloud: "This is my Son, the Beloved; with Him I am pleased; listen to Him." On this mountain, God reveals Jesus as His Son—His beloved—the One in Whom He is well pleased and to Whom we must listen.

In the transfigured Jesus we see a preview of where we are going on this journey of Faith: to a transfigured humanity. But going down from the mountain he reminds us of the costs of this journey. Jesus, God's Son and servant, is called to be a suffering dervant. The road to the final transfiguration goes by way of Mount Calvary. Paul reminds us of this when he calls us to join him in suffering for the Gospel.

We need these 'mountain-top' experiences in our own lives.

We can share experiences like those of Peter, James, and John when we spend some extra time with Jesus in prayer during Lent. Perhaps we may want to fast for one day, taking only water, thus releasing spiritual energy, which in turn, can lift out thoughts to a higher plane. Such a fast may also help us to remember the starving millions in the world and make us more willing to help them.
