Notice on Security Changes During Mass

With the ever increasing assaults on our public, religious and governmental gathering places, we are taking steps to secure our worship environment during all Sunday Masses and any Masses celebrated throughout the liturgical year.

Effective immediately, the main doors facing the Kelly Street side will be locked after 11:05AM and 1:05PM.

We also ask that you remain vigilant, not put yourself or family in harms way and report any suspicious activity to the security that we will have in place.

Let us live and worship in Peace

Pastor's Word

This is the 4th Week of Advent. We are going to see the long-expected Messiah. Shall we recognize the Christ when you see Him Born.

Today's readings talk about the Virgin Birth. God gives a sign to King Ahaz: 'Behold, a virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and his name shall be called Emmanuel' (Is 7:14). Seven centuries later, St Matthew wrote, "All this took place to fulfill what had been spoken by the Lord through the prophet, "Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and they shall name him Emmanuel," which means, "God -is -with -us."

We're tempted sometimes, like Ahaz, to go through life as if he is not really present. But God has given this enduring sign that even when we're experiencing human difficulty, we're never abandoned. God is truly with us.

In today's Gospel, Matthew focuses on the person and role of Joseph who freely and willingly accepted Jesus as his son, a descendant of David. Matthew tells us that the child was from the Holy Spirit. Joseph relied on God alone and trusted in Him absolutely and spent his life in protecting his foster-son. The angel calls Joseph to action in a dream and he obeys. Through Joseph, Jesus will be of the house and lineage of David. Mary bears a son and Joseph names him to make Jesus his son and brings him into the house of David.

The first Joshua, the successor of Moses, saved the people from their enemies. The second Joshua (Jesus) will save the people from their sins.

The real event of Christmas is that God comes to change the world and each of us through the God Who is with us today, shattering our self-righteous attitudes and seeking to move us beyond our fears, freeing us from our bondages.

Like Joseph, let us trust in God, listen to Him and be faithful to him. The consoling message of Christmas, is that the child Jesus still waits today to step into our hearts and to change us and the world around us by the beauty of God's love, mercy, and compassion.

Let us put Jesus in on our list this Christmas and have a special gift for him by being a Christmas gift to others.
