NEW HORIZONS
RECONCILIATION
by: Fr. Mark Watson, Pastor

In this article I will present a short history of the Sacrament of Reconciliation followed by a message by Pope Francis on this important sacrament.

HISTORY

During his life, Jesus invited people to turn their lives from sin in order to accept the Kingdom of God and at times Jesus even forgave sin. In the early church Baptism was the one way in which sin was forgiven. From 140 AD TO 250 AD there was a growing understanding that after baptism individuals had one more chance to be forgiven. In 250 AD St. Cyprian wrote that one could be forgiven only once after Baptism and only for the sins of apostacy, murder and adultery. One who committed these serious sins entered a group called the Order of Penitents. After completing a penance given by the Bishop ones sin was forgiven.

In the 5th Century Irish missionaries brought the method of private confession from the monasteries of Ireland to continental Europe. In this system you could be forgiven as often as you confessed your sins. A Penance was received after the priest said the prayer of absolution. As early as the 8th century this was how the Sacrament of Reconciliation was celebrated throughout Europe.

Pope Pius XI felt in 1950's felt that people had lost their focus on sin. It seemed that members of the Church saw sin merely as breaking laws rather than as alienating oneself from God, others and oneself. Vatican II attempted to bring back a social understanding of sin which saw sin as hurting not only the individual but others, especially within the Church. Vatican II presented the following forms of Reconciliation: 1) Private Confession, which was celebrated as it had been before 1974, 2) the Communal Rite with Individual Confession, as we will celebrate during Lent and Advent, and 3) General Absolution, which offers absolution for a large group when there are not enough priests to offer individual confession.

POPE FRANCIS' MESSAGE

The Pope recognizes that we carry this life "in earthly vessels" meaning that we are "subject to temptation, suffering and death and, because of sin, we may lose this new life." As a result Christ offers us the healing sacraments of Reconciliation and Anointing of the Sick. The Pope states that the story of the forgiving and healing of the paralytic (Mk 2:1-12) presents the Lord Jesus as the physician of both one's soul and of body.

Since we cannot forgive our own sins, we have a need for Christ's forgiveness of sins in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. We can only be at true peace when we allow Jesus to forgive us and so to reconcile us with God the Father and with one another.

It is necessary to go to Confession to a priest of the Church since the priest represents both God and the whole community. In the Sacrament of Reconciliation, through the priest, the Church listens to the penitent and is moved by his repentance, is reconciled with the penitent, cheers him up and accompanies the penitent on the path of conversion and human and Christian growth. Some people may decide to not go to the Sacrament of Reconciliation but instead to simply tell God that he is sorry for his sins. Since our sins are committed against others and against the Church it is important to ask the pardon of the Church and of our brothers and sisters in the person of the priest.

The Pope counsels that we are to not be afraid of receiving the Sacrament of Reconciliation. After one receives the Sacrament of Reconciliation one leaves "free, grand, beautiful, forgiven, candid, happy." The Pope asked the crowd in St. Peter Square, how long had it been since they last received the Sacrament of Reconciliation. He challenged them to not lose another day before receiving the Sacrament of Reconciliation as in the sacrament they encounter the goodness of Jesus.

The Pope ended by using referring to the story of the Prodigal Son. When the Son returned home to the Father and asked for forgiveness the Father did not let him speak, he embraced him, he kissed him and he began to make merry. "But I am telling you: each time we go to confession, God embraces us. God rejoices! Let us go forward on this road. May God bless you!"

Thank you to everyone for helping lead the Rosary every weekend. This is a wonderful ministry that anyone can participate in. The Ladies Guild finishes up the month of October. Other groups that we hope will participate are K. of C., Finance Council and Choir members. Each group will be taking a month. Also, it is not just for groups, any one can participate, such as, altar servers, eucharistic ministers and parishioners, etc. The PSR group has chosen the month of Nov. Who would like to take the month of Dec?

LOVE GOD

As we near the end of the liturgical year we listen to Gospel readings from the final stage of Jesus' ministry—his teaching in Jerusalem. This Sunday Jesus is in conversation with one of the scribes of the temple. In a rare occurrence Jesus and the scribe agree on the two greatest commandments—to love God with all your being and to love your neighbor as yourself.

In today's selection from Deuteronomy Moses gives this teaching to the Israelites as the core of their life of faith and prayer, and Psalm 18 echoes this prayer with the words, "I love you, O LORD, my strength" (Psalm 18:2). Jews and Christians agree that our greatest responsibility is to love the one and only God, and that we cannot claim to love God without loving our neighbor as ourselves.

YOUTH GROUP (Hearts for Christ)

PULSE Pro-Life Immersion Camp Coushatta 2021

The prolife movement is more than simple activism based on God's world where we have to love God overall and the others like ourselves. When we arrived at the camp in Coushatta we didn't know that this camp wasn't Catholic only it was open for all other denominations, Baptist, Pentecostals and Catholics.

Prolife is not just about abortion, it is about respecting the life of every human being, from their conception until their natural death. This includes, being against abortion, against capital punishment and against euthanasia or another assisted or not assisted suicide.

The whole camp was educational and motivational to our youth and chaperones; it was very well planned with hands on activities, resources and so much fun!!!

At the end of the camp our youth: Naomi, Stormie, Bryce and Christian were very enthusiastic to be involved in this movement and defend the life of every human being but most precisely with the unborn children because they are much more vulnerable.

The youth ministry would like to thank the whole community of Sacred Heart for supporting us with the resources (shirts, fees, prayers, etc). Without all of you our kids wouldn't have the opportunity to serve in this way, THANK YOU!

Scarlett Florence and The Hearts for Christ Youth Group
