SYNOD OF BISHOPS: COMMUNION, PARTICIPATION, AND MISSION

In October 2023 the Bishops of the world will gather for their next Synod. Synods are meetings of Bishops during which they gather to reflect on and present teaching on a specific theme. The focus of this Synod will be on “synodality” which is defined as the church journeying together. This Synod will focus on the journey of the Church through the lenses of communion, participation and mission. This synod will be unique and exciting as before the bishops meet in Rome to discuss how the church journeys together the bishops will listen to the entire church. I invite you to be a part of this process.

“Synodality” means not only that the Church journeys together but that the Church listens to all of its members. Thus, we will meet together and express what we believe will make the Church more responsive to the needs of its members. The Pope is especially interested in bringing those most alienated from the Church to participate in this process.

We can better understand this process through reflecting on two documents of Vatican II. The first of these is the Dogmatic Constitution on The Church. In this document the Church is presented as the People of God that journeys together to eternal life. In the same way “synodality” is symbolic of our journeying together as a Church. The second document, the Pastoral Constitution of the Church in the Modern World begins by stating, “The joy and hope, the grief and anguish of the men of our time, especially of those who are poor or afflicted in any way, are the joy and hope, the grief and anguish of the followers of Christ as well (para. 1).” In this process the Pope wants to hear the joys and griefs of all of the Church, especially those who are afflicted and are on the margins of Church life. Being Church means listening to the joys and anguish of all members of the Church, especially those who are afflicted. We all have a responsibility to listen to one another on our journey of faith.

Pope Francis has made clear that this process is not only about planning for the upcoming Synod of Bishops but that this process is to continue in the Church. As Church we are to continue this journey of listening to one another and growing together which will lead to greater communion, participation and mission.

The diocesan phase began on Sunday, October 17, 2021 and will continue until the end of May 2022. Episcopal Conferences and synods of Oriental Churches will receive and synthesize the materials that they received. There will next be seven continental meetings for Africa, Asia, Middle East, Latin America, Europe, and North America and Oceania. These meetings will produce seven Final Documents that will be the basis of a single document which will be a working document used at the Assembly of the Synod of Bishops in October 2023.

Our parishes will have Listening Sessions during which information will be gathered and sent to Mr. Mike VanVranken, Diocesan Coordinator for this planning process. These will be meetings of discernment which will be characterized by cultural awareness, respect and fairness. Participants will focus on listening to God through listening to those who participate.

The Listening Sessions will each have two different questions. Everyone is invited to each meeting. Since a synodal Church journeys together, central questions will be, “How is this ‘journeying together’ happening in your local church? What steps does the Spirit invite us to take in order to grow in our ‘journeying together?’” During the sessions everyone will be given a chance to speak if they so desire. Meetings will be kept to a limited timeframe.

Soon I will make public the dates and times of the Listening Sessions. I invite you to be a part of this historic opportunity to communicate to the Church how it can be more responsive to your needs. May the Holy Family oversee and guide this process in our parishes and throughout the entire Church.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

The "Little Church with the Big Heart" always applies throughout the entire year

Dec. 5 — Second Sunday of Advent:

In today's Gospel John the Baptist urges us to "Prepare the way of the Lord," and this is what Advent is all about. We are called to help prepare the way of the Lord by making the real meaning of Christmas come alive in our own hearts, in our family and to reach out to those in need..

Is there a family you know who need assistance? Please call the Society of St. Vincent de Paul so that together we can help the suffering and poor to celebrate Christmas.

We will need coats soon. We are extremely low on children's coats. Any coat that is outgrown is welcome!

We badly need empty egg cartons. Our eggs come in cases; therefore, we need the cartons to fill.

Food for the month of December is soups.

MAINTENANCE/GROUNDS COMMITTEE FORMING

Sacred Heart is looking to form a Maintenance/Grounds Committee. This Committee will walk through the building/grounds of the church property and note repairs and/or maintenance items that need to be addressed and proposals on how to proceed with repairing those items.

The committee will meet quarterly and submit the items to the Finance Committee to look at cost and how to raise money if need be for the items. Judd Callicoatte and Todd Carroll have volunteered to start this committee. We are looking for people with any type of trade, i.e. electrician, plumber, construction areas, yard needs, basically people in all areas of knowledge. Please contact the church at 635-2121 or email Cathy at cflynn@sacredheartshreveport.org., if you are interested.

A BUSY MOTHER

Only after the Last Judgment will Mary get any rest; from now until then, she is much too busy with her children.
—St. John Vianney

I wish for all our families to be surrounded by loved ones, and your home be filled with love, warmth, and laughter this festive season. May the Lord bless.

With Blessings, Aga Chandler, PSR Coordinator

A DEEP CHANGE OF HEART

When John proclaimed a baptism of repentance, as today's Gospel relates, he called people to a deep change of heart. For John the Baptist, repentance was not simply regret for past failings, but a commitment to orient life around God's desires and purposes. What might living in alignment with God's desires look like? Our readings offer some clues. Baruch indicates that when mercy and justice are embraced like a royal garment, we may see the fruits of repentance. Paul notes how the Holy Spirit has been active within the church in Philippi, forming them to live in a loving and united community of faith, so they may witness to the love of God. And John himself suggests that a repentant heart clears a path for God to enter, leveling the mountains and valleys of our resistance, so that God might dwell within.

You are invited to remember your loved ones with a donation to the Christmas Memorial Flower Fund. If you use the envelope system, there is one in your November box of envelopes or you can use the envelopes from the small white basket in the Narthex of the Church. There will be a Memorial Flower Insert in the bulletin for Christmas. Please put your list of names in the envelope with your name or how you want it signed on the insert on the outside of the envelope. All envelopes need to be returned to the Church Office by Monday, December 20, 2021, so that we can have enough time to get your loved ones listed on the insert that will be in the bulletin. If you would like, you can place them in the collection basket. That is the easiest way to get them to the office. Thank You Very Much

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Second Sunday of Advent

Almighty and merciful God, may no earthly undertaking hinder those who set out in haste to meet your Son, but may our learning of heavenly wisdom gain us admittance to his company.

Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

Reflection question:

What earthly undertakings do I need to set aside so that I can set out to meet God's Son?

Please help these children (our little angels) celebrate the joy of Christmas by choosing a name off the tree and buying them their desired gifts and clothing. Write your name on the Angel log with the child's identifiable number next to it. When you return the unwrapped gift, please make sure you return the angel also. The deadline for returning your Angel Gift is Sunday, December 12th. We appreciate everything you do to help the children that need a Christmas Gift under their tree from Santa.
