New Horizons
Thanksgiving for the Blessings of God
by: Fr. Mark Watson, Pastor

The first reading and the Gospel leads us to ask the question, do we show gratitude in response to the compassion of our Lord?

Old Testament

In the first reading there is an important General of Aram, named Naaman, who has leprosy. Naaman hears that there is a prophet in Israel, Elisha, who can heal him. He therefore goes to the prophet's house. While Naaman waits outside of the house of the prophet, Elisha sends out the message that in order to be healed he must bathe seven times in the River Jordan. Naaman becomes angry because the prophet does not come out to heal him and also that the prophet asks him to bathe in the River Jordan, when he could have bathed in one of the rivers of Syria. His servants encourage him to follow the instructions of the prophet. After bathing he is healed.

Naaman goes to the prophet and tries to give him a gift but Elisha refuses. Elisha allows Naaman to take two mule-loads of earth so that he may journey back to Syria in order to worship the God of Israel. Naaman's response shows that he now believes in the God of Israel, and he will serve Yahweh in a foreign land.

In our lives do we recognize the ways that God blesses us and do those blessings lead us to constant thanksgiving?

New Testament

Leviticus says that one who had leprosy had to wear torn clothes, let his hair be unkempt, cover the lower part of his face and cry out, 'Unclean! Unclean!' As long as he has the infection he remains unclean. He must live alone; he must live outside the camp." (Lev 13:35-46).

In the story ten lepers journey together. Nine are Jewish and one is a Samaritan. Normally Jews and Samaritans did not journey together. It is their leprosy that brings them together. The Jews and Samaritans had a history of both hating and doing violence to one another.

These lepers do not cry out "Unclean, Unclean!" Instead, they cry out, "Jesus, Master! Have pity on us." (Luke 17:13). Immediately he said, "Go show yourselves to the priests." (Luke 17:14). They showed faith by leaving for the priests. As they walked to the priests they were healed.

The Samaritan recognizes that God had healed him through Jesus. He returned to Jesus. He glorified God in a loud voice on the way showing his joy. Upon reaching Jesus he fell at his feet and thanked him. Jesus recognized that he was the only one who returned. Then Jesus said, "Stand up and go; your faith has saved you." (Luke 17:19).

The Samaritan has saving faith in him coming back to Jesus and giving thanks for the healing. May we have a faith which not only recognizes Jesus' power but also that gives thanks for the ways that Christ works in our lives.

EUCCHARIST

In this Mass may we remember all of the ways that God is blessing us. Let us give thanks for the blessing of material blessings, for his saving work on our behalf, for his presence in his Word and in His Body and Blood. May we give thanks in this Mass and may our very lives be characterized by giving thanks.

THE GIFT OF SALVATION

Naaman and the leper who returned to Jesus saw God's hand in their healing. Only through God's intervention could they have been cured. Through this recognition of God's presence and action in their lives, they grew in faith. For what are you grateful? Pause for a moment to reflect on all of the blessings in your life. God is the source of these many blessings—life, love, gifts, and so much more. Of all the gifts for which we must be grateful, none is as great, or as astounding, as the gift of salvation offered to us through Jesus Christ. Let this sink in, not only in your mind but in your heart. Like Naaman and the leper who returned, allow yourself to be touched by the immense love of God for you.

We offer our prayer for peace in solidarity with the Holy Father, Pope Francis for Peace in Ukraine.

We ask for the intercession of St. Michael the Archangel the Patron Saint of Ukraine, to bring peace and hope to this nation and its people.

Lord, look down with mercy and compassion on Your humble servants, and out of love for mankind hearken and have mercy on us and on the land of Ukraine.

Lift up those who fight in defense of Ukraine and her much suffering people, outnumbered though they be.

With deep compassion and mercy enlighten and make glad the hearts of the civil authorities and strengthen them by Your might.

Choir News: The children's choir sounded amazing singing at our Pro-Life Mass.

Adult Choir practices are Tuesdays at 5:30 with a focus on choral anthems and part reading. We also practice 30 minutes before each mass to run down the songs for that day. All are welcome!

Children's Choir will meet on October 9th and Oct. 23rd after the 10:30 Mass in the Rectory. Children's Choir Members please make every effort to participate in those two rehearsals.

God has blessed those in a way that no one could of imagined. Now that abortion is illegal in Louisiana, more women are searching for options. Before Roe vs Wade was overturned, 3,000 women were having abortions in Shreveport annually. Now, what do those 3000 women in unplanned pregnancies do? They are left feeling hopeless, alone and afraid. They need the church and they need Mary's House. More than ever, they need to find hope and encouragement that they can have their precious baby.

With your donation, pregnant women can find hope, early prenatal care, and guidance at Mary's House. Donate today at maryshouse.net.
