MISSION STATEMENT

We, the parish of Sacred Heart, are committed to enriching the Spirituality of the parish family, the Christian community, and all brothers and sisters created in God's divine image and likeness. We are called by the Holy Spirit, under the leadership of our Bishop and Pastor, to assist others through the development and promotion of various ministries. We pray for Divine guidance that we may serve others with truth, courage, forethought and compassion.
Parish Council 1998

BAPTISM: Call the office three months prior to anticipated birth to schedule a preparation class after which a Baptism date can be scheduled.

New Horizons
The Resurrection of the Dead
By: Fr. Mark Watson, Pastor

The first reading is taken from the Second Book of Maccabees which was written 150 years before the birth of Jesus. When this book was written the Jewish people in some areas were beginning to believe in the resurrection of the dead.

Today's reading takes place during the reign of the Seleucid King Antiochus Epiphanes IV (175-164 BCE). In the reading seven sons and their mother are being tortured for not being willing to give up their Jewish faith. Each of these martyrs die for being unwilling to eat pork. The brothers and their mother die with hope in the resurrection of the dead which will bring abundant life. They believe that after death God will raise up their bodies. They recognize that God is more powerful than the king Antiochus Epiphanes IV.

The heroic testimony of these martyrs leads us to question whether we truly believe in the resurrection as the destiny of our lives.

Gospel

In today's Gospel the Sadducees do not believe the dead will rise to new life and thus they try to prove that resurrection from the dead is foolishness. They use the example of levirate marriage. In this marriage if the husband died without his wife having a child, she had to marry his brother. In the story a wife does not have children with her initial husband and six of his brothers. She finally dies. The Sadducees' ask, whose wife will she be in eternal life? Jesus says that God gives life in creation and continues to sustain life past one's life in this world. God has ordered life to continue forever.

Jesus does not give us details about the resurrection. He tells us that the resurrection is a reality and those that rise will be "children of God." Jesus ends by making the point that God is a God of the living and not of the dead and that this was shown when Moses referred to God as the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob at the burning bush.

We are to trust in the love of God as St. Paul writes, "For I am convinced that neither death nor life...will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord" (Romans 8:38-39).

The Resurrection of the Dead

We believe that Jesus died and rose from the dead. Just as the body of Jesus was radically transformed so will our bodies be radically transformed. The resurrection of Jesus means that Christ is alive and lives among us. The resurrection of Jesus inaugurates the end time that brings God's judgement and promised salvation. Already we have begun to live in this new age.

In each Eucharist we not only remember the death and resurrection of our risen Lord but we receive the risen Christ in his Word, in our worship as a church community, in the priest and in the reception of his Body and Blood. As well in the Eucharist we experience the eternal heavenly liturgy and we pray for the final coming of our risen Lord. As we celebrate the Eucharist we have faith in the risen Christ and are strengthened as we journey to eternal life.

May our lives show forth the risen Christ who truly lives in us. Certainly, the best proof of the resurrection is the faith of the Christian community. Like the members of the early Church, we are called to bring the good news of the resurrection to the ends of the earth. May our lives not only proclaim the resurrection but may we have confidence that the world is moving to final eternal salvation as a result of Jesus' resurrection. May we always be filled with Easter joy!!!

A Note From Mary's House:

Dear Sacred Heart Parishioners,
Thank you so very much for the donations of clothes, blankets and baby items - even the donation of money. Every bit helps us help the young women who come to Mary's House because they are in an unplanned pregnancy.

Thank you for caring, for supporting and showing love to these young moms.

God bless you for your generosity!

L'Anne Sciba, Executive Director

ETERNAL LIFE

What happens after we die? Most religions and philosophies provide some notion of this, but we are confounded by the mystery of it all. Today's readings give us a glimpse through the faith of martyrs and in the words of Jesus. In the Old Testament reading, the Maccabee brothers assert with total confidence that the God who gave them life would also raise them to eternal life. This was not universally accepted in ancient Israel. The Sadducees, who denied any resurrection of the dead, try to trap Jesus with a hypothetical riddle. Jesus, known for turning such things around, dismisses their unbelief, noting that even Moses knew that all are alive in God. Saint Paul tells the Thessalonians that we live in everlasting encouragement and hope, and Psalm 17 echoes this with words of faith that we will see God's face, waking in God's loving presence.

VOCATION CORNER

November 06, 2022

For an increase in vocations to the priesthood and consecrated life, that young people will be open to God's call in their lives, and respond generously to give their lives to Him in the service of the Church, we pray to the Lord.

"May the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God." Are you being called to love the Lord with an undivided heart as a priest, deacon or in the consecrated life? Contact the Vocation Office at 318-868-4441 or email: Father-Mangum@yahoo.com.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The King of the world will raise us up to live again forever (2 Maccabees 7:1-2, 9-14).

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Almighty and merciful God,
graciously keep from us all adversity,
so that, unhindered in mind and body alike,
we may pursue in freedom of heart
the things that are yours.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever

GRIEF SUPPORT GROUP MEETINGS

The November meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, November 15th with a new time of 4 - 5 pm. The following meetings will be the first Tuesday of each month at the 4 - 5 pm time frame. All meetings will be held in the Rectory. If you or someone you know has experienced a loss, please join us.

HOLY LAND PILGRIMAGE INFORMATION SESSION

You are invited to participate in a pilgrimage to the Holy Land. Holy sites will include the Sea of Galilee, Cana in Galilee, Nazareth, the Mount of the Transfiguration, the Mount of the Beatitudes, Calvary and the Tomb of Christ, Bethany and Bethlehem. An Information Session about the pilgrimage will be held Monday, November 14 at 6:00 pm in Vandegaer Hall of St. Mary of the Pines. In addition, you can contact Fr. Mark Watson at (318) 687-5121 to learn more about the pilgrimage.

In November, we want to recognize those that have passed. Please bring a photo of your loved one to place on the Table of Remembrance located in the church. The Book of the Names of the Dead is located in the Narthex, please write down the names of your deceased loved ones in this book for our prayers all month long.

TRUNK-OR-TREAT

Big thank you to all who participated in last weeks Trunk-or-Treat especially to those who helped set up and clean up the picnic area, to our Pastoral Council members for their support and involvement in cooking and serving the food, and to all the parents and volunteers who were passing out candy. Thank you to all the parishioners who donated candy and supported us financially and in prayer. The children didn't disappoint and showcased their best costumes!

Congratulations to our costume contest winners:

- ♦ Most Original Costume - Karolyn Clark dressed up as Michael Jackson
- ♦ Funniest Costume - Joe Callicoatte dressed up as Tiger
- ♦ Best Costume Overall - Skhyla Arcamo dressed up as Taco

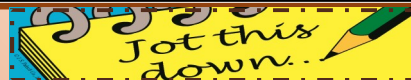

The children admired all the decorated vehicles and selected:

the McIntyre Family's car as the Most Creative Trunk
Mr. Richard Guzman's car as the Best Decorated Trunk. Congratulations to all our winners!

CATECHIST'S THANKSGIVING LUNCHEON

All Catechists and Substitute Teachers are invited to Thanksgiving Luncheon on November 20th at 12:00 pm. Teachers, you are the backbone of Parish School of Religion. You put countless volunteer hours evangelizing all our youth. Please join me for this appreciation event where we will share food, fellowship, and friendship. With Blessings,

Aga Chandler, PSR Coordinator

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

The "Little Church with the Big Heart" always applies throughout the entire year

November 06: Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's Gospel we find that God is a God of the living, and this is indeed the core of our hope. Jesus has risen and is with us, therefore, at no time should we be without hope for the future.

When you give the furniture, household items and clothing you no longer use to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, you give hope to your neighbors who have nothing.

SVDP THANKSGIVING FOOD BAGS

Thanksgiving bags are being handed out each weekend until the final day to turn them back in (Sunday, Nov. 13, 2022). Our families would not be enjoying a Thanksgiving meal this year if it weren't for your help. Please return your bag as soon as you can to the Narthex of the Church. Thank you for your support of our families in need and your continued support through your donations to the Poor Box located in the Narthex.

Reflection question:

How does adversity hinder me from pursuing the things of God?

Children's Choir will meet on Nov. 6th and Nov. 13th after the 10:30 Mass in Gabriel Hall. Children are practicing playing bells for Youth Sunday (Dec. 4th). It is crucial for all our Children Choir members to participate in rehearsals in order to perform with bells.

Adult Choir practices are Tuesdays at 5:30 with a focus on choral anthems and part reading. We also practice 30 minutes before each mass to run down the songs for that day. All are welcome!
