Mark your calendars for Oct. 29th to participate in Our Annual Trunk or Treat Event. Vehicle line up will begin before morning Mass (around 10:00 am) and the event will run from 11:30 until 2:00 pm. You do not have to decorate your trunk to participate, however the best decorated trunk and the most creative trunk will be chosen by the children to win a prize. There will also be food, games, costume contests, cornhole tournament and silent auction! We are planning to have—fun rain or shine.

Children remember to bring your costumes and change AFTER the mass. Invite your friends and families to join us for this SWEET event.
*** If you would rather skip Trunk-or-Treat but would like to show support to PSR events, feel free to donate peanut-free candy and small prizes to the Halloween Baskets in the Narthex of the church and in Gabriel Hall. Those donations will be used as prizes for games and contests. Thank you for your continuous prayers and support of Parish School of Religion.

NEW HORIZONS:
THE MEANING OF THE FUNERAL LITURGY
By: Fr. Mark Watson, Pastor

From the beginning of Christianity our central truth has been that through the death and resurrection of our Lord, believers can have hope in also rising to eternal life. Given the importance of that mystery I have decided to dedicate this article to the liturgical services that we celebrate for those who die.

We enter into this hope for eternal life through the Sacrament of Baptism. In the waters of Baptism, we die to sin, in imitation of Jesus' death, and we rise to new life, as God brought Jesus back from the dead. The new life that we receive in Baptism gives us the hope of one day rising from the dead. As a result of Baptism, believers already walk in newness of life, which means that we already experience a new life which looks ahead to heavenly glory.

In the Eucharist the faith of the baptized is renewed and nourished. Christ strengthens us through the Eucharist as we journey to eternal life. For those who receive Eucharist in faith Jesus promises that He will raise us up on the Last Day.

We are members of the Body of Christ. When another member of the Body suffers, we are to suffer with them. Therefore, when a community member loses a loved one, we are to suffer with, pray for and console that community member. The meals that are held after funerals at Sacred Heart and St. Mary of the Pines show this compassion, which is to be an important aspect of our faith.

“Since in Baptism the body was marked with the seal of the Holy Spirit and became the temple of the Holy Spirit, Christians’ respect and honor the bodies of the dead and the places where they rest (Order of Christian Funerals, para. 19).” It is the Christian practice to bury or entomb the bodies of the dead. Cremation is accepted as long as it is not chosen for anti-Christian motives or with an intention contrary to Christian teaching, especially against the Resurrection of the dead. Cremains are to be buried or entered in a mausoleum. They may not be sprinkled, placed in jewelry or kept in one’s home.

The following are the symbols of a funeral and their meaning. “The Paschal Candle reminds the faithful of Christ’s undying presence among them, of his victory over sin and death, and of their share in that victory (Order of Christian Funerals, para. 35).” Holy water is symbolic of the waters of Baptism. Incense is symbolic both of the honor of the body of the deceased and the prayers of the faithful rising to heaven. The pall represents the baptismal garment of the deceased and the Christian dignity of the deceased, and that all are equal in the eyes of God. The liturgical colors for funerals in the USA are white, violet and black and each represents Christian hope.

Funerals remind us that Christ died and rose that we might have eternal life. In funerals we celebrate the life of the individual but much more the power of Christ’s death and resurrection which allow us to believe that our loved ones and one day ourselves will one day live forever.

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time The Diamond Rule

When I hear the line from the first reading about not molesting or oppressing an alien, I think of the movie E.T., in which the children help the extraterrestrial just because he needs help. What the reading calls aliens are immigrants or newcomers. They lived among the Hebrews but were not Jews themselves. The Lord reminds the people that they were once aliens themselves. They should not make the same mistake the Egyptians did when they mistreated the Israelites. God uses the same logic in commanding them to take care of widows and orphans. Treat them like family, or else your own wives and children will be in the same situation. Immigrants, widows, orphans, borrowers—all must be treated with compassion.

The reason for such compassion should be deeper than just fear of punishment. "Do to others as you would have them do to you," Jesus said (Luke 6:31). Today's Gospel has a similar saying: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself" (Matthew 22:39). Jesus called this the second commandment. The first is to love God wholly and completely, heart, mind, and soul. If the second commandment is the Golden Rule, the first might be called the Diamond Rule. If you think about it, in order to keep the first commandment, you have to be keeping the second as well.

Jesus said that whatever you do for the poor, the homeless, the sick, or prisoners, you do for him (Matthew 25:31-46). Mother Teresa could see Jesus in the poorest of the poor. Jesus himself showed compassion even to sinners. We can't really say we love God if we don't love the people God created.

So that gives us two reasons to love our neighbor. First, because God lives in other people, so loving God means loving God wherever God is found. Second, God loves them, so if we are to be holy, we must be like God. What does that mean? Remember the saying that "charity begins at home"? That is only true because it is easier to love family and friends, but charity doesn't end there. If we truly love God, we will extend our charity to those outside our homes. People are probably still rebuilding after the earthquakes in Japan, tornadoes in America, floods in India, and other disasters, and every city has some kind of homeless shelters. You say you love God? Let's see you love your neighbor. Tom Schmidt

The "Little Church with the Big Heart" always applies throughout the entire year

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time:

In this Sunday's Gospel we find the truth that loving God isn't merely a matter of fervor in our hearts, but that it must be expressed in doing good for the sake of others.

Through your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul you are helping your neighbor who is hungry, hopeless and frightened to know that they belong to God.

Is there a neighbor or friend of yours who is in temporary need because of a loss of a job or an illness? Please leave a message for the Society of St. Vincent de Paul...we want to help!
