Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reflecting on God's Word

"Live and let live." "Mind your own business." "Leave well enough alone." "It's not your problem." "Don't get involved." So goes the wisdom of the world, the law of the jungle. One of these sayings may come to mind when you see a car accident, a bum on the sidewalk, a competitor going bankrupt, a parent slapping a child, a teenage prostitute, a news story about illegal immigrants being deported.

We who have received the love of Christ are to live by a different law. It is "very near to you . . . in your hearts; you have only to carry it out" (Deuteronomy 30:14). We are to live in Christ's love and let our neighbor experience that same life-giving love. And yet, like the "scholar of the law" in today's Gospel, we always try to define who is—or more precisely, who isn't—our neighbor. There's no escaping the message of this Gospel passage. Everyone we fear or despise, every victim, every outsider, every undeserving soul whom God loves, we are to "go and do likewise."

Reflexionemos sobre la palabra de Dios

"Vive y deja vivir". "No te metas en lo que no te importa". "Deja eso tranquilo". "Eso no es cosa tuya". "Ni te metas en eso". Así es la sabiduría del mundo, la ley de la selva. Uno de estos dichos nos pueden venir a la mente al ver un accidente de tráfico, un vagabundo en nuestras calles, un competidor que se va bancarrota, un padre o una madre pegándole a su hijo o hija, una adolescente prostituta o una noticia acerca de la deportación de inmigrantes indocumentados.

Nosotros, que hemos recibido el amor de Cristo, debemos vivir bajo una ley diferente. "Está muy cerca de ti. . . en tu corazón, para que la cumplas" (Deuteronomio 30:14). Debemos vivir en el amor de Cristo y permitir que nuestro prójimo también pueda experimentar ese amor vivificante. Y sin embargo, así como el "experto en la ley" en el Evangelio de hoy, nosotros siempre estamos tratando de definir quién es —o más precisamente, quién no es— nuestro prójimo. No podemos escaparnos del mensaje de este Evangelio. A todos los que tememos o despreciamos, a todas las víctimas, a los intrusos, en fin a todos los indignos, Dios así y todo los ama, y nosotros debemos escuchar las palabras de Jesús:

"Haz tú lo mismo".

Decimoquinto Domingo de Tiempo Ordinario

Prayer for Vocations

O loving and gracious God, Father of all, you bless your people in every time and season and provide for their needs through your providential care.

Your Church is continually in need of priests, sisters and brothers to offer themselves in the service of the gospel by lives of dedicated love. Open the hearts of your sons and daughters to listen to your call in their lives.

Give them the gift of understanding to discern your invitation to serve you and your Church. Give them the gift of courage to follow your call. May they have the spirit of young Samuel who found fulfillment in his life when he said to you, "Speak Lord, for your servant is listening." We ask this through Jesus Christ, our Lord and Redeemer.

Amen.

Oración para las Vocaciones

Oh Dios amoroso y misericordioso, Padre de todos, tú bendices a tu pueblo en cada tiempo y momento y provees sus necesidades a través de tu cuidado providencial.

Tu Iglesia continuamente se encuentra en necesidad de sacerdotes, hermanas y hermanos, que se ofrezcan a si mismos con vidas de amor dedicado al servicio del Evangelio. Abre los corazones de tus hijos e hijas para que escuchen tu llamado en sus vidas.

Dales el don del entendimiento para discernir tu invitación de servirte a ti y a tu Iglesia.

Dales el don de la valentía para seguir tu llamado.

Que puedan tener el espíritu del joven Samuel que encontró plenitud en su vida cuando te dijo:

"Habla que tu siervo escucha."

Te pedimos esto por Jesucristo, nuestro Señor y Redentor.

Amén.
