THE APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God,
the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into death,
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge
the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

DID YOU KNOW?

Points of interest and Catholic lore

- * In the gospels, Jesus often refers to himself as the Son of Man, a mysterious expression that both reveals and conceals his identity. It is a term that comes from the Book of Daniel.
- * The festival referred to here was the Passover (John 12:1). Observant Jews who were able to came from far and wide to celebrate this great festival at the temple in Jerusalem. The city was overflowing with pilgrims from many lands and regions.

If we think we don't need God who reaches out to us through Christ because we believe we can make do on our own, we are headed for a fall. God alone can truly save and free us.

FIRST READING: Jeremiah 31:31-34

A reading from the book of the prophet Jeremiah.

The days are surely coming, says the Lord,
when I will make a new covenant with the House of Israel and the House of Judah.
It will not be like the covenant that I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt—
a covenant that they broke,
though I was their husband,
says the Lord.
But this is the covenant
that I will make with the House of Israel
after those days,
says the Lord:
I will put my law within them,
and I will write it on their hearts;
and I will be their God and they shall be my people.
No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, 'Know the Lord,'
for they shall all know me,
from the least of them to the greatest, says the Lord;
for I will forgive their iniquity,
and remember their sin no more.

The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps 51:1-2, 10-11, 12-13

R. Create a clean heart in me, O God.

Have mercy on me, O God,
according to your steadfast love;
according to your abundant mercy
blot out my transgressions.
Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity,
and cleanse me from my sin.

Create in me a clean heart, O God,
and put a new and right spirit within me.
Do not cast me away from your presence,
and do not take your holy spirit from me.

Restore to me the joy of your salvation,
and sustain in me a willing spirit.
Then I will teach transgressors your ways,
and sinners will return to you.

R. Create a clean heart in me, O God.

SECOND READING: Hebrews 5:7-9

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews.

In the days of his flesh,
Jesus offered up prayers and supplications,
with loud cries and tears,
to the one who was able to save him from death,
and he was heard
because of his reverent submission.
Although he was a Son,
he learned obedience through what he suffered;
and having been made perfect,
he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him.

The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Glory to you, Word of God, Lord Jesus Christ!
If you serve me, follow me, says the Lord;
and where I am, my servant will also be.
Glory to you, Word of God, Lord Jesus Christ!

GOSPEL: John 12:20-33

If a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it bears much fruit.
