REFLECTION

by Fr Michael Tate

Dawn has Broken – The Son is Risen

Women go to the tomb as dawn is breaking. The Power of Darkness which had Jesus unjustly sentenced, cruelly tortured and buried in the pitch blackness of the tomb, is conquered by the Son-Rise of all sun rises flooding our world and the whole of human history with Divine Light and Energy.

This is the heart of our faith as Catholic Christians, which we celebrate with bon-fire (good fire) in darkness at the Easter Vigil. From that earthly element we light the Easter candle and the Exsultet is sung: 'Be glad, let earth be glad as glory floods her, ablaze with light from her eternal King.'

The resurrection itself is nowhere described in the gospels, but we do have appearances of the Risen Lord Jesus. The first appearance was to a woman, Mary of Magdala. A title given to her by the early church was 'Apostle to the Apostles' because she was the bearer of the message which the male disciples initially did not believe. But eventually they too believed that Death had been done to death because the Son had risen.

Christ's body was transfigured by the energy of Divine Love and we can, by grace, participate in that resurrection life of Our Lord. A glorious destiny awaits us, as indeed it awaits the whole cosmos as it is to be transformed by that resurrection life recreating the whole of creation.

We could take a moment to pray that we, along with all that matters, are graced with the life-giving energy of the Risen Son and that we may join Mary of Magdala in spreading the Good News of Christ's victory over death. Alleluia!

DID YOU KNOW?

Points of interest and Catholic lore

- * The Easter Triduum (which means 'three days'), lasting from Holy Thursday evening to Easter Sunday evening, is the climax of the Church's year.
- * Holy Thursday is sometimes known as Maundy Thursday, a corruption of the Latin word for 'commandment', mandatum. This is to commemorate the 'new commandment' that Jesus gave his followers at the Last Supper: love one another as I have loved you.
- * The stories of the Passion, death and resurrection of Jesus were the earliest stories told and later recorded by the early church. The commemoration of the events of the Triduum is the earliest of Church celebrations, when the first Christians gathered to break bread together.
- * Good Friday and Easter Saturday are the only days of the year on which Mass is not celebrated.
- * The women come to the tomb to anoint the body of Jesus early on Sunday morning because it is the first chance they have to do so. The Jewish Sabbath begins at sunset on Friday and ends at sunset on Saturday. During this time no 'work' can be done, so the women must wait until dawn on the first day of the week.

FIRST READING: Acts 10:34a, 36-43

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

Peter began to speak to those assembled in the house of Cornelius.
You know the message God sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ—he is Lord of all.
That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced:
how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power;
how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him.
We are witnesses of all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem.
They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allow him to appear, not to all the people, but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead.
He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead.
All the prophets testify about him, that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.”

The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps 118:1-2, 16-17, 22-23

R. *This is the day the Lord has made;
let us rejoice and be glad.*

O give thanks to the Lord, for he is good;
his steadfast love endures forever.
Let Israel say,
“His steadfast love endures forever.”

“The right hand of the Lord is exalted;
the right hand of the Lord does valiantly.”
I shall not die, but I shall live,
and recount the deeds of the Lord.

The stone that the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone.
This is the Lord’s doing,
it is marvellous in our eyes.

R. *This is the day the Lord has made;
let us rejoice and be glad.*

SECOND READING: Colossians 3:1-4

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Colossians.

If then you been raised with Christ,
seek the things that are above,
where Christ is seated at the right hand of God.
Set your minds on things that are above,
not on things that are on earth,
for you have died,
and your life is hidden with Christ in God.
When Christ who is your life is revealed,
then you also will be revealed with him in glory.

The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

Alleluia, alleluia
Christ has become our paschal sacrifice;
let us feast with joy in the Lord.
Alleluia.

GOSPEL: John 20:1-9

According to the scripture: Jesus must rise from the dead.
