OUR VISION

Our Parish leads and supports all members on their journey of faith.

OUR MISSION

We welcome and engage everyone in our faith community at Holy Saviour so that all may feel at home.
We provide opportunities for people to encounter God through liturgy and community.
We actively live God's message of love and justice in a way that is relevant for today.

PARISH PRIEST

PARISH PRAYER

God of all creation, may your Spirit inspire us to do your will. Bless us in your service, strengthen us in our support of each other. Unite us as we grow in faith and love, to be a welcoming, caring community, enabling all to flourish, especially our children and the most vulnerable.
This we pray in the name of our Holy Saviour, Jesus Christ, the Lord. Amen.

SUNDAY 25TH APRIL 2021—FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER-YEAR B

ANNIVERSARIES: Sheelah Abbott, Peter Buss, Peter Lannan, Ray Cromie, Phyllis Kreymborg, Norma Quixley, John & Carmen Robbins, Grace Watson, Catherine Ostojic

PRAYERS FOR THE SICK: Sharon Dobson, Quinn Chong, Pat Young, Lil Flanigan, Marianne Peters, Jack Styling, Jill Clarke, Rita Eversteyn, Lily Rose

GOOD SHEPHERD SUNDAY

Today is the World Day of Vocations.
Pope Francis tells us:

There can be no greater joy than to risk one's life for the Lord! I would like to say this especially to you, the young. Do not be deaf to the Lord's call. If he calls you to follow this path, do not pull your oars into the boat, but trust him.

Let us pray for the young people in our community, and in our families and circle of friends. May our prayers help them to be open to the Lord's call to consecrated life or priesthood.

ANZAC DAY

To lay down one's life for another is the ultimate act of love and sacrifice. It has been 106 years since the ANZAC troops first landed on Turkey's Gallipoli Peninsula at around dawn, barely nine months after the outbreak of World War 1.

We remember and pray for the souls of the courageous young men who sacrificed their lives for the freedoms we enjoy today. We acknowledge that these men paid the ultimate price in laying down their lives for us. Jesus says, no one takes his life from him, but he lays it down of his own accord.

What are we willing to sacrifice, freely? Of course, we pray there is no need for further warfare and loss of life, but perhaps there are other ways that we are invited to 'die' freely, in order to draw closer to God. What sacrifices do I need to make for the greater good, and to be living example of God's love in the world?

ATTENTION: LECTORS

Last year we began a training programme for new Lectors but, due to COVID-19 restrictions, only one of the two sessions was completed.

We are now able to resume training.

Assuming those who completed last year's first session will require a refresher, we will again be offering two training sessions. Each session lasts about 90 minutes, with some reading in-between.

All interested, including those who attended last year's first session, should contact David or Shirley Wood so that suitable dates and times can be arranged.

HALL CLEANING

A couple of our hall cleaning teams is down to one or two people. We'd love a few people to volunteer to join those teams and make the job much easier.

The time and physical commitment is not great, you will only be rostered on 2 to 3 times a year for an hour or so on a Saturday morning.

If you can help or have enquiries, please phone Robert 0402 209 028

EXTRAORDINARY MINISTERS OF THE EUCHARIST

Anyone interested in becoming an Extraordinary Minister of Eucharist for the 6.00pm mass (training will be provided), please contact Fr Julian

(Current Working with Children Checks are mandatory for all those volunteering in Parish Ministries)

HUMOUR:

The religion class was preparing for the sacrament of reconciliation. The teacher finally asked, "And what must we do before our sins can be forgiven?"

"That's easy," piped Little Jonnie from the back of the room. "First, we have to sin."

FIRST READING: Acts 4:7-12

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

While Peter and John were speaking to the people about the resurrection of Jesus, the captain of the temple arrested them and place them in custody. The next day the rulers, elders and scribes assembled. When they had made the prisoners stand in their midst, they inquired, 'By what power or by what name did you do this?' Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, 'Rulers of the people and elders, if we are questioned today because of a good deed done to someone who was sick and are asked how this man has been healed, let it be known to all of you, and to all the people of Israel, that this man is standing before you in good health by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead. "This Jesus is 'the stone that was rejected by you, the builders, it has become the cornerstone.' There is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among mortals by which we must be saved.

The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps 118.1+809, 21-23, 26+28-29

R.     *The stone rejected by the builders
has become the cornerstone.*

O give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, his steadfast love endures forever. It is better to take refuge in the Lord than to put confidence in mortals. It is better to take refuge in the Lord than to put confidence in princes.

I thank you that you have answered me and have become my salvation. The stone that the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone. That is the Lord's doing; it is marvellous in our eyes.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. We bless you from the house of the Lord. You are my God, and I will give thanks to you; you are my God, I will extol you. O give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; for his steadfast love endures forever.

R.     *The stone rejected by the builders
has become the cornerstone.*

SECOND READING: 1 John 3.1-2

A reading from the first letter of John.

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. We do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is.

The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, Alleluia
I am the good shepherd, says the Lord;
I know my sheep, and mine know me.
Alleluia.

GOSPEL: John 10.11-18

The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep.
