Spreading the Gospel means that we are the first to proclaim and live the
reconciliation, forgiveness, peace, unity, and love which the Holy Spirit gives us. Let us remember Jesus' words: "By this all men will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another" (John 13:35).

FIRST READING: Acts 9:26-31

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

When Saul had come to Jerusalem
he attempted to join the disciples,
but they were all afraid of him,
for they did not believe that he was a disciple.
But Barnabas took him,
brought him to the apostles,
and described for them
how on the road he had seen the Lord,
who had spoken to him,
and how in Damascus Saul had spoken boldly in the name of Jesus.
So Saul went in and out among them in Jerusalem,
speaking boldly in the name of the Lord.
He spoke and argued with the Hellenists,
but they were attempting to kill him.
When the believers learned of it,
they brought Saul down to Caesarea
and sent him off to Tarsus.
Meanwhile the church throughout Judea, Galilee, and Samaria had peace and was built up.
Living in the fear of the Lord
and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, it increased in numbers.

The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps 22:25-26, 27+29, 30-31

R. *I will praise you, Lord,
in the assembly of your people.

My vows I will pay before those who fear him.
The poor shall eat and be satisfied;
those who seek him shall praise the Lord.
May your hearts live forever.

All the ends of the earth
shall remember and turn to the Lord;
and all the families of the nations
shall worship before him.
To him, indeed,
shall all who sleep in the earth bow down;
before him shall bow all who go down to the dust.

I shall live for him and posterity will serve him.
Future generations will be told about the Lord,
and proclaim his deliverance to a people yet unborn,
saying that he has done it.

R. *I will praise you, Lord,
in the assembly of your people.

SECOND READING: 1 John 3:18-24

A reading from the first letter of John.

Little children, let us love,
not in word or speech,
but in truth and action.
And by this we will know that we are from the truth and will reassure our hearts before him whenever our hearts condemn us,
for God is greater than our hearts,
and God knows everything.
Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us,
we have boldness before God;
and we receive from him whatever we ask,
because we obey his commandments
and do what pleases God.
And this is God's commandment,
that we should believe in the name of his Son
Jesus Christ,
and love one another,
just as he has commanded us.
All who obey his commandments abide in him,
and he abides in them.
And by this we know that he abides in us
by the Spirit that he has given us.

The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, Alleluia
Live in me and let me live in you, says the Lord;
my branches bear much fruit.
Alleluia.

GOSPEL: John 15:1-8

Those who abide in me, and I in them, bear much fruit.
