Popular piety highly values symbols, and the heart of Jesus is the ultimate symbol of God's mercy. But it is not an imaginary symbol; it is a real symbol which represents the centre, the source from which salvation flowed for all of humanity.

DID YOU KNOW?

Points of interest and Catholic lore

- * These final verses of Mark's Gospel were a later addition to the original ending of the women at the empty tomb. They show that from the earliest of times, the disciples realised that although Jesus was no longer physically present, 'the Lord was working with them.'
- * The word apostle comes from the Greek for 'one who is sent out'.
- * Mark uses the dramatic figures of speech about serpents and poisons to illustrate that those who believe in the Good News and preach it can overcome all that threatens or destroys life.
- * All the baptised share in this missionary task of the Church: to go out to proclaim the Good News 'to all creation'. Popes John Paul II, Benedict XVI and Francis have all called on Christians to be bringers of good news to creation. We must be stewards of the earth and all its resources to ensure that future generations inherit an environment that God gifted to all humanity.

The Summit

HUMOUR:

The older a man gets, the more ways he learns to part his hair. Some men pull what little bit of hair they have around on their head to cover their baldness.

However, as a man gets even older, he realizes there are basically only three ways to wear his hair: parted, unparted, and departed.

FIRST READING: Acts 1:1-11

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

In the first book, Theophilus,
I wrote about all that Jesus did and taught
from the beginning
until the day when he was taken up to heaven,
after giving instructions through the Holy Spirit
to the apostles whom he had chosen.
After his suffering he presented himself alive to them
by many convincing proofs,
appearing to them during forty days
and speaking about the kingdom of God.
While staying with them,
he ordered them not to leave Jerusalem,
but to wait for the promise of the Father
“This,” he said, “is what you have heard from me;
for John baptized with water,
but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit
not many days from now.”
So when they had come together, they asked him, “Lord, is this the time
when you will restore the kingdom to Israel?”
He replied, “It is not for you to know the times or periods that the Father has set by his own authority.
But you will receive power
when the Holy Spirit has come upon you;
and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem,
in all Judea and Samaria,
and to the ends of the earth.”
When he had said this, as they were watching,
he was lifted up,
and a cloud took him out of their sight.
While he was going
and they were gazing up toward heaven,
suddenly two men in white robes stood by them.
They said, “Men of Galilee,
why do you stand looking up toward heaven?
This Jesus, who has been taken up from you
into heaven,
will come in the same way
as you saw him go into heaven.”

The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps 47:1-2, 5-6, 7-8

R.     *God mounts the throne to shouts of joy:
a blare of trumpets for the Lord.*

Clap your hands, all you peoples;
shout to God with loud songs of joy.
For the Lord, the Most High, is awesome,
a great king over all the earth.

God has gone up with a shout;
the Lord with the sound of a trumpet.
Sing praises to God, sing praises;
sing praises to our king, sing praises.

For God is the king of all the earth;
sing praises with a psalm.
God is king over the nations,
God sits on his holy throne.

R.     *God mounts the throne to shouts of joy:
a blare of trumpets for the Lord.*

SECOND READING: Ephesians 4:1-7, 11-13

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Ephesians.

I, the prisoner in the Lord,
beg you to lead a life worthy of the calling
to which you have been called,
with all humility and gentleness, with patience,
bearing with one another in love,
making every effort to maintain the unity of the Spirit
in the bond of peace.
There is one body and one Spirit,
just as you were called to the one hope
of your calling; one Lord, one faith, one baptism;
one God and Father of all,
who is above all and through all and in all.
But each of us was given grace
according to the measure of Christ's gift.
The gifts he gave were that some would be apostles,
some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers, to equip the saints for the work of ministry,
for building up the body of Christ,
until all of us come to the unity of the faith
and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to maturity, to the measure of the full stature of Christ.

The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, Alleluia
Go and teach all people my gospel.
I am with you always, until the end of the world.
Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Mark 16:15-20

The Lord Jesus was taken up into heaven and sat down at the right hand of God.
