HUMOUR

A priest was giving a lesson on the 23rd Psalm to a group of children. He noticed that Little Johnny seemed upset by the verse, "Surely, goodness and mercy will follow me all the days of my life."
"What's wrong, Johnny?" the priest asked.
"Well," replied Little Johnny, "I'm not worried about goodness and mercy, but I'm not sure I'd like Shirley following me around all the time."

Dear Parishioners,

Unfortunately, due to lockdown we have not been able to come together for three weeks, thus I have not been able to bring you up to date on some changes.

Over recent times, I have been in discussion with my doctors and the Archbishop, and it has been decided that I will be retiring from full time ministry as of the 11th of July 2021.

I am aware that for some of you this will come as a big surprise and even a shock, but I believe this is the right decision for me at this time. Not unlike Buckley, the time is right!! This decision has not been an easy one for me to make nor accept, but my health and wellbeing must come first.

Although this will take place in approximately a month, I had hope to inform you all personally at Mass. As this has not been possible (due to the lockdown), the parish newsletter is the only means of letting you know at this stage. I thank you for your understanding and hope that you will continue to pray for me in my next stage of life.

Fr Julian

'Mindfulness & Meditation' (via ZOOM), Saturday 19 June 2021, 10am-3pm (AEST)

When we are present to the 'now', centredness and relaxation become a natural part of life, and we know how to act from a heart of love. This is a day of reflection in the practice of Mindfulness & Meditation, and we invite you to come prepared to be still and journey within.

Facilitated by Paola Cheng. Cost $50. Book and pay via website: www.heartoflife.melbourne or email: info@heartoflife.melbourne

The primary reason for evangelizing is the love of Jesus which we have received, the experience of salvation which urges us to ever greater love of him. What kind of love would not feel the need to speak of the beloved, to point him out, to make him known?

Pope Francis

FIRST READING: Ezekiel 17.22-24

A reading from the book of the prophet Ezekiel.

Thus says the Lord God:
 I myself will take a sprig from the lofty top of a cedar,
 I will set it out,
 I will break off a tender one from the topmost of its young twigs;
 I myself will plant it
 on a high and lofty mountain.
 On the mountain height of Israel
 I will plant it.
 In order that it may produce boughs and bear fruit,
 and become a noble cedar.
 Under it every kind of bird will live, in the shade of its branches will nest
 winged creatures of every kind.
 All the trees of the field shall know that I am the Lord.
 I bring low the high tree,
 I make high the low tree,
 I dry up the green tree
 and make the dry tree flourish.
 I the Lord have spoken,
 I will accomplish it.

The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps 92.1-2, 12-13, 14-15

R. Lord, it is good to give thanks to you.

It is good to give thanks to the Lord,
 to sing praises to your name, O Most High,
 to declare your steadfast love in the morning,
 and your faithfulness by night.

The righteous flourish like the palm tree,
 and grow like a cedar of Lebanon.
 They are planted in the house of the Lord;
 they flourish in the courts of our God.

In old age they still produce fruit;
 they are always green and full of sap,
 showing that the Lord is upright,
 he is my rock,
 and there is no unrighteousness in him.

R. Lord, it is good to give thanks to you.

SECOND READING: 2 Corinthians 5.6-10

A reading from the second letter of Paul to the Corinthians.

Brothers and sisters,
 we are always confident,
 even though we know that while we are at home
 in the body
 we are away from the Lord,
 for we walk by faith, not by sight.
 Yes, we do have confidence,
 and we would rather be away from the body
 and at home with the Lord.
 So whether we are at home or away,
 we make it our aim to please him.
 For all of us must appear before the judgment seat of Christ,
 so that each may receive recompense,
 for what has been done in the body,
 whether good or evil.

The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, Alleluia
 The seed is the word of God, Christ is the sower;
 all who come to him will live for ever.
 Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Mark 4.26-34

The smallest seed becomes the greatest of all shrubs.
