The Virgin Mary teaches us what it means to live in the Holy Spirit and what it means to accept the news of God in our life. She conceived Jesus by the work of the Holy Spirit, and every Christian, each one of us, is called to accept the Word of God, to accept Jesus inside of us, and then to bring him to everyone.

Pope Francis

Dear Parishioners,

Unfortunately, due to lockdown we have not been able to come together for three weeks, thus I have not been able to bring you up to date on some changes.

Over recent times, I have been in discussion with my doctors and the Archbishop, and it has been decided that I will be retiring from full time ministry as of the 11th of July 2021.

I am aware that for some of you this will come as a big surprise and even a shock, but I believe this is the right decision for me at this time. Not unlike Buckley, the time is right!! This decision has not been an easy one for me to make nor accept, but my health and wellbeing must come first.

Although this will take place in approximately a month, I had hope to inform you all personally at Mass. As this has not been possible (due to the lockdown), the parish newsletter is the only means of letting you know at this stage. I thank you for your understanding and hope that you will continue to pray for me in my next stage of life.

Fr Julian

DID YOU KNOW?

Points of interest and Catholic lore

- * 'The other side' refers to the eastern shore of the Sea of Galilee. This was known as pagan territory, the region of the Decapolis or the 'ten cities', which were not part of the traditional lands of Israel.
- * The Sea of Galilee was (and still is) notorious for storms, which could blow up very quickly and be tempestuous.
- * In Genesis 1, God brought order to the watery chaos at creation purely through his command. Here, Jesus does the same simply by verbal command.
- * In Mark's Gospel, the disciples are often portrayed as missing the point and failing to recognise who Jesus is!

SYMBOLS AND IMAGES

Jesus is presented as sharing in the power of God to command the wind and the sea to do his will. The disciples cry out in fear and Jesus protects and brings them to safety. We too can take comfort in the image of the haven offered by faith in Jesus when the storms of our lives threaten to overwhelm us.

FIRST READING: Job 38.1-4, 8-11

A reading from the book of Job.

The Lord answered Job out of the whirlwind:
Who is this that darkens counsel by words
without knowledge?
I will question you,
and you shall declare to me.
Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth?
Tell me if you have understanding.
Who shut in the sea with doors
when it burst out from the womb?
when I made the clouds its garment,
and prescribed bounds for it,
and set bars and doors,
and said: Thus far shall you come, and no farther,
and here shall your proud waves be stopped?

The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps 107.23-24, 25-26, 28-29, 30-31

R. *Give thanks to the Lord,
God's love is everlasting.*

Some went down to the sea in ships,
doing business on the mighty waters;
They saw the deeds of the Lord,
his wondrous works in the deep.

For he commanded and raised the stormy wind,
which lifted up the waves of the sea.
They mounted up to heaven
and they went down to the depths;
their courage melted away in their calamity.

Then they cried to the Lord in their trouble,
and he brought them out from their distress,
he made the storm be still,
and the waves of the sea were hushed.

Then they were glad when it grew calm,
and he brought them to their desired haven.
Let them thank the Lord for his steadfast love,
for his wonderful works to human beings.

R. *Give thanks to the Lord,
God's love is everlasting.*

SECOND READING: 2 Corinthians 5.14-17

A reading from the second letter of Paul to the Corinthians.

The love of Christ urges us on,
because we are convinced that one has died for all;
therefore all have died.
And he died for all,
so that those who live
might live no longer for themselves,
but for him who died and was raised for them.
From now on, therefore, we regard no one
from a human point of view.
Even though we once knew Christ
from a human point of view,
we know him no longer in that way.
So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation:
everything old has passed away;
see, everything has become new.

The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, Alleluia
A great prophet has appeared among us;
God has visited his people.
Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Mark 4.35-41

Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?
