HUMOUR

A laywoman was driving down the street in a sweat because he she had an important meeting and couldn't find a parking place. Looking up toward heaven, she said, "Lord, take pity on me. If you find me a parking place I'll go to Mass every Sunday for the rest of my life and give up drinking wine."

Miraculously, a parking place opened up right in front of her destination. The woman looked up to heaven again and said, "Never mind, Lord; I found one on my own."

The agenda of the Fifth Plenary Council of Australia was published last week from three years and several layers of prayer, listening, dialogue and discernment. It will shape the program of the Council's assemblies – the first of which opens on October 3 this year. The agenda has been developed in the form of posing questions, with 16 questions falling under six themes: Conversion; Prayer; Formation; Structures; Governance; and Institutions.

DID YOU KNOW?

Points of interest and Catholic lore

- * Jairus, as an official of the synagogue, belonged to one of the groups who were traditionally deeply suspicious and disapproving of Jesus. Here, however, Jairus' faith is contrasted with the lack of faith of the onlookers, who simply laugh at Jesus. His faith is rewarded.
- * For Jesus to lay hands upon a young woman of twelve years of age (old enough to be betrothed) would have been seen as a scandalous act. Jesus breaks through the restrictions of social norms to bring life.

Jesus stooped down to us and by his love he restored our dignity and brought us salvation. Jesus' humility never fails to move us, the fact that he bends down to wounded humanity in order to heal us: he bends down to heal all our wounds!

Pope Francis

FIRST READING: Wisdom .13-15; 2.224

A reading from the book of Wisdom.

God did not make death,
and he does not delight
in the death of the living.
For he created all things
so that they might exist;
the generative forces of the world
are wholesome,
and there is no destructive poison in them,
and the dominion of Hades is not on earth.
For righteousness is immortal.
For God created us for incorruption,
and made us in the image of his own eternity,
but through the devil's envy
death entered the world,
and those who belong to his company
experience it.

The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps 30.1+3, 4-5,
10+11a+12b

R. *I will praise you, Lord,
for you have rescued me.*

I will extol you, O Lord,
for you have drawn me up,
and did not let my foes rejoice over me.
O Lord, you brought up my soul from Sheol,
restored me to life
among those gone down to the Pit.

Sing praises to the Lord, O you his faithful ones,
and give thanks to his holy name.
For his anger is but for a moment;
his favour is for a lifetime.
Weeping may linger for the night,
but joy comes with the morning.

Hear, O Lord, and be gracious to me!
O Lord, be my helper!
You have turned my mourning into dancing,
O Lord my God, I will give thanks to you forever.

R. *I will praise you, Lord,
for you have rescued me.*

SECOND READING: 2 Corinthians 8.7, 9, 13-15

A reading from the second letter of Paul to the Corinthians.

Now as you excel in everything—
in faith, in speech, in knowledge,
in utmost eagerness, and in our love for you—
so we want you to excel also in this generous undertaking.
For you know the generous act of
our Lord Jesus Christ,
that though he was rich,
yet for your sakes he became poor,
so that by his poverty you might become rich.
I do not mean that there should be relief for others
and pressure on you,
but it is a question of a fair balance
between your present abundance and their need,
so that their abundance may be for your need,
in order that there may be a fair balance.
As it is written,
The one who had much did not have too much,
and the one who had little did not have too little.

The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, Alleluia
Our Saviour Jesus Christ
has done away with death
and brought us life through the gospel.
Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Mark 5.21-43

Little girl, get up!
