WORLD DAY FOR GRANDPARENTS AND THE ELDERLY

In January this year, Pope Francis announced the institution of a World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly, to be celebrated on Sunday 25 July, with the theme 'I am with you always' (Matthew 28:20).

The World Day will take place each year on the fourth Sunday in July, close to the feast of Saints Joachim and Anne.

This day encourages the Church to reflect on the value, gifts and dignity of grandparents and the elderly, whose love, wisdom and living memory are invaluable resources to be treasured and celebrated.

Holy Saviour Parish acknowledges & respects the Wurundjeri, the traditional custodians of this land.

God does not wait for us to go to him, but it is he who moves toward us, without calculation, without quantification. That is what God is like. He always takes the first step; he comes towards us.

Pope Francis

HUMOUR:

The married couple, both 70 years old, was celebrating their 50th anniversary. That night, God appeared to them in prayer to congratulate them for their faithfulness and grant them each one wish.

The wife wanted to travel around the world. Poof! The wife had tickets in her hand for a world cruise.

Next, God asked the husband what he wanted. He said, "I wish I had a wife 30 years younger than me.

Poof! The husband was 100.

DID YOU KNOW?

Points of interest and Catholic lore

- The image of the shepherd is often used in the Hebrew Scriptures to describe the relationship between God and his people Israel. They are the flock whom he will gather and protect.
- Our use of the term pastoral comes from this image of Christ as the shepherd of his flock.
- Jesus regularly took time to be alone, to pray and to contemplate God. Here he invites his followers to do the same.
- This is the only place in his gospel where Mark refers to the disciples as 'apostles'.

FIRST READING: Jeremiah 23:1-6

A reading from the book of the prophet Jeremiah.

Woe to the shepherds
who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture,
says the Lord.

Therefore, thus says the Lord, the God of Israel,
concerning the shepherds
who shepherd my people:

It is you who have scattered my flock,
and have driven them away,
and you have not attended to them.

So I will attend to you for your evil doings,
says the Lord.

Then I myself will gather the remnant of my flock
out of all the lands where I have driven them,
and I will bring them back to their fold,
I will raise up shepherds over them
who will shepherd them,
and they shall not fear any longer,
or be dismayed,

nor shall any be missing, says the Lord.

The days are surely coming, says the Lord,
when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch,
and he shall reign as king and deal wisely,
and shall execute justice and righteousness
in the land.

In his days Judah will be saved
and Israel will live in safety.

And this is the name by which he will be called:
"The Lord is our righteousness."

The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps 23:1-3a, 3b-4, 5, 6

R. *The Lord is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He makes me lie down in green pastures;
he leads me beside still waters;
he restores my soul.

He leads me in right paths for his name's sake.
Even though I walk through the darkest valley,
I fear no evil; for you are with me;
your rod and your staff—they comfort me.

You prepare a table before me
in the presence of my enemies;
you anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;
and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord
my whole life long.

R. *The Lord is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.

SECOND READING: Ephesians 2:13-18

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Ephesians.

Now in Christ Jesus
you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ.

For he is our peace,
in his flesh he has made both Jews
and Gentiles into one
and has broken down the dividing wall,
that is, the hostility between us.

He has abolished the law with its commandments
and ordinances, that he might create in himself
one new humanity in place of the two,
thus making peace,
and might reconcile both groups to God in one body
through the cross,
thus putting to death that hostility through it.
So Christ Jesus came and proclaimed peace to you
who were far off
and peace to those who were near,
for through him both of us have access in one Spirit
to the Father.

The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, Alleluia
My sheep listen to my voice, says the Lord;
I know them, and they follow me.
Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Mark 6:30-34

They were like sheep without a shepherd.

The apostles rejoined Jesus and told him all they had done and taught. Then he said to them, 'You must come away to some lonely place all by yourselves and rest for a while'; for there were so many coming and going that the apostles had no time even to eat. So they went off in a boat to a lonely place where they could be by themselves. But people saw them going,
and many could guess where; and from every town
they all hurried to the place on foot and reached it before them. So as he stepped ashore he saw a large crowd; and he took pity on them because they were like sheep without a shepherd, and he set himself to teach them at some length.

The gospel of the Lord.
