OUR VISION

Our Parish leads and supports all members on their journey of faith.

OUR MISSION

We welcome and engage everyone in our faith community at Holy Saviour so that all may feel at home.

We provide opportunities for people to encounter God through liturgy and community.

We actively live God's message of love and justice in a way that is relevant for today.

PARISH PRAYER

God of all creation, may your Spirit inspire us to do your will. Bless us in your service, strengthen us in our support of each other. Unite us as we grow in faith and love, to be a welcoming, caring community, enabling all to flourish, especially our children and the most vulnerable.

This we pray in the name of our Holy Saviour, Jesus Christ, the Lord. Amen.

SUNDAY 10TH APRIL 2022—PALM SUNDAY-YEAR C

PALM SUNDAY

As we begin Holy Week we take the blessed Palm and recall the entry of Jesus into Jerusalem.

There are mixed messages around the Gospel account. Were they seen as apathetic set of marginalised enthusiasts accompany Jesus into the city?

The powerful Romans pride themselves in riding strong groomed horses. Jesus arrives trotting in riding on a donkey!

REFLECTION

Christianity is a faith of paradox: leadership through service; greatness through humility; and life through death. The greatest paradox of all is the paradox of the cross. The death of Jesus through the most humiliating form of capital punishment in history would appear to be exactly what the Jewish authorities hoped it would be: the end of the Jesus movement. The ignoble death of a group's leader through public execution is usually enough to bring about the end of any movement. However, Christians know that the death of Jesus is not the end of the story.

His resurrection, that we celebrate at Easter next weekend, is the twist in the tale that means the death of Jesus, rather than being a point of despair, in fact becomes a moment of hope. This difference of expectation is captured in the Lukan account of the crucifixion by the two criminals with whom Jesus is crucified. One joins in the mockery of Jesus, whilst the other recognises the innocence of Jesus and has faith that Jesus will enter into his kingdom. This second criminal acts as an example for all people of faith. He reminds us that those with faith still have to face death and still have to face up to the consequences of their actions, and yet the way we approach death should not be with despair, but rather with hope and confidence that we will share in Christ's resurrection.

The reading of the Passion narrative leaves us up in the air. It leaves us in a better position than the disciples at the time. They were downcast by what they felt was the defeat of Jesus, but we know the end of the story! We know that out of this darkness will come light and hope!

SYMBOLS & IMAGES

Two symbols dominate the celebration of Christ's Passion: the palms and the cross. The palms symbolise Christ's triumph, and the cross is the means by which that triumph is achieved.

READINGS: Easter Sunday: 1st Reading: Acts 10.34a, 36-43; Resp Psalm: 118.1-2, 16-17, 22-23 (R. This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.); 2nd Reading: Col 3.1-4; Gospel: Jn 20.1-18

GOSPEL: Luke 19:28-40

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

FIRST READING: Isaiah 50:4-7

A reading from the book of the prophet Isaiah.

The servant of the Lord said:
The Lord God has given me
the tongue of a teacher,
that I may know how to sustain the weary
with a word.
Morning by morning he wakens
wakens my ear to listen as those who are taught.
The Lord God has opened my ear,
and I was not rebellious,
I did not turn backward.
I gave my back to those who struck me,
and my cheeks to those who pulled out the beard;
I did not hide my face
from insult and spitting.
The Lord God helps me,
therefore I have not been disgraced;
therefore I have set my face like flint,
and I know that I shall not be put to shame.

The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps 22:7-8, 16-17, 18-19, 22-23

R.     *My God, my God,
          why have you abandoned me?*

All who see me mock at me;
they make mouths at me,
they shake their heads;
"Commit your cause to the Lord; let him deliver;
let him rescue the one in whom he delights!"

For dogs are all around me,
a company of evildoers encircles me.
My hands and feet have shrivelled;
I can count all my bones.

They divide my clothes among themselves,
and for my clothing they cast lots.
But you, O Lord, do not be far away!
O my help, come quickly to my aid!

I will tell of your name to my brothers and sisters;
in the midst of the congregation I will praise you:
You who fear the Lord, praise him!
All you offspring of Jacob, glorify him;
stand in awe of him, all you offspring of Israel!

R.     *My God, my God,
          why have you abandoned me?*

SECOND READING: Philippians 2:6-11

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Philippians.

Let the same be in you that was in Christ Jesus,
who, though he was in the form of God,
did not regard equality with God
as something to be exploited,
but emptied himself,
taking the form of a slave,
being born in human likeness.
And being found in human form,
he humbled himself
and became obedient to the point of death,
even death on a cross.
Therefore God highly exalted him
and gave him the name that is above every name,
so that at the name of Jesus
every knee should bend,
in heaven and on earth and under the earth,
and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord,
to the glory of God the Father.

The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Philippians 2:8-9

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!
Christ became obedient for us even to death,
dying on the cross.
Therefore God raised him on high
and gave him a name above all other names.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

GOSPEL: Luke 22:66-23:49

The passion of our Lord Jesus Christ
