REFLECTION

The feeding of the five thousand in today's Gospel is one of those anticipatory sharings in the heavenly banquet of the age to come.

We say this feeding is miraculous, and it was. A major part of the miracle is in the transformation of the Twelve. Our Lord did not personally feed the five thousand. He required his followers to get involved in alleviating hunger: 'You give them something to eat,' rather than leaving the crowd to fend for themselves, or resort to market economics. When they shared the food he had blessed, the miracle of the hospitality of God was multiplied throughout the crowd – extravagantly.

And so Our Lord gave his followers and the crowd a real taste of the future generosity of God in the heavenly banquet. But, it would not have happened had the inner groups of disciples not shared Jesus' vision and got involved in what seemed to be an impossible task.

The Last Supper was the greatest anticipatory meal which Our Lord shared with his disciples. And, at Mass, we are eating and drinking the glorified humanity of our Risen Lord Jesus Christ: the life of the future.

We could pause for a moment to identify the myriad of hungers in this world and resolve to fulfil Our Lord's Command: 'You give them something to eat!' so that Divine Generosity might transform human history.

FIRST READING: Genesis 14.18-20

A reading from the book of Genesis.

When Abram heard that his nephew, Lot,
has been taken captive,
he led forth his trained men,
and routed the abductors.
After Abram's return King Melchizedek of Salem brought out bread and wine;
he was priest of God Most High.
He blessed Abram and said,
"Blessed be Abram by god Most High,
maker of heaven and earth;
and blessed be God Most High, who has delivered your enemies into your hand!"
And Abram gave him one tenth of everything.

The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps 110.1, 2, 3, 4

R. *You are a priest for ever,
in the line of Melchizedek.*

The Lord says to my lord,
"Sit at my right hand until I make your enemies your footstool."

The Lord sends out from Zion your mighty sceptre.
Rule in the midst of your foes.

Your people will offer themselves willingly on the day you lead your forces on the holy mountains.
From the womb of the morning,
like dew, your youth will come to you.

The Lord has sworn and will not change his mind,
"You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek."

R. *You are a priest for ever,

SECOND READING: 1 Corinthians 11.23-26

A reading from the first letter of Paul to the Corinthians.

Beloved,
I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took a loaf of bread,
and when he had given thanks,
he broke it and said,
"This is my body that is for you.
Do this in remembrance of me."
In the same way he took the cup also, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood.
Do this, as often as you drink it,
in remembrance of me."
For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, Alleluia,
I am the living bread from heaven, says the Lord;
whoever eats this bread will live forever.
Alleluia.

GOSPEL: John 16.12-15

All ate and were filled.
