TWIG SUNDAY APPEAL

2 & 3 JULY – ABORIGINAL SUNDAY

This year the TWIG Sunday Appeal will support the establishment of a Youth Centre in Kalumburu, far north Western Australia. This is where Kevin McDermott spent several months early this year as a volunteer.

(Kevin will speak at the Masses this weekend)

Kalumburu is an isolated community, accessible by dirt roads when the weather is dry, and served with a small airport. The community has approximately 400 families, mostly women and youth, the adult males leave the community for work. There are no activities to engage the youth, consequently they are often in trouble with the law and the suicide rate is high. To help alleviate this problem the Catholic Diocese of Broome, the Western Australian Government and the Kalumburu Aboriginal Corporation aim to appoint a Youth Worker.

There is a large house on the Mission that will become a Youth Centre, however, at this time they have no equipment to actively engage the youth.

Our project is to raise funds for the purchase of sporting equipment, games, e.g., jigsaw puzzles, board games, books, and any other items the Youth Worker considers appropriate. There is a need to get the youth into activities that keep them occupied and prevent their continuing interaction with law enforcement and self-harm.

The Broome Diocese has set up a Trust fund for donations to this cause. You can donate at Masses this weekend or by direct debit to the TWIG account. Credit Card forms are available in the foyer should you wish to use this facility.

REFLECTION

Although the gospel is a report of ministerial commissioning, it contains elements of discipleship in general. Most obvious is the disciples' dependence on Jesus. They are not independent missionaries; they are followers. Furthermore, there is a communal dimension of discipleship. While there is certainly a personal relationship between Jesus and each disciple, discipleship itself is not a singular privilege that one hugs to oneself to the exclusion of others.

Disciples minister to the needs of others, whatever those needs may be and with whatever abilities the disciple may possess. There are various kinds of healing: a friendly smile, a word of gratitude, a soothing touch. We can teach the lessons of life in classrooms, in playrooms, in kitchens, in boardrooms. There are many ways that we can cast out the demons that hold our world by the throat; demons of poverty and oppression, demons of addiction and slavery, demons of disdain and neglect, demons of hatred and violence. If they are not cast out by us, then by whom?

The life of discipleship is not an unmixed blessing. Because disciples are marked by the sign of the cross, they must expect suffering. Because they do not live according to the standards of the world, disciples will be judged as fools. Some of them will be subjected to even greater suffering. Still, the disciple proclaims that true fulfilment is only found in God! In reality, it is the world that is upside down, not the life of discipleship. And it is the cross that sets things right.

Did you know? Points of interest and Catholic lore

- The image of the vineyard is often used in the Old Testament as an image of God's people. They must be tended to and cultivated well so that the harvest is a rich one.
- The Church has always understood its main function to be one of announcing the Gospel to others. This is the mission of the Church, and the work is carried out by missionaries.
- All baptised people are called to be a part of this missionary activity of the Church.

FIRST READING: Isaiah 66:10-14

A reading from the book of the prophet Isaiah.

Rejoice with Jerusalem,
and be glad for her,
all you who love her;
rejoice with her in joy,
all you who mourn over her—
that you may nurse and be satisfied
from her consoling breast;
that you may drink deeply with delight
from her glorious bosom.
For thus says the Lord:
I will extend prosperity to her like a river,
and the wealth of the nations
like an overflowing stream;
and you shall nurse and be carried on her arm,
and dandled on her knees.
As a mother comforts her child,
so I will comfort you;
you shall be comforted in Jerusalem.
You shall see, and your heart shall rejoice;
your bodies shall flourish like the grass;
and it shall be known
that the hand of the Lord is with his servants.

The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps 66:1-3, 4-5, 6-7, 16+20

R. Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

Make a joyful noise to God, all the earth,
sing the glory of his name;
give to him glorious praise.
Say to God, "How awesome are your deeds!"

"All the earth worships you,
they sing praises to you,
sing praises to your name."
Come and see what God has done:
he is awesome in his deeds among mortals.

He turned the sea into dry land;
they passed through the river on foot.
There we rejoiced in him,
who rules by his might forever.

Come and hear, all you who fear God,
and I will tell what he has done for me.
Blessed be God,
because he has not rejected my prayer
or removed his steadfast love from me.

R. Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

SECOND READING: Galatians 6:14-18

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Galatians.

May I never boast of anything
except the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ,
by which the world has been crucified to me,
and I to the world.
For neither circumcision
nor uncircumcision is anything;
but a new creation is everything!
As for those who will follow this rule—
Peace be upon them, and mercy,
and upon the Israel of God.
From now on, let no one make trouble for me;
for I carry the marks of Jesus branded on my body.
May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ
be with your spirit, brothers and sisters. Amen.

The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!
May the peace of Christ rule in your hearts,
and the fullness of his message live within you.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL: Luke 10:1-12, 17-20

Your peace will find a home with those who are at peace.
