Mission Statement*

Meet our Seminarian Intern—Sam Horan

Our parish gratefully welcomes Sam Horan, 24, seventh-year seminarian at Kenrick-Glennon Seminary in St. Louis. Recently re-assigned to Our Lady of Guadalupe for his “pastoral internship,” Sam was with us also in 2020 following a very intensive year in the seminary. Sam served our parish while living at the rectory that summer along with another seminarian, now Fr. Garrett King, as well as Fathers Christian and Gabe, and Sam recalls it being a very good personal experience of learning and growth.

The younger of two children, Sam’s mother is Lori Volz Horan, who grew up at the Cathedral of St. Joseph, the daughter of Teresa Nell and Francis Volz. His father, Terry Horan, was a member of St. Catherine Parish in KCMO. Sam was raised at Our Lady of Good Counsel Parish in KC (“a bubble of amazingness!”), serving under the spiritual tutelage and of his beloved pastor, the late Msgr. Bill Blacet (also a St. Joseph native).

One of Sam’s interests is the ancient form of sung praise called Gregorian Chant. “I didn’t even know I could sing,” he said, “until I joined the Propers Group at St. Greg’s.” There he learned how to sing Gregorian Chant and discovered his love for it. Seminarian Sam earned his BA in Philosophy at St. Gregory the Great Seminary in Seward, Nebraska, followed by two years of theology at Kenrick. Sam will be with us until the summer of 2022 when he will return to Kenrick for his final two years of theology. He plans are to be ordained a transitional deacon in 2023 and as a priest in 2024. We all appreciate Sam’s devotion to our parish and offer our gratitude and prayers for him in the coming year.

The Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph is committed to combating sexual abuse in the Church. If you are a victim of sexual abuse, or if you observe or suspect sexual abuse:

1. Call the Missouri Child Abuse Hotline at 1.800.392.3738 (if the victim is currently under the age of 18), and
2. Contact your local law enforcement agency or call 911, and
3. After reporting to these civil and law enforcement authorities, report suspected sexual abuse of a minor or vulnerable adult to the Diocesan Ombudsman, Joe Crayon, at 816.812.2500 or crayon@ombudsmankcsj.org, if the abuse involves a priest, deacon, employee or volunteer of the Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph.

The Diocese has a sincere commitment to providing care and healing resources to victims of sexual abuse and their families. Please contact the Victim Advocate at 816.392.0011 or victimadvocate@diocesekcsj.org for more information.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church

Paragraphs 150 - 152 Man's Response to God

To believe in God alone

150 Faith is first of all a personal adherence of man to God. At the same time, and inseparably, it is a free assent to the whole truth that God has revealed. As personal adherence to God and assent to his truth, Christian faith differs from our faith in any human person. It is right and just to entrust oneself wholly to God and to believe absolutely what he says. It would be futile and false to place such faith in a creature.

To believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God

151 For a Christian, believing in God cannot be separated from believing in the One he sent, his "beloved Son", in whom the Father is "well pleased"; God tells us to listen to him. The Lord himself said to his disciples: "Believe in God, believe also in me." We can believe in Jesus Christ because he is himself God, the Word made flesh: "No one has ever seen God; the only Son, who is in the bosom of the Father, he has made him known." Because he "has seen the Father", Jesus Christ is the only one who knows him and can reveal him.

To believe in the Holy Spirit

152 One cannot believe in Jesus Christ without sharing in his Spirit. It is the Holy Spirit who reveals to men who Jesus is. For "no one can say "Jesus is Lord", except by the Holy Spirit", who "searches everything, even the depths of God. . No one comprehends the thoughts of God, except the Spirit of God." Only God knows God completely: we believe in the Holy Spirit because he is God.

The Church never ceases to proclaim her faith in one only God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

A Letter from Fr. Christian

Dear friends,

Last week, our seminarian Ethan Osborn returned to his studies at Kenrick Theological Seminary in St. Louis, MO. I say "our" seminarian because Ethan has chosen Our Lady of Guadalupe as his spiritual home here in the diocese. I'm really happy to have him as a parishioner and happy to be of support to him in his discernment in the priesthood. Hopefully, he will be back to visit us when he is on break from the seminary. Let us support him with our prayers. I'm sure he would be happy to hear from you and know of your support. You may write to him at: Kenrick Seminary, 5200 Glennon Dr., St. Louis, MO 63119

Peace and God bless,

Fr. Christian

Serving God and Others

We greatly desire all of our parishioners, who are able, to please return to Sunday Mass. Our parish continues to livestream the 8:30 a.m. Mass on Sunday. It may be found on the OLOG Face Book page. A direct link can be found on the OLOG website at www.olog.org. Those with serious health concerns or who are caregivers to the vulnerable, continue to have the grant of particular dispensation.

SAVE THE DATE! Sat., Aug. 28th

“Potluck Dinner & Bingo Night” in Summers Hall, immediately following the 4:00 p.m. Mass.

Bring a potluck dish to share.

Fried chicken and “Fat Boy” ice cream bars will be provided.

We’ll play Bingo after dinner. Prizes awarded!

R.C.I.A.: Do you have a family member or friend who is thinking about becoming Catholic? Maybe they’ve been interested but weren’t sure of the steps to take to make this happen. Invite them to contact Kathy at the parish office since we’re in the process of registering adults for the R.C.I.A. this month. Weekly sessions begin Sept. 14th. Registration takes about 30 minutes or less. Fr. Christian will teach the important truths of our faith, doctrine, and beliefs one lesson at a time. ink about passing the word on to someone who needs to know about R.C.I.A.

Parents of our School of Faith children and other adults will be offered an hour of faith formation and continued education on Sundays starting Sept. 12th. While the children are in their classrooms downstairs, parents and other adults can gather in Summers Hall to hear presentations by three different teams of catechists who’ll be offering similar Catholic faith subjects the children will be learning.

The people of Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish have once again shown their generosity. Parishioners contributed 263 pairs of shoes for the annual Soles for Christ project, originated at OLOG.

These shoes will be distributed to community children in need so they can have something new to wear as the school year begins.

Thank you, and please continue to pray for students and teachers as the academic term gets under way.

“Hebrews: The New and Eternal Covenant” begins at OLOG Sept. 14th and Sept. 16th! Do we realize how richly we’ve been blessed? The book of Hebrews is like a little Catechism. It’s steeped in rich truths that are foundational to our Catholic Faith, and it’s considered by many to be the “Holy of Holies” of biblical theology. There’ll be a video presentation by Dr. Andrew Swafford and Jeff Cavins, followed by enriching classroom discussion. Register now by contacting the parish office, 232-2847. The 8 week sessions are on Tuesdays, 9-10:30 a.m. OR Thursdays, 6:30-8:00 p.m. The study set is $26, payable at the sessions. Materials must be ordered, so please register as soon as you can!

The Food of the Month for August is canned soup. Easy for children to prepare and nutritious! Please place your canned soup, or any other type of food you would like to donate, in the wooden bins near the outer doors of the church. Pray for all who may be food-insecure, especially children. Thank you!

“If you can’t feed a hundred people then just feed one.” Saint Teresa of Calcutta

All you bakers out there.....we are in need of cakes for the cake walk at the carnival.

They will need to be in non returnable dishes of course. You can drop off your cakes at the parish office from 9:00—12:00 on Friday, August 27.

Or bring them Sunday morning and there will be a table in the gathering space for you to drop them off.

*We appreciate all that our parishioners do to make our events successful.
God bless you all!*

Legion of Mary

Please consider helping us be the “hands and feet for Christ” making personal contact with our parishioners. Plan to attend the next meeting to discern if Mary is calling you to this apostolate.

We meet each Wednesday morning at 9am downstairs in Marian Hall, with Fr. Christian, our spiritual leader.

Anyone is welcome to sit in on a meeting.

Donations of 2-Liter bottles of pop are still needed for the Carnival.

Please bring donations to the front offices. Thank you !!

The Son Shine card group will meet on Thursday, September 2 at 9:00 am in the conference room. Mark your calendars ladies. See you on the 2nd!

The third annual “In His Presence” Eucharistic Congress
